SCAM Alert!! We're getting reports from parishioners regarding telephone scams.

These scams obviously are convincing, but be vigilant! How can you tell it's a scam?

✓ if they ask for money ✓ if they ask for gift cards ✓ if they ask for personal information such as your social security number, bank account number, or credit card number. Get off the phone as soon as possible by saying you're looking up the information then "accidentally" hang up.

If you're told a family member is in trouble, begging you not to tell anyone else, use the same 'accidental' hang up technique then check in with another family member. You don't even have to mention the trouble stated in the call - just ask how they're doing, what they're up to, when you might get to see them... You'll find out in no time that there's no emergency. The best option is to do what may seem rude to you - JUST HANG UP. These people are skilled at playing on your courtesy and keeping you talking.

OUR DOORS ARE OPEN: No matter what your present status in the Catholic Church, no matter what your current family and marital situation, no matter what your age, race, background, personal history, etc., no matter what your own self-image — you are invited, welcomed, accepted, loved and respected here at Holy Family Parish. Our doors are open!

Health Ministry:

5 Sundays in August - 5 Short Stories That May Change the Way You Think
Story 3 - True Love

It was a busy morning, about 8:30 a.m., when an elderly gentleman arrived at the clinic to have stitches removed from his thumb. He stated that he was in a hurry as he had to be somewhere else by 9:00 a.m. On exam, his thumb was well healed, so I removed his sutures and redressed his wound. While taking care of him, we began to engage in conversation. I asked him if he had another appointment this morning, as he was anxious to be on his way. The gentleman told me no, that he needed to get to the nursing home to eat breakfast with his wife. He told me that she had been there for a while and had Alzheimer's Disease. I asked if she would be worried if he was late. He replied that she no longer knew who he was and hadn't recognized him in over five years. I was surprised, and asked him, "And you still go every morning, even though she doesn't know who you are?" He smiled, and patting my hand said, "She doesn't know who I am, but I still know who she is."

Introductions to Sunday Readings

by Bishop Ken Untener, in collaboration with Catherine Haven and Fr. Bill Taylor

First Reading - Revelation 11:19, 12:1-6, 10

The book of Revelation was written about 95 A.D. to encourage people who were suffering persecution. It is written in symbolic language and uses many images — for example, a dragon to represent evil. In today's reading, the Church is depicted as a woman giving birth to the Messiah. As the years went by, this imagery was extended to Mary.

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 15:20-27

In his first letter to the Corinthians, Paul addresses problems his converts in the community were experiencing. Some members of the community had questioned the bodily resurrection of Jesus, and their own resurrection as well. This passage is Paul's response.

Are you Interested in Being an Informed Christian? Being an Effective Christian? Sharing the Good News?

Putting Christ in the Center of your World?

If the answer to any question above is YES, then please explore the upcoming Women's Cursillo Weekend at Our Lady of the Holy Spirit Center, Norwood, Ohio Thursday, September 16th to Sunday, September 19th. The Spanish word Cursillo (cur-SEE-oh) means Little Course. The Cursillo is a little course in Christianity. It is an encounter with Christ in a small community of the Church so that His love and grace can be brought to every aspect of life. The Weekend starts on Thursday evening and ends Sunday evening. During those three days the attendees live, learn and worship together, attended and nurtured by members of the greater Cursillo community. Clergy and laypersons share themed talks with attendees, who then participate in small group discussions to delve deeper into the themes of each talk. The talks include topics which deal with life, the Christian ideal, the Catholic faith and a method to bring Christ into the modern world. To learn more, please visit www.cincinnati-cursillo.org, or call Kathi Mangus in the office 422-0602 or parishioner Rick Gregosky 937-371-8184. Both Kathi and Rick are active members of Cursillo.

Matthew 25: Ministries Pill Bottle Donations

Matthew 25: Ministries accepts donations of empty plastic pill bottles for inclusion in shipments of medical supplies and for shredding and recycling. - Sort bottles by color and type.
- Remove labels, leaving no glue or residue.

Glenmary Annual Country Raffle Drawing Friday, September 3rd

Glenmary annual Country Raffle returns in 2021, giving participants an opportunity to win big while supporting a good cause!

The Country Raffle is a yearly sweepstakes that raises money for Glenmary, allowing priests, brothers and lay co-workers to continue nurturing the Catholic Church in areas of our country without an effective Catholic presence. Without outside support, Glenmary missionaries and coworkers could not care for the spiritual and material needs of all those living in mission counties. The main prize winners will take home $5,000, $3,000 and $1,500 respectively. There will be 10 additional $100 prizes and one winner will earn a homemade artisan quilt. A suggested donation of $10, $20, $40 or more will help support Glenmary's home mission ministry and give you the opportunity to win one of the raffle cash prizes. To participate in this year's raffle contact Glenmary's Donor Services Department 800-935-0975 and make a suggested donation via telephone. (A donation is not necessary to participate. But, we certainly hope you will support Glenmary's home missions.) Once you have contacted us, the specified number of tickets will be filled out in your name and placed in the raffle bin. Orders must be received prior to the drawing on Friday, September 3rd. You can also register securely online at www.glenmary.org/donate/ or find the link on the parish website www.holyfamilymiddletown.com. Glenmary Country Raffle!
