MY DEAR FAMILY OF FAITH,

Happy Celebration of the Epiphany! As we begin this new year of 2022, let us, like the three Magi, joyfully welcome our newborn King into our hearts and our lives. Let us seek Him every day and may we desire to be near Him always. Rather than finding Him in the stable at Bethlehem, we can come to visit Jesus right here in our church - He is present for us at every Holy Mass, and at all times in the Tabernacle. How blessed we are that we can come and worship Him without having to travel hundreds of miles for days on end, like the Magi. God has given us His greatest Gift. What gifts can we bring Him in return?

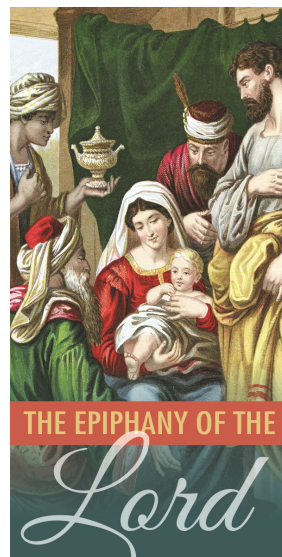

I invite you to take a piece of blessed chalk along with you this weekend after Holy Mass to bless your home on this Feast of the Epiphany. The tradition is to use the chalk to inscribe the initials of the three Magi (Gaspar, Melchior and Balthasar), along with the numbers of the new year: 20+G+M+B+22, above your home's entrance asking for God's blessing on your home.

In this coming year, our parish, along with our entire Diocese, will continue to focus on Bishop Hying's vision for evangelization and the "Go Make Disciples" initiative. Our parish Evangelization team and I have been meeting and determining ways in which we can become better disciples of Christ, and in turn, go forth and make more disciples as we spread the Good News of God's salvation.

Congratulations and God Blessings to Agnes Ruth Schmitz, baptized on December 26th. Welcome to Christ's family in the Catholic Church!

God Bless you,

Fr. Chad M. Droessler
