Most Holy Trinity

*Happy 55th Anniversary Fr. Cíville!
Congratulations to Fr. John Cíville, ordained on May 28, 1966 and celebrating his 55th Anniversary!*

And while we've known all along that our pastor is truly a one-of-a-kind and full of vitality, he's in rarified air in marking 55 years in active ministry. According to Fr. Cíville, most priests are retired or sadly six feet under before reaching this mark. We're so grateful he's full of life and still teaching by example — and above ground, occasionally placing his tee and taking a divot!

*May you remember all of the many, many ways
God has touched people through your life. Thank you!*

With Thanksgiving On Your 55th Anniversary of ORDINATION

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity affords us the opportunity to reflect on the oneness of the divine permeating and pulsating through all creation, filling Earth's creatures with fecundity, beauty, wonder and the marvelous capacity to relate, to love.

Using traditional terms for the Trinity, 14th-century Dominican mystic Meister Eckhart once wrote:

"Do you want to know what goes on in the core of the Trinity? I will tell you. In the core of the Trinity, the Father laughs and gives birth to the Son. The Son laughs back at the Father and gives birth to the Spirit. The whole Trinity laughs and gives birth to us." Julian of Norwich, a contemporary of Eckhart, offers us a hopeful word in relation to her understanding of Trinity: "Just as the joyful Trinity created all things out of nothing, so also the same blessed Trinity will make well all that is not well."

The Fifth Sunday Collection for the St. Vincent de Paul Society is this Weekend.

Please place your donation in the baskets at the front of church at all Masses this week, drop it through the mail slot in the parish office front door, or mail it to the parish office. Thank you for supporting the SVDP Pantry, Help Line and Outreach Ministries!

Memorial Day Service at Calvary Cemetery

9:15 AM

Monday, May 31st

Health Ministry:

Recall and Remember Be Grateful

Memorial Day, the last Monday in May, has been set aside to express our respect for the brave men and women who lost their lives fighting for our country.

This day remains one of America's most cherished patriotic observances, yet its meaning is often secondary to thoughts of picnics, parades, end of school and summer vacations. Public reaction to politics and war is ever changing. Families who have lost member(s) in war time are likely to observe the day differently. Others see it as a chance for leisure time. This group has always been larger. It's fine to celebrate and enjoy this day, but it is also important to "remember the brave souls who have made the ultimate sacrifice." One day is not enough to honor them...even 365 days would not be enough. "To those who courageously gave their lives...And those who bravely fight today, Thank you!"

33 Day Bicentennial Marian Pilgrimage at Our Lady of Sorrows, Monroe

Friday, June 4th 6 PM Rosary 7 PM Mass

On the occasion of the bicentennial celebration of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, Archbishop Schnurr encourages the faithful to enter into a grace-filled period of reflection and examination on our call to radiate Christ to the world. You're welcome to join us at Our Lady of Sorrows when we host the pilgrimage on Friday, June 4th. We will pray the Rosary at 6:00 p.m. followed by Mass at 7:00 p.m. Visit www.mary2021.org for information about the Bicentennial Marian Pilgrimage.

State Route #122 Clean Up Crew

Saturday, June 26th

8:30 - 10:30 AM Jacot Park

Join the gang picking up trash along SR #122 from Dixie Hwy to Breiel Blvd. This is the main entrance to our city and we want to keep it looking good! We meet at Jacot Park at 8:30 a.m. and finish up by 10:30 a.m.

This is a great chance for kids to perform - and for the adults in their lives to model - community service!

Introductions to Sunday Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40

The book of Deuteronomy contains a lengthy speech that Moses addressed to the people as they prepared to enter the Promised Land. This was a place where the people worshipped many gods and goddesses. Moses reminds them that there is only one God - the One who brought them out of Egypt.

Second Reading - Romans 8:14-17

Paul's letter to the Romans is his most detailed and important theological work. In this portion of the letter, Paul stresses the importance of the Holy Spirit in the lives of Christians. Through the Spirit's presence within us, we enjoy not only new life but also a new relationship with God, who we can call by a new name.

Readings for Saturday and Sunday

First Reading - Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40

Moses said to the people: "Ask now of the days of old, before your time, ever since God created man upon the earth; ask from one end of the sky to the other: Did anything so great ever happen before? Was it ever heard of? Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of fire, as you did, and live? Or did any god venture to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by testings, by signs and wonders, by war, with strong hand and outstretched arm, and by great terrors, all of which the Lord, your God, did for you in Egypt before your very eyes? This is why you must now know, and fix in your heart, that the Lord is God in the heavens above and on earth below, and that there is no other.

You must keep his statutes and commandments that I enjoin on you today, that you and your children after you may prosper, and that you may have long life on the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you forever."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading - Romans 8:14-17

Brothers and sisters: For those who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive a spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you received a Spirit of adoption, through whom we cry, "Abba, Father!" The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, if only we suffer with him so that we may also be glorified with him.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel - Matthew 28:16-20

The Lord be with you.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them. When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted. Then Jesus approached and said to them, "All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

The Gospel of the Lord.

And with your spirit.

Glory to you, O Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Update Liturgical Guidance - Worshipping Together Safely

Archbishop Dennis M. Schnurr has decreed that for the faithful of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, the obligation to attend Sunday and Holy Day Mass is reinstated with the Sunday Masses of June 6, 2021 (including the vigil anticipatory Mass on Saturday, June 5). In addition, since our guidance throughout this pandemic has been to follow the regulations of public health authorities, with regards to masks/face coverings, the archdiocese will follow the public health orders given by the State of Ohio - Governor DeWine Statement on New CDC Mask Guidance on May 14, 2021:

"Ohio will be amending our remaining health orders to comply with the new CDC guidance, which says that those who have been vaccinated no longer need to wear masks, while those who have not been vaccinated should still wear a mask and socially distance."

Mass Prayers and Responses

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away
the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

OUR DOORS ARE OPEN: No matter what your present status in the Catholic Church, no matter what your current family and marital situation, no matter what your age, race, background, personal history, etc., no matter what your own self-image — you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected here at Holy Family Parish. Our doors are open!

Hymns for Saturday and Sunday

Entrance

All Hail, Adored Trinity

1. All hail, adored Trinity;
All praise, eternal Unity;
O God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, ever one.
2. O Trinity, O Unity,
Be present as we worship thee;
And to the angels' songs in light
Our prayers and praises now unite.

Closing

Holy God, We Praise Thy Name

1. Holy God, we praise thy name;
Lord of all, we bow before thee!
All on earth thy rule acclaim,
All in heav'n above adore thee;
Infinite thy vast domain,
Everlasting is thy reign,
Infinite thy vast domain,
Everlasting is thy reign.
2. Holy Father, Holy Son,
Holy Spirit, Three we name thee;
While in essence only One,
Undivided God we 'claim thee;
And adoring bend the knee,
While we own the mystery,
And adoring bend the knee,
While we own the mystery.

Communion

Make of Our Hands a Throne

Refrain:

Make of our hands a throne to hold the bread of heaven,
Make of our hearts a home to hold the very wine of life,
In this myst'ry Lord, make us one with you.

1. Taste of this goodness! And feast at this banquet;
How blest the faithful who find shelter in God!
Look to your Maker, be radiant with glory,
For those who love the Lord are saved from their fears.
2. You keep your promise, O God our Savior,
Hope of the distant isles and all of the earth.
You crown us with goodness, your fields decked with harvest,
Your valleys clothed in wheat resound with your joy!
3. From clouds above us you send down your blessings,
The bread of heaven and the waters of life!
You rain down your bounty and kiss us with manna,
Bread of the angels for our food and our feast.
4. With patient yearning, we look to you in hunger,
And through the length of days you feed all your flock.
Your hands, with abundance, are wide with your promise,
You grant the longings of a people in need!
5. This bread now broken, once grain upon the hillside,
Is brought together and transformed in our midst.
So may all your people be gathered together,
From ev'ry land into the kingdom of love!
