Health Ministry:

Priorities Change

Most older folks fret about unloading material goods they've collected over the years, stuff that was useful to them, but now prevents them from moving feely about their home. But the junk I really need to unload in my old age is psychological junk, such as long time convictions about what gives my life meaning that no longer meet my needs.

I no longer ask, "What do I want to let go of and what do I want to hang on to?"

Instead I ask, "What do I want to let go of, and what do I want to give myself to."

The desire to "hang on" comes from a sense of scarcity and fear.

The desire to "give myself" comes from a sense of abundance and generosity.

That's the kind of truth I want to age into!

WHAT DO YOU WANT TO LET GO OF?

WHAT DO YOU WANT TO GIVE YOURSELF TO?

WHAT IS KEEPING YOURSELF FROM GIVING YOURSELF FREELY? Parker Palmer (Quaker author)

Some ideas right here at Holy Family:

Carry up the Offertory gifts. Help out with a bereavement lunch. Join the Ministry of Care and take Communion to shut-ins. Join the volunteer Bereavement Choir. Be a Greeter.

2019 Catholic Ministries Appeal

Next weekend, the Catholic Ministries Appeal, also known as the CMA, will kick off throughout the archdiocese. The annual CMA is an archdiocesan-wide appeal that provides funding to six ministries that operate right here in our community. Your support will have a meaningful impact on so many. Also, if we exceed our parish goal for the CMA, 50% of our overage comes back to the parish. We join Archbishop Schnurr in inviting every household to make a gift to the CMA. Thank you for responding generously!

Introductions to Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Isaiah 42:1-7

This section of the Book of Isaiah contains the words of a prophet who spoke to God's people exiled in Babylon. Four different times, the prophet speaks about a mysterious servant who will one day deliver the Israelites and make them great again. Christians have traditionally identified Jesus as this servant.

Second Reading - Acts 10:34-38

The Apostle Peter was originally skeptical about preaching the Gospel to non-Jews. But one day, the Holy Spirit summoned him to preach to a Gentile - the pagan army officer Cornelius and his household. This passage presents Peter reflecting about the remarkable effect this experience had upon him personally.

SVDP Outreach Ministry

- A Personal Story

Though Outreach is taking a winter break, the needs in our community continue. We were operating for only the first two weeks in December, but we still interacted with 45 people in that short time. One of the families came to our attention in an out of the ordinary manner – through the parish office. Penny had called asking for Thanksgiving food for her family of seven. We were able to help and this family stuck in my head.

When Our Lady of Sorrows in Monroe called to say one of their parishioners was looking for a family to adopt for Christmas, I thought of Penny. The family's information was passed on to this donor and we thought the matter was completed. But the donor was stunned when he delivered Christmas gifts to Penny and her family - he discovered that they had no furniture! Once again, we heard from our friends at Our Lady of Sorrows and we agreed to do a home visit. One of our veteran volunteers was more than happy to make their house a home, complete with Christmas tree and ornaments. Just another example of how so many people pulling together can help get a family through a rough time. Thanks for the part you play in changing lives!

Middletown Lyric Theatre presents The Christians by Lucas Hnath

Friday, January 25th 8 PM Saturday, January 26th 3 PM and 8 PM

First United Methodist Church 120 Broad Street - across from MidPointe Library

Twenty years ago, Pastor Paul's church was nothing more than a modest storefront. Now he presides over a congregation of thousands. Today should be a day of celebration. But Paul is about to preach a sermon that will shake the foundations of his church's belief. A big-little play about faith in America - and the trouble with changing your mind. $15 General Admission tickets available at the door for each performance or will call tickets can be purchase online at www.middletownlyric.org.

"The Christians is a serious play, with serious craft and serious aspirations. It doesn't have a "message" or a point of view on salvation to proclaim. It's a harrowing dig through our hearts, a play about our deepest and, often, most noble desires and motivations and yearnings - it just also happens to take place in a place many Americans frequent each week and believe in deeply. One can only hope there is a lot more of this to come." ALISSA WILKINSON, CHIEF FILM CRITIC CHRISTIANITY TODAY

Answers to the Special Quiz Celebrating the Baptism of the Lord

1. (a) When we are baptized, we are born into new life and become adoptive children of the Father, members of Christ, and temples of the Holy Spirit (see CCC, n. 1279).
2. (d) Peter baptized the people in the household of Cornelius even though they were Gentiles who didn't keep kosher or circumcise their male children (Acts 10). Early Christians saw this as a sign that the gospel was meant for everyone. It also showed that children, perhaps even infants, were baptized in the earliest years of the Church (CCC, n.1252).
3. (b) Through Baptism, a person "is incorporated into the Church, the Body of Christ, and made a sharer in the priesthood of Christ" (CCC, n. 1279).
4. (T) True - Baptism permanently imprints the character of Christ on every new Christian. (See Canon Law, n. 845:1 & 864).
5. (c) Baptism cleanses us from Original Sin and all personal sins (see General Catechetical Directory, n. 57).
6. (b) Godparents must be firm believers and able to support the new Catholic in his or her faith.
7. (b) Through Baptism, we become heirs to the kingdom; we are consecrated and made holy (see John 3:5).
8. (F) False - "Given once for all, Baptism cannot be repeated" (CCC, n. 1272).
