Health Ministry: Retiring Minds — How to Keep Your Brain Happy, Healthy, and Engaged During Retirement

Work keeps our brains active plus engages us socially. But what happens when you retire? Brain health is like physical health - you need to stretch your limits to keep it strong.

- 1) Try something creative. Do something you can't put a limit on, like playing a musical instrument, writing poetry or painting.
- 2) Keep up with the world around you. Stay socially vibrant, not just with friends but by being aware of the larger social world.
- 3) Choose stimulating environments. This applies to your neighborhood, your home and the furniture, art and appliances you own.
- 4) Do things often. Whether it's a cognitively demanding project or physical exercise, do it often and regularly.
- 5) Do more than one thing. A recent study found that combining healthy behaviors — regular physical activity, minimal alcohol consumption, eating a Mediterranean diet, not smoking, and staying intellectually engaged — can cut the risk of Alzheimer's disease. It's not a single thing, but the combination that's more significant.

Introductions to Sunday Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Acts of the Apostles 9:26-31

Early in the book of Acts, we hear of Saul - later known as Paul - persecuting Christians in Jerusalem. When he went to Damascus to do more of the same, he experienced a dramatic conversion. It was several years before he returned to Jerusalem, the site of his earlier persecution. His first visit to Jerusalem as a Christian is described in today's reading.

Second Reading - 1 John 3:18-24

During the Easter Season, our second Scripture reading is from the first letter of John. In today's passage, the author is dealing with some members of the community who have defected. They seem to have believed that, as long as you have faith in Jesus, it doesn't matter what you do in daily life.

Graduating from High School this Year?

Parish families with graduating seniors are invited to send in a photo of their graduate for a Special Photo Spread set for the Sunday, June 6th bulletin.

Send a digital photo via email to monica@holymiddletown.com or bring one by the parish office to be scanned - it only takes a minute.

Senior photos or a photograph from the graduation ceremony or with the grad in their cap and gown are appropriate. Please include the name of your graduate plus the high school they attended.

We Have a Prayer Chain in Need of New Links!

The Holy Family Prayer Chain shares prayer requests and commits to pray for needs as they arise. The individual members are "linked" by prayer, and requests make their way from one person to another, following the "chain." Each link represents one person committed to pray for the needs of others - and the more "links" in the chain, the more people are praying for the needs or struggles of others. If you're not able to get out and help as you're used to, but still want to be involved - WE NEED YOU! Call the parish office 422-0602 and we'll add you to the chain!

Readings for Saturday and Sunday

First Reading - Acts 9:26-31

When Saul arrived in Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. Then Barnabas took charge of him and brought him to the apostles, and he reported to them how he had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken out boldly in the name of Jesus. He moved about freely with them in Jerusalem, and spoke out boldly in the name of the Lord. He also spoke and debated with the Hellenists, but they tried to kill him. And when the brothers learned of this, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him on his way to Tarsus. The church throughout all Judea, Galilee, and Samaria was at peace. It was being built up and walked in the fear of the Lord, and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading - 1 John 3:18-24

Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth. Now this is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts before him in whatever our hearts condemn, for God is greater than our hearts and knows everything. Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence in God and receive from him whatever we ask, because we keep his commandments and do what pleases him. And his commandment is this: we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another just as he commanded us. Those who keep his commandments remain in him, and he in them, and the way we know that he remains in us is from the Spirit he gave us.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel - John 15:1-8

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to his disciples: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and every one that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit. You are already pruned because of the word that I spoke to you. Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me.

I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing. Anyone who does not remain in me will be thrown out like a branch and wither; people will gather them and throw them into a fire and they will be burned. If you remain in me and my words remain in you, ask for whatever you want and it will be done for you. By this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Mass Prayers and Responses

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away
the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

OUR DOORS ARE OPEN: No matter what your present status in the Catholic Church, no matter what your current family and marital situation, no matter what your age, race, background, personal history, etc., no matter what your own self-image — you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected here at Holy Family Parish. Our doors are open!

Hymns for Saturday and Sunday

Entrance

I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say

1. I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Come unto me and rest;
Lay down, O weary one, lay down
Your head upon my breast."
I came to Jesus as I was,
So weary, worn and sad;
I found in him a resting place,
And he has made me glad.
2. I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Behold, I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down, and drink, and live."
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in Him.

Horatius Bonar, 1809-1889 Traditional English folk song

Closing

Go, Be Justice

1. Go, be justice to God's people;
Teach the hardened heart to learn.
Break the bread of true communion,
Pour the cup of true concern.
Feed the hungry, house the homeless,
Catch the tyrants in their lies;
Be the Lord's anointed servant
So God's justice never dies.
2. Go, be healing to God's people;
Seek and share the saving call.
Be the touch of Christ for others,
Be the voice of Christ for all.
Lives are broken all around you,
And Christ has no hands but yours;
Hold in them the ones who suffer
So Christ's healing love endures.

Communion

A New Commandment

Refrain

I give you a new commandment:
Love one another as I have loved you,
As I have loved you.

1. This is my will, my one command,
That love should dwell among you all.
This is my will, that you should love
As I have shown that I love you.
2. No great love that one can have Than that one should die to save one's friends.
You are me friends if you obey
What I command that you should do.
3. I call you now no longer slaves;
No slave knows all the master does.
I call you friends, for all I hear
My Father say you hear from me.
4. You chose not me, but I chose you,
That you should go and bear much fruit.
I chose you out that you in me
Should bear much fruit that will abide.
5. All that you ask my Father dear
For my name's sake you shall receive.
This is my will, my one command,
That love should dwell in each, in all.
