Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed

It is the custom of our parish to remember every individual who has been buried from Holy Family during the last year. Candles will be lit as their names are read and placed in the Books of Remembrance at both churches. Everyone is invited to add deceased loved ones' names to these books beginning next weekend. We ask you to pray with us for all the faithful departed.

8 Things to Remember

When Going Through

Tough Times

1. Everything can - and will - change.
2. You've overcome challenges before.
3. It's a learning experience.
4. Not getting what you want can be a blessing.
5. Allow yourself to have some fun.
6. Being kind to yourself is the best medicine.
7. Other people's negativity isn't worth worrying about.
8. And there is always, always, always, always something to be thankful for.

If you ended up with leftover Halloween candy, SVDP could add it to holiday gift baskets. Just drop it in the blue donation bins at the church doors. THANKS!

Introductions to Sunday Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Wisdom 11:22—12:2

The book of Wisdom was written by a teacher who lived in Alexandria, Egypt, a center for Greek philosophy in the ancient world. It was written about 50 years before Christ, and was the last book of the Old Testament to be written. After the first verse of today's passage, the author speaks directly to God and does so in poetic fashion.

Second Reading - 2 Thessalonians 1:11—2:2

In his first letter to the Thessalonians, Paul told them always to be prepared for the Lord's coming in glory. Some of them became preoccupied with the date when the Lord would come. The second letter to the community addressed that situation.

McGraw-Kokosing Donates $4,995!

The employees and the management of McGraw-Kokosing Construction Company made their annual donation to the St. Vincent de Paul Pantry last week. Their very generous donation of $4,995 to our pantry will support the Thanksgiving baskets we will be giving to deserving Middletown families as well as Pantry operations throughout the year. McGraw-Kokosing employees also provide Christmas gifts every year to three families recommended by St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you to McGraw-Kokosing employees and management. You are truly valued members of our Middletown Community! Deacon John Lyons - TREASURER

Calvary Cemetery Collection

by Dr. Steph Burk - parishioner &
Calvary Cemetery Assoc. Member

Halloween is just around the corner as I write this. When I feed the ponies in the predawn hours, owls hoot in the nearby woods, and falling walnuts bounce noisily off the metal barn roof, reminding me that I'm supposed to be afraid of "things that go bump in the night." Thousands of years ago, the Celts who inhabited much of Europe believed that at this time of year, the veil that separated the living from the world of the dead was thinnest; on one dark, mysterious night, known as Samhain, the souls of the deceased could actually walk among us. The rugged landscape of Ireland housed some of the last vestiges of Celtic culture, and celebrating Samhain was one of them. Samhain traditions still live on in our modern day Halloween; in fact some of our favorite seasonal customs - carving pumpkins, bobbing for apples, and lighting autumn bonfires - derive from ancient Irish rituals. Evidence suggests that, like their current descendants, many of the Iron Age peoples in Europe commemorated their dead with stone monuments. If you walk through Calvary Cemetery and read the headstones - perhaps the modern-day equivalent of trilithons and dolmens and stone-lined barrows - you will discover many Irish names and birthplaces. Of course they brought their customs with them as the immigrated to our area. Scary things, like ghosts and goblins and banshees. One of the scariest Halloween images? The abandoned cemetery. Grave-stones sag like broken teeth, time erases names and the memories they once evoked. A mere few feet of soil - like the veil between the worlds - separates us from the mortal remains of someone who once walked this earth, beloved and loving in turn. And it reminds us of our own mortality. Frightening, certainly, and poignant as well. By the time you read the bulletin with this essay, Halloween will be over and we will be moving into November, the month in which we commemorate our deceased family and friends. Calvary Cemetery relies on your continued support to keep our burial grounds sacred and seemly, and to prevent it from turning into one of those places you wouldn't want to visit on Halloween night. We appreciate your continued generosity in commemorating parish members who have gone before us. Please look for the blue envelope in the November pack.

Giving Trees in the Churches This Weekend!

Giving Tree Gifts are a very personal way to share the joy of Christmas!

As is tradition, parishioners are invited to choose an ornament, purchase the suggested gift, wrap it, and bring the gift with the tag attached to the 9:00 AM Thanksgiving Day Mass celebrated at St. John Church or to the parish office during the first week of December.

Prison Ministry: Angel Tag We team with Messiah Lutheran Church to provide Christmas gifts for Middletown children whose parent or guardian is currently in prison. Through the chaplain, inmates request gifts for their children. These gifts are passed out at a party on Dec 14th!

Family Services: Star Tag Needy families in the Middletown area sign up with Family Services for Christmas gifts for their children. Our St. Vincent de Paul Society joins other organizations in the community to provide these gifts. Our SVDP passes out these gifts on Friday, Dec 20th!

Homebound Parishioners: Christmas Tree Tag

We share Christmas with our parish family! The best gift you can give is the gift of your time and friendship! Pope Frances says,

"You are the visible face of the invisible Father!"

Again this year we're asking for uplifting Christmas visits to our homebound parishioners - so no need to buy a gift or return the tag! In fact - you'll want to keep the tag, as on the back you'll find the name and address plus some personal notes for a homebound parishioner who would love a visit from YOU! Involve the whole family! Grandparents - have your grandchildren color a Christmas picture or make a fancy ornament. Moms and dads - pick out a family favorite Christmas story and have the kids read it aloud or bake and decorate some Christmas Cookies to take along. Scout troops - pair up for individual visits and then join as a troop to go caroling in the halls! Instead of going out for coffee, friends can instead plan a visit and give a small religious or personal care item as a little gift! Why not take a break from the crazy materialism of the season and spread some Christmas Joy! You'll be glad you did!

OUR DOORS ARE OPEN: No matter what your present status in the Catholic Church, no matter what your current family and marital situation, no matter what your age, race, background, personal history, etc., no matter what your own self-image — you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected here at Holy Family Parish. Our doors are open!

Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick

We sometimes receive phone calls asking Fr. Civile to give "Last Rites." Previously administered only to the dying or critically ill, the sacrament is known now as the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick. Today the sacrament is extended to all who are ill or are about to undergo an operation or treatment. Like the sacraments of Reconciliation and Eucharist, to which it is closely linked, the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick can be repeated as often as necessary. There is no need nor reason to wait for the last possible moment. You're encouraged to call the parish office 422-0602 if you would like to receive the Anointing of the Sick for yourself or a loved one.

Bishop Fenwick High School's Open House

Sunday, November 10th 1 to 3 PM

Bishop Fenwick High School's Open House is designed for 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th graders and their families. This is a great opportunity to tour the campus, speak with our principal, Blane Collison, and meet Bishop Fenwick faculty, coaches, students and current families. There will be interactive displays throughout the academic classrooms and our athletic teams and clubs will be represented with display tables. Three lucky students will win a $100 Amazon Gift Card! No registration is required, but you can pre-register to expedite the check-in process at www.fenwickfalcons.org. Should you have any questions, please call 513-428-0525.

St. John XXIII

Catholic School

Pre-K to Grade 8

by Dawn Pickerill / Principal

TRADITIONAL VALUES. EXCEPTIONAL EDUCATION.

St. John XXIII represents 150 years of Catholic Education dedicated to encouraging and developing well-rounded, self-confident and compassionate children and young adults who lead successful, mindful, service-driven lives. Our school community is the foundation on which our core principles of faith and hard work bind us together as a family.

If you are interested in a Catholic education that provides a challenging, structured and thoughtful learning environment led by highly qualified and experienced teachers, contact Principal Dawn Pickerill.

THANK YOU

Thank you to all of the students who made our Living Rosary on Tuesday so beautiful. The junior high students did a great job leading us, and the entire student body was extremely engaged and reverent.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS

The St. John XXIII Catholic School Annual Fund Campaign will kick off on Giving Tuesday which is December 3rd. We truly appreciate our parish and all of the support that you give to our wonderful school!

TUESDAY

The Children's Choir Will Sing at the 10:30 AM Mass Next Sunday! The Children's Choir, under the direction of Marilyn Ifcic, has been rehearsing for several weeks and will be leading the singing at the 10:30 AM Mass next Sunday! The Choir, made up of 2nd - 7th grade students, rehearses on Monday evenings and sings about once a month and on Christmas Eve. If you would like to join in, just call the parish office 422-0602.

St. John Center Flood! The tank of an original toilet on the second floor of the St. John Center cracked sometime Saturday night and by Sunday morning water had gone through the main floor and was flooding the basement. Thankfully, most of the repair costs will be covered by insurance but there are some upgrades that the parish will have to cover to prevent this from happening again. Sunday School, Nursery and Monday night PREP will continue. Thanks for your patience and flexibility as repairs are underway!
