Please keep him in your prayers throughout his faith journey.

The St. Faustina: Love and Mercy movie tickets are still available at local theaters or online for an additional showing on Sunday, December 10th at 7:00 pm; I strongly recommend to all Catholics to see this movie, especially the members of the newly formed Cenacle groups.

DIVINE MERCY: From the Diary of St. Faustina

During one of the adorations, Jesus promised me that: "With souls that have recourse to my mercy and with those that glorify and proclaim my great mercy to others, I will deal according to my infinite mercy at the hour of their death.

"My heard is sorrowful," Jesus said, "because even chosen souls do not understand the greatness of my mercy. Their relationship (with Me) is, in certain ways, imbued with mistrust. Oh, how much that wounds my heart! Remember my passion, and if you do not believe my words, at least believe my wounds." (Diary 379)

My Response: Lord Jesus, I believe and trust in your infinite mercy. Allow me to glorify and proclaim your great mercy to others.

Divine Mercy Gift for You!

Last week we started the meetings of the newly formed Divine Mercy Cenacle groups. Nearly 60 people are attending, including about a third from several other area parishes. Cenacle is a small group prayer, study, and action ministry devoted to personal faith growth through discussion of the Diary of St. Faustina, the Catechism of the Catholic Church, the Catholic Bible, personal faith sharing and spiritual and corporal deeds of mercy.

Bi-weekly meetings are offered on many different days and times. Each one will last about 1 hour 45 minutes. The sessions will be held at Father Cotter Hall on the first and third Sundays from 8:30 - 9:45 am (before the 10:00 am Mass), 11:00-12:45 pm, (after the 10:00 am Mass). Parallel meetings will be held during the same week on Wednesdays at 1:30-3:15 pm and 7:00-8:30 pm, and on Thursdays at 6:30-8:15 pm. There is about 30 minutes of assigned readings before each session.

The registration fee is $20; this includes the participant's "Cenacle Formation Manual." Members will also be asked to bring their own Diary of St. Faustina, Catholic Bible, and Catechism of the Catholic Church texts to each meeting. Several copies of the smaller edition of the Diary are available for purchase ($10) at the parish office. Many New American Catholic Bibles will be available for temporary use during the meetings. Sessions will be led by a lay facilitator with a priest present at many sessions for a Q & A. All adults can join; parishioners and non-parishioners are welcome! ### In Gratitude - from St. Nick Nite Chair, Jane Rozek

Volunteers are the heartbeat of our church. We have been blessed with some of the best people. These faith filled people are God's gift to all of us here at Blessed Sacrament Church! I could never do what I do with out all the people who time after time say YES! God Bless! Jane Rozek

This project benefits the families served by our food pantry, St. Faustina's Gate. The need is great, but the generosity and compassion of our parishioners always astounds us. This year we are asking for $10 gift cards from Wal-Mart or Target. Why those two retailers? Because a family can purchase clothing, toiletries, toys, food or other necessities based upon the needs of their particular family as both stores offer a wide selection of all of these items.

In order to meet our scheduled distribution date, please send in your donations by Friday, December 13th. They can be placed in the collection basket, in an envelope marked Giving Tree, or dropped off at the parish office. On behalf of the families who will benefit by this generosity, thank you!

Yes We Can!

The next "Yes We Can" collection is the weekend of December 14 & 15.
The requested item:
Tomato Products
Thank you for your ongoing support of this program.

Our parish is truly blessed with countless volunteers who donate their time, talent, and passion to make it vibrant and grow stronger. On November 9th in the Parish Center, most of our volunteers came to the Annual Volunteer Appreciation Dinner. All had a wonderful time - enjoyed the food and each others' company. Thank you again for volunteering. Know that you are truly appreciated.

Over 140 parishioners and friends of Blessed Sacrament had a great time celebrating the parish's 90th anniversary at a dinner banquet held at Benchetti's Hall following the anniversary 4:00 pm Mass with Bishop Grosz presiding on October 26th.
