While it's tempting to view things as being back to normal, that's simply not the case. The virus is still out there. We still have cases every day and we need to be vigilant!

Make a good choice!

- ☐ Everyone is dispensed from the obligation to attend Sunday Mass.
- ☐ The Sunday 9 AM Mass will continue to be live streamed.
- ☐ Weekday Masses are less crowded - various times - both churches.

According to the guidelines from the Bishops of Ohio...

THANK YOU FOR wearing a face mask, social distancing coming and going, choosing a seat, and using a single line when receiving Communion, plus taking a bulletin or missal home and using hand sanitizer found at the doors of both churches.

FR. CIVILLE IS staying on the altar, keeping the Mass moving, and shortening his sermon.

THE STAFF IS on hand to help with seating, keeping the air circulating and the doors open, and carefully cleaning the churches after every Mass, including funeral and wedding services.

Health Ministry:

The Communication Principle Matthew Kelly

The communication principle is

"BE CLEAR, CONCISE, OPEN, AND HONEST."

Communication is an art. I have seen some great communicators at work. These are some of the lessons I have learned:

- Let others talk.
- Don't complain.
- Give honest and sincere compliments.
- Be more ready to compliment than to criticize.
- Never be afraid to seek advice.
- Never criticize someone in front of others.
- Talk about yourself only if asked.
- Learn to listen.
- Encourage people to share about themselves.
- Respect other people's opinions.
- Admit when you are wrong.
- Affirm the highest values of the human spirit.

Never pass up an opportunity to speak a kind word of appreciation. There are six billion people on the planet, and 5.9 billion of them go to bed every night starving for one honest word of appreciation. www.livinglifefully.com

"Pray a Minute" – One Million Hours of Prayer for Peace, Justice & Goodwill

As we all know, the world can feel heavy these days. News headlines are filled with injustices and unrest. It seems as though everywhere we turn we find division and disharmony. These are issues for which there is no simple government fix.

They can only be solved by the conversion of hearts, with God's help through prayer.
That is why the Pastoral Center of the Archdiocese launched the

"Pray a Minute" campaign to encourage prayer for the spiritual renewal of our Archdiocese and country. From August 1 through January 1, the World Day of Prayer for Peace, Catholics across the Archdiocese are invited to pray just one minute more than they already do, every day, for the specific intention of peace, justice and goodwill in our country. If every Catholic in the Archdiocese were to do this, it will collectively amount to more than one million hours of prayer. Individuals are, of course, welcome to dedicate more than one minute of prayer per day if they so choose. Folks can join in this prayer movement at any time – it's never too late. Join in!

Pray the Rosary at the Grotto Wednesday Nights 7 PM Social Distancing No Problem!

Many thanks to Rick, Tina & Kara Jackson for their devotion to the Grotto and to this Rosary Group.

Introductions to Sunday Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Isaiah 55:6-9

The prophetic words in today's reading were spoken during the Israelite's exile in Babylon. Earlier, the prophet had proclaimed that God was looking mercifully upon them and would soon free them. In today's reading, the prophet points out that they now have a window of opportunity and should take advantage of God's willingness to forgive.

Second Reading - Philippians 1:20-24, 27a

For the next four weeks, our second reading will be taken from Paul's letter to the Philippians. When Paul wrote this letter, he was in prison for preaching the Gospel, and he faced the possibility of execution. A person in those circumstances tends to think long thoughts about death, and death is what Paul is wrestling with in today's passage.

Readings for Saturday and Sunday

First Reading - Isaiah 55:6-9

Seek the Lord while he may be found, call him while he is near. Let the scoundrel forsake his way, and the wicked his thoughts; let him turn to the Lord for mercy; to our God, who is generous in forgiving. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord. As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading - Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

Brothers and sisters: Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me life is Christ, and death is gain. If I go on living in the flesh, that means fruitful labor for me. And I do not know which I shall choose. I am caught between the two. I long to depart this life and be with Christ, for that is far better. Yet that I remain in the flesh is more necessary for your benefit. Only, conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel - Matthew 20:1-16a

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus told his disciples this parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard. Going out about nine o'clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.' So they went off. And he went out again around noon, and around three o'clock, and did likewise. Going out about five o'clock, the landowner found others standing around, and said to them, 'Why do you stand here idle all day?' They answered, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard.' When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, 'Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.' When those who had started about five o'clock came, each received the usual daily wage. So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden and the heat.' He said to one of them in reply, 'My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?' Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Mass Prayers and Responses

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.

Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away
the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Hymns for Saturday and Sunday

Entrance

Canticle of the Sun

Refrain:

The heavens are telling the glory of God,
And all creation is shouting for joy.
Come, dance in the forest,
Come, play in the field,
And sing, sing to the glory of the Lord.

1. Praise for the sun, the bringer of day,
He carries the light of the Lord in his rays;
The moon and the stars who light up the way
Unto your throne.
2. Praise for the wind that blows through the trees,
The seas' mighty storms, the gentlest breeze;
They blow where they will,
They blow where they please
To please the Lord.

Closing

We Are Called

1. Come! Live in the light!
Shine with the joy and the love of the Lord!
We are called to be light for the kingdom,
To live in the freedom of the city of God!

Refrain

We are called to act with justice,
We are called to love tenderly,
We are called to serve one another;
To walk humbly with God!

2. Come! Open your heart!
Show your mercy to all those in fear!
We are called to be hope for the hopeless,
So all hatred and blindness will be no more!

Communion

Shepherd Me, O God

Refrain

Shepherd me, O God,
Beyond my wants, beyond my fears,
From death into life.

1. God is my shepherd, so nothing shall I want;
I rest in the meadows of faithfulness and love;
I walk by the quiet waters of peace.
2. Gently you raise me and heal my weary soul;
You lead me by paths of righteousness and truth;
My spirit shall sing the music of your name.
3. Though I should wander the valley of death,
I fear no evil, for you are at my side;
Your rod and your staff, my comfort and my hope.
4. You have set me a banquet of love
In the face of hatred,
Crowning me with love beyond my pow'r to hold.
5. Surely your kindness and mercy follow me
All the days of my life;
I will dwell in the house of my God forevermore.
