Health Ministry: What to Give?

The expensive holiday is here and 30% of us are still paying off last year's debt.

Give the Gift of an Experience

Tradition dictates that it's a time of gift giving yet, many of us already have too much stuff.

Instead of adding to the glut of material items, consider giving experiences instead. Wrap your printed experience gift offer to:

A child — a field trip to the zoo, sports game, science center, train ride, live stage production, even a hike in the woods or a family night at the movies. Less costly, a DVD movie night at home with popcorn or an ice cream social.

Shut-ins, elderly, those overwhelmed by life events — home cooked or purchased meal or meals. Parents — a few nights of babysitting.

Spouse — a few weekends to do whatever they want (with or without you) or do a specific job they do not like for a certain period of time.

Friends — time together sharing life's ups and downs. Gifts of experiences are consumed instead of turning into clutter, breaking or gathering dust...the memories created from doing something can far outlast the pleasure of getting something.

Introductions to Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Baruch 5:1-9

The setting for today's reading is the time when the Jews were captives in Babylon. The author writes of a bright future when they will return with joy to their homeland. In this passage, Jerusalem is pictured as a joyful mother, watching her children come home.

Second Reading - Philippians 1:4-6, 8-11

Of all the communities Paul founded, the one at Philippi was especially dear to him. Wherever he was, they sent him moral and financial support to help carry on his work. Now confined to a prison cell, Paul writes to them like a proud parent.

#GIVINGTUESDAY UPDATE

Donations continue to come in for our Giving Tuesday/ Annual Fund campaign. To date we have received $58,376.02. Thank you to everyone who has supported our efforts and our school. We are overwhelmed by your generosity and so very grateful!

UPCOMING EVENTS

Our students in grades five through eight are allowed the opportunity to choose between taking band or music. Those students who choose to take band get to decide which instrument they would like to learn, with the choices being something in the brass, woodwind, or percussion families.

Additionally, we have an after school choir that students may audition for and that meets two times each week.

Our annual band and choir concert will be taking place on Thursday, December 13th starting at 7:00 PM. All are welcome to attend and show their support of our budding musicians.

Each year we also put on a Christmas play with the students in grades kindergarten through three. This year's production is "On With The Snow" and will take place on Monday, December 17th at 7:00 PM. Again, all are welcome to attend!

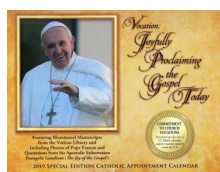

SVDP Outreach Ministry - A Personal Story

When I met Anna at her home visit, I had a strong sense of hopelessness. The phone call to our Help Line had come from her daughter, Erica, who lives out of town. She was concerned that her 72-year-old mother did not have a bed and was sleeping on a broken-down couch. It didn't take long to realize that I was wrong – Anna was full of hope! She had a queen size frame, still in the box, and hoped we could provide the mattress and box springs. Her broken couch was a huge presence in the tiny living room, but she had hope that Erica and her husband would be able to dispose of it before we brought her another. And she hoped we would be able to provide a bed for her younger brother, who was mentally handicapped and had lived with her for many years. Our conversation turned to Anna's health and she disclosed that the doctor thought she had cancer, but she was pretty sure she didn't. They had done some surgery but she was still feeling badly. My sense of hopelessness returned. Update: Anna is now comfy in a new queen bed with a lovely couch and a recliner in her living room. We were unable to afford a bed for her brother but I'm certain Anna is still hopeful it will happen. Thanks for helping make the holidays a little brighter for all of our clients!
