

SAINT PIUS X
CATHOLIC CHURCH

"I am the vine, you are the branches. Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing."

John 15:5

"Yo soy vid, ustedes los sarmientos; el que permanece en mí y yo en él, ése da fruto abundante, porque sin mí nada pueden hacer."

John 15, 5

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONS

Branching Out Isn't Always What It's Cracked Up to Be

"That's a really beautiful tree branch. Man, would you look at the bark on that thing? The others are real duds, but that low-hanging branch has really got it all together."

I've never heard anyone say this. Maybe I just need to hang out with more arborists, but I can't recall ever hearing someone admire the particular beauty of a single branch. When someone comments on a tree, it's usually the whole tree — perhaps a visual element of it, like the color of the leaves or its height. But people don't usually zero in on one branch.

Maybe that's because usually, if one branch is looking a little weak, chances are every other branch is, too.

The Bible tells us that when we bear fruit as good everyday stewards, it is for the Father's glory. We are the branch on His magnificent tree. What we have is from Him, and what we do likewise points back to Him. We also tend to reflect how well the other branches around us are incorporating the nutrients coming their way. That's all fine and good in theory. In practice, it can be an arduous exercise in humility.

When I do something virtuous or charitable or kind, there is a part of me that wants to stand out for it. I think that's true for all of us. We've given of ourselves in some way or overcome some human temptation to accomplish a little bit of good in this world, and even though we know God sees us, we'd really love for everyone else to see it, too.

It's a struggle, for sure. But we need to remember that our fruit belongs to the whole tree.

La Ramificación no Siempre es lo que Parece Ser

"Esa es una rama de árbol realmente hermosa. Hombre, ¿podrías mirar la corteza de esa cosa? Las otras son verdaderos defectos, pero esa rama baja realmente lo tiene todo."

Nunca he escuché a nadie decir esto. Tal vez solo necesito pasar tiempo con más arbolistas, pero no recuerdo haber escuchado a alguien admirar la belleza particular de una sola rama. Cuando alguien comenta sobre un árbol, generalmente es todo el árbol, tal vez un elemento visual del mismo, como el color de las hojas o su altura. Pero la gente no suele concentrarse en una rama.

Tal vez se deba a que, por lo general, si una rama se ve un poco débil, es probable que todas las demás también lo sean.

La Biblia nos dice que cuando damos fruto como buenos corresponsables diarios, es para la gloria del Padre. Somos la rama de Su magnífico árbol. Lo que tenemos es de Él, y lo que hacemos también apunta a Él. También tendemos a reflejar qué tan bien las otras ramas que nos rodean están incorporando los nutrientes que les llegan. Todo eso está muy bien en teoría. En la práctica, puede ser un arduo ejercicio de humildad.

Cuando hago algo virtuoso, caritativo o amable, hay una parte de mí que quiere destacarse por ello. Creo que eso es cierto para todos nosotros. Nos hemos entregado de alguna manera o hemos superado alguna tentación humana de lograr un poco de bien en este mundo, y aunque sabemos que Dios nos ve, nos encantaría que todos los demás también lo vieran.

Es una lucha, seguro. Pero debemos recordar que nuestra fruta pertenece a todo el árbol.

MANDATORY MASS SAFETY PRECAUTIONS

Thus far, we have been able to navigate COVID-19 and avoid the spread of the virus on our campus. Let us continue to do our part to keep our campus and our families safe.

Please follow the instructions of our Ministers of Hospitality and comply with all posted signs and markers.

- Face covering is required on campus at all times.
- Remain 6 feet apart from individuals unless you're from the same household.
- Wash your hands often and use hand sanitizer.

Safety is everyone's responsibility!

FAMILY LIFE & SPIRITUALITY

CATHOLIC PRAYER PRACTICES AND MENTAL WELLNESS

Thursdays, May 6– June 3, 7:00pm, Zoom

The pandemic has brought us a lot of exploration of coping mechanisms, usually regarding emotional or physical wellness. Yet, our pain is also deeply spiritual.

Where has God been in the overlapping crises of our personal and familial lives? How have our practices of prayer and spirituality "fortified" us for the unique challenges that the pandemic has brought?

EMBRACING OUR VULNERABLE CHILDREN: SUPPORTING FOSTER FAMILIES IN OUR PARISHES

May 12, 7:00pm–8:00pm, Zoom

Fostering is a challenging ministry, especially for first-time foster families. How can parishes support this pro-life call to help vulnerable children in our churches and in our communities? Join us for this panel presentation where foster parents and representatives from organizations supporting foster families discuss what it means to embrace our vulnerable children.

Feast Day Tip – May: The Month of Mary

Looking for outdoor activities? Spend the month of Mary starting and tending to a Mary garden. The tradition goes back to the Middle Ages when the religious planted gardens and gave the flowers names related to Mary to help teach the faith. A Mary garden will be much like any other flower garden, though a statue of Mary will be the focal point. The flowers you choose to plant should have some relation to Mary. For example, roses are a popular choice. Other flowers to include might be lilies of the valley (Mary's tears), marigolds (Mary's gold), lavender (Mary's drying plant), and daisies (Mary's star). Visit feastday.co for more help celebrating the feasts and seasons.

ST. JOSEPH'S WORKERS

Calling men of all ages!

Be part of a ministry which seeks to follow the example of the watchful guardian of the Holy Family. These SPX guardians work alongside staff, routinely inspecting for any maintenance and safety issues in and around the parish grounds. They fabricate items to enhance our worship and meeting spaces, and have also taken on the role of creating and maintaining a warm and welcoming environment for all who step foot onto our campus through their planting and watering, weeding and pruning.

Skilled laborers are an asset, but there are no requirements for anyone wishing to join this group. Apprenticeship is even offered by some of our master craftsmen and gardeners!

Although St. Joseph's Workers is a ministry whose membership is comprised of the men of our parish, there will be opportunity for all members of our parish family – male and female, old and young – to get involved in their projects!

Please contact the Parish Center to find out how to get involved.

YOUR FAITH IN YOUR HANDS

On May 1, we celebrate the feast of St. Joseph the Worker. This feast extends the long relationship between Joseph and the cause of workers in both Catholic faith and devotion. Beginning in the Book of Genesis, the dignity of human work has long been celebrated as a participation in the creative work of God. By work, humankind both fulfills the command found in Genesis to care for the earth (Gn 2:15) and to be productive in their labors.

Saint Joseph, the carpenter and foster father of Jesus, is but one example of the holiness of human labor. We can ask St. Joseph to watch over us and bless the work of our hands as we work to care for our immediate families and our human family.

Feast Day of St. Joseph the Worker
May 1

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH

by Pope St. Pius X

Glorious St. Joseph,

model of all who are devoted to labor,

obtain for me the grace to work in the spirit of penance in expiation of my many sins;

to work conscientiously by placing love of duty above my inclinations;

to gratefully and joyously deem it an honor to employ and to develop by labor the gifts I have received from God, to work methodically, peacefully, and in moderation and patience, without ever shrinking from it through weariness or difficulty to work;

above all, with purity of intention and unselfishness, having unceasingly before my eyes death and the account I have to render of time lost, talents unused, good not done, and vain complacency in success, so baneful to the work of God.

All for Jesus,

all for Mary,

all to imitate thee,

O patriarch St. Joseph!

This shall be my motto for life and eternity.

RECOMMENDED READS

Fr. Joe Carroll is a beloved priest of the St. Pius X Community. St. Pius was his second assignment as a parish priest, and he is remembered fondly by many. One of Fr. Joe's most notable contributions to St. Pius X is our Lenten Soup Kitchen, which brings together the many members of our parish family.

Father Joe Carroll earned the label "Hustler Priest" early in his career and it stuck. Always a wheeler and dealer, his ability to get things done served him well in developing what is now called Father Joe's Villages.

This book is full of heartwarming and hilarious stories, some of which you long-time parishioners may have heard.

A portion of the proceeds from every book sold will support children in need.

Visit tinyurl.com/25a8h858 for more information.

Sunday Stories/Historias De Domingo: A Collection of Tales Humorous and Otherwise, written by one of the Diocese of San Diego's retired priests, Father Ned Brockhaus, is a bilingual collection of short stories and jokes paired with whimsical illustrations.

The 2019 collection, which came out around Advent, is the fifth installment in a series. Father Ned publishes one each year. Not only is the book great fun, but it is also available at a price that can't be beat: free! That's right, Father Ned charges nothing for his books, but does include a donation envelope addressed to Father Joe's Villages. If you enjoy what you read, you're encouraged to consider sharing a few dollars or more with those who are striving to overcome homelessness.
