Christmas 41

Think back to Christmas 41.

Not 1941 but Christmas in the year 41, 1,980 years ago.

Mary would have been about in her late 50's.

Surely she celebrated her son's birth even when he wasn't with her in person, as we do today.

It must have been a lonely day for Mary.

She must have missed her son. She must have missed her husband who was long since dead.

No matter how many of her relatives may have been there in that little village of Nazareth, it was probably lonelier for her than some other days...

just as Christmas today is often lonelier than some other days for people who have lost their wife or husband, who have lost their mom or dad, people who are divorced, people who don't have any family to speak of. For whatever reason —

Christmas can be a really lonely time.

Think about Mary, back in Christmas 41.

She must have thought of those words spoken to her at the Visitation, "Blessed are you who believed that what the Lord spoke to you would be fulfilled." When Mary heard those words for the first time, or course she believed. But it was a springtime kind of faith, filled with expectation. Now, years later when she was alone, she still believed, but it was a wintery faith. Mary still believed, but it was just harder. No matter what I am feeling this Christmas, I can remember Mary and Christmas 41 and be with her, and let her be with me too. Excerpted Little Blue Book December 19, 2021

Introductions to Christmas Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Isaiah 9:1-6

The prophet Isaiah lived 750 years before Christ.
In his time, the northern Jewish kingdom of Israel was laid waste by the armies of Assyria. Today's passage offers the conquered people hope for a glorious future under a wonderful king. Christians have seen Jesus as fulfilling this prophecy.

Second Reading - Titus 2:11-14

The letter to Titus was written about 30 years after Paul's death, and was written in Paul's name, a practice common in the ancient world. Titus was a traveling companion of Paul, and later was in charge of a Christian community on the island of Crete.

Introductions to Holy Family Sunday Readings

First Reading - Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14

The book of Sirach was written by a wise teacher who lived 200 years before Christ. Sirach ran a school for young people in Jerusalem. In today's passage, he advises his students on the proper way to honor
their parents.

Second Reading - Colossians 3:12-17

The letter to the Colossians was written around the year 80 A.D. A major concern in this letter is how the Christian community appears to outsiders. The author offers guidelines so that Christian families will live in such a way that others will notice the difference.

Our Lady of Guadalupe Celebration!

Pope Francis Wants to Hear from You!

The Holy Father, in seeking to hear from all the People of God on how to better bring the Mission of the Church to the world, is calling for a synod. To start, he is asking for all dioceses throughout the world to conduct local meetings to discuss this very topic. Who are the People of God? It is all the baptized. That means not only the lay faithful, those in religious orders, and the clergy. It also means those who are marginalized, poor, disabled, migrants and immigrants, all ages young and old, and those who no longer practice the faith to name a few. Did you know that when you were baptized you were called to a priestly, prophetic, and kingly mission to bring the good news of salvation and discipleship to all. So, coming together to discuss how to better further the mission of the Church is where the Holy Spirit can work powerfully. Please go to www.catholicaoc.org and click on the SYNOD tab to learn more. Want to participate? Please go that same SYNOD tab. There you will find an opportunity to participate in one of our local meetings near you. We hope to see you there! And, if you know someone who has left the faith, ask them to participate too! God Bless!
