Health Ministry:

Tired of Cicadas?

We'll Don't Worry,

They Should Be Gone Soon-ish

If you're sick and tired of hearing/seeing these gross-looking bugs everywhere you turn, then you'll be happy to hear that you won't have to put up with this ridiculousness for much longer. Purdue entomology expert Elizabeth Barnes has studied the insects and states that areas that have more exposure to sunlight with fewer spots for the bugs to hide will probably see the cicadas die off soon. In places that have lots of nooks and crannies for the insects to find sanctuary, folks can expect to see them until a bit longer.

What should you do after the cicadas die?

According to Barnes, you shouldn't have to worry about cleaning them up or hiring someone to do so, as the bugs will be an excellent source of nutrition for birds, raccoons, snakes, mice, turkeys, and wild animals. "It's going to look kind of messy, but when their bodies decay, it actually provides a nice fertilizer for a lot of the plants in the understory and for the trees as well. It's this burst of nutrients for plants at a time of year that they wouldn't usually be getting that good nutrient input, so they're good for plants, they're good for animals and they cause very little harm, so they're just all-around good insects in my opinion," Barnes said.

Come and See How Lay Catholic Studies Can Transform Your Life.

Mount St. Mary's School of Theology equips lay Catholics to grow in faith, knowledge and skills through classes and programs designed specifically for busy adult learners. We offer graduate and non-degreed classes in Scripture, Theology, History, and Pastoral Studies and provide a supportive environment for spiritual, pastoral and personal growth. Take a class for credit, audit or begin work on a Graduate degree or certificate. Saturday, evening, or daytime classes allow you to engage in theological and pastoral studies while maintaining job, family and community commitments. As parish life opens up once more, there has never been a better time to respond generously to God's call. Class locations: main campus in Cincinnati or the St. Charles Center, US Rte. 127, Celina. Email smcgurgan@athenaeum.edu or call 513-233-6127 or 513-231-1200 for info about the Fall Semester and registration at www.athenaeum.edu.

Introductions to Sunday Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Job 38:1, 8-11

The book of Job is a long parable which grapples with the question of why bad things happen to good people. In today's passage, God responds to Job and in effect says, "I created and I sustain the whole universe, including the mighty oceans. So answers to questions like why people suffer are beyond your limited knowledge."

Second Reading - 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

Some members of the Corinth community found it hard to accept Paul's teachings. They challenged his credentials as an apostle because he was not an eyewitness to the earthly life of Jesus. In this passage, Paul defends his ministry as an apostle.

Readings for Saturday and Sunday

First Reading - Job 38:1, 8-11

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said: Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands? When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door, and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading - 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

Brothers and sisters: The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died. He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised. Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer. So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel - Mark 4:35-41

The Lord be with you.

And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Glory to you, O Lord.

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples: "Let us cross to the other side."

Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was. And other boats were with him.

A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up. Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. They woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?" He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Quiet! Be still!" The wind ceased and there was great calm. Then he asked them, "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" They were filled with great awe and said to one another, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?"

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Mass Prayers and Responses

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you,
we bless you,
we adore you,
we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

Invitation to Communion

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away
the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

At the words that follow, up to and including and became man, all bow.

and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

OUR DOORS ARE OPEN: No matter what your present status in the Catholic Church, no matter what your current family and marital situation, no matter what your age, race, background, personal history, etc., no matter what your own self-image — you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected here at Holy Family Parish. Our doors are open!

Hymns for Saturday and Sunday

Entrance

Faith of Our Fathers

1. Faith of our fathers, living still,
In spite of dungeon, fire, and sword;
O how our hearts beat high with joy,
Whene'er we hear that glorious word:

Refrain:

Faith of our fathers, holy faith!
We will be true to thee till death.

2. Faith of our fathers, we will love
Both friend and foe in all our strife,
And preach thee, too, as love knows how,
By kindly deeds and virtuous life.

Frederick W. Faber, 1814-1863, alt. / Public Domain

Closing

How Can I Keep From Singing?

1. My life flows on in endless song
Above earth's lamentations,
I hear the clear though far-off hymn
That hails a new creation.

Refrain:

No storm can shake my inmost calm
While to that Rock I'm clinging.
Since Christ is Lord of heaven and earth,
How can I keep from singing?

2. Through all the tumult and the strife
I hear that music ringing.
It finds an echo in my soul,
How can I keep from singing?

Text: Robert Lowry 1826-1899, alt. / Tune: Robert A. Batistini, b. 1942 © 1988, GIA Publications A702646

Communion

Amazing Grace

1. Amazing grace! How sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see!
2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear,
The hour I first believed!
3. The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures.
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.
4. Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come.
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.
5. When we've been there ten thousand years,
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we'd first begun.

Vss. 1-4: John Newton, 1725-1807, alt. / Vs. 5: Anon. / Columbian Harmony, Cincinnati, 1829
