PHASE II OF MAKING ALL THINGS NEW UPDATE

We are still exploring options to have the Tabernacle moved to the High Altar. Chapel plastering will begin this week.

Painting continues in the aisles. The Angelus lettering has been given a shadow affect to make more prominent inside our beautiful sanctuary!

Thank you for your continued support and patience as we complete Phase II.

All weekday masses (7:00 a.m., 12:10 p.m., and 5:30 p.m.) will continue to be held in the Fleming Center. We ask that mass-goers follow the appropriate signage and enter through the doors nearest the Parish Office (across from the Q'doba restaurant).

GOSPEL MEDITATION

5th Sunday of Lent

Any good teacher or parent will tell you that once a lesson is really learned it doesn't need to be taught again. When we internalize things we have learned, they become a part of who we are and influence how we perceive and interact with our world. The same is true for the law God has written upon our hearts. Once humanity learns this lesson, we will simply know it to be true and act accordingly. Sometimes, it is hard to get people to learn the lessons they need to learn. They are often distracted, disinterested, conflicted, misdirected, or just too stubborn and unable or unwilling to see what is right before their eyes. Understanding that God is in a loving and committed relationship with those fashioned and formed in God's own image, seems like such a simple lesson to learn. But history and experience has proven that it is not.

We struggle with faith, especially when that faith asks us to learn something very particular about ourselves. We must, like a grain of wheat, fall to the ground and die. Because God's DNA is at the very core of who we are, there are specific pearls of wisdom that must be acquired before we can live a full life. One very powerful lesson is that it is not the task of the world to tell us who we are and what has meaning, but God. For many, death is not an opportunity for greater life but a permanent ending to the life they have known. Jesus knew every dimension to what it means to be fully human because he was! He knows the joys, limitations, sorrows, frustrations, wonders, suffering, opportunities, and joys of the human experience. Jesus can teach us a wealth of knowledge and life's lessons from his example, especially obedience.

When we accept the law God has placed in our hearts and gain wisdom from it, then when we suffer we learn to listen more attentively to the Voice behind that law. We naturally flee to our Creator for inspiration, consolation, hope, direction, and comfort as we navigate through this time of darkness. We will not need to run from it, subdue it, fight it, or be overcome by it because we will know, having internalized this profound lesson before, that God will bring new life. God's law is love and love never fails. Even in the moments of Jesus' deepest despair, he glorified the name of his Father. What he learned allowed him to put everything in perspective and be obedient to the tender, loving Voice that echoed within. As Lent quickly winds down, may we learn the same! Then, may we gain the fortitude and wisdom to help others see what is right before their eyes.

BISHOPS ANNUAL APPEAL

What images come to mind when you hear the word “glory?” An American flag flying high as fighter jets streak across the sky? Confetti falling on the winning team as they hoist another trophy? Or perhaps a celebrity all decked out as they accept an award? These are all pretty reasonable representations of glory, on a human level. So when Jesus speaks about glorifying the Father, we might expect him to paint a similar kind of picture: one of power, grandeur, and awe. Instead, the clearest image Christ gives us in today’s Gospel is of a grain of wheat falling to the ground and dying. Hm. Not exactly what most of us have in mind when we think “glorious.”

In typical fashion, though, Jesus is showing us that the ways of God are not the ways of men. While God’s glory does include His power and awesomeness and majesty and might, it also includes something else that we might find a little surprising: the giving of Himself for another, so that they might have life. This is why Christ’s Self-Gift on the Cross—perhaps even more so than the Resurrection or the Ascension—is highlighted in John’s Gospel as the place of His Glory. And it’s why the Cross has been called Christ’s Royal Throne throughout Christian history.

We are called to glorify God, too. And we can’t do better than by imitating Jesus, offering generous, fruitful sacrifices in union with Christ. This Lenten season is the perfect time to do so. We can take part in many opportunities for almsgiving. We can also contribute to our Bishop’s Annual Appeal for Ministries, allowing a grain of our wealth to bear much fruit in our parish community. As we go forward this week, let’s ask God to show us how we can glorify His name by giving generously in imitation of Christ.

UNIVERSITY CATHOLIC GALA

To celebrate 15 years of “Proposing Jesus Christ and Forming His Disciples” on Nashville college campuses, University Catholic is hosting a fund-raising gala on April 10 at Cathedral’s Fleming Center.

In addition to showcasing the impact University Catholic has had and continues to play in the lives of college students, the gala will pay tribute to each of the three priests who have served as chaplain of the college ministry – Fr. John Sims Baker (2006-2016), Fr. Michael Fye (2015-2019), and Fr. Gervan Menezes (2019-present).

University Catholic serves as a ‘home away from home’ for Catholic students and strives to build well-rounded, well-formed Catholic adults through spiritual, intellectual, human and apostolic formation. To support University Catholic and to purchase tickets for the gala on April 10, visit universitycatholic.org/gala.
