GRACE OVERFLOWING

What a wonderful time of year. New and abundant life everywhere, especially in our Church and in the homes of all the children (and adults) who have recently received Sacraments. Easter Vigil, First Penance celebrations, First Communions, and Confirmations. Congratulations to all the young people (and the young at heart) who prepared sometimes up to two years to receive sacraments. Our thanks go out to all the dedicated catechists, assistants, parents, and sponsors, who shared their faith with those preparing for sacraments. Our thanks too, to all who helped make the various liturgies a beautiful expression of God's overflowing Grace.

Reflecting on God's Word

As a nation, we are a mobile people. Not only do we travel around during vacations, for special events, and for visiting family and friends, but we readily move from one place to another for college, work, health reasons, and finally retirement. While previous generations usually stayed with one job and in one house for practically all of their lives, today it is common to move from one place to another, to a different state or even to a different country. This mobility carries over into our relationships. We can find that our lives take us from one set of friends to another, from one close relationship to another. So Jesus' admonition to remain in his love can sound quite challenging to people whose lives are characterized by change and impermanence. The word "remain" is sometimes translated as "abide." The meaning of this invitation is to "take up permanent residence." Last week Jesus called us to "remain" in his word; this week, to "remain in my love" (John 15:9). Jesus tells us how to do this (by keeping his commandments), why we should do this (so that his joy might be in us and our joy complete), what specifically we should do (love one another as I have loved you, that is, by laying down my life for you), and what is to be gained by doing this (an ongoing friendship with him that bears fruit and gains whatever we ask the Father in his name).

Not a bad exchange for settling down . . . in his love.

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

Como nación somos un pueblo en movimiento. No es que sólo viajemos durante las vacaciones y para visitar a familiares y amistades, sino que estamos dispuestos a mudarnos de un lugar a otro para ir a la universidad, para trabajar, por razones de salud y finalmente para nuestra jubilación. Mientras que generaciones anteriores normalmente permanecían en un solo trabajo y en una misma casa prácticamente por toda su vida, hoy es común mudarse de un lugar a otro, a un estado diferente y aun a otro país. Esta movilidad afecta nuestras relaciones llevándonos de un grupo de amigos hacia otro, de una relación íntima hacia otra. Es por eso que la amonestación de Jesús para que permanezcamos en su amor puede parecer como un gran reto para aquellas personas cuya vida se distingue por el cambio y la transitoriedad. La palabra "permanecer" a veces se traduce como algo "duradero". El significado de esta invitación es "quedarnos en una residencia duradera". La semana pasada Jesús nos exhortó a "permanecer" unidos en sus palabras; esta semana nos dice "permanezcan en mi amor" (Juan 15:9).

Jesús nos dice cómo hacer eso (cumpliendo sus mandamientos), por qué hacerlo (para participar en su alegría y que nuestra alegría sea completa), qué es lo que debemos hacer específicamente (amarnos los unos a los otros como él nos ha amado, esto es, que entregó su vida por mí y por ti) y qué ganamos por hacer esto (una amistad continua con él, la cual produce frutos y nos concede todo lo que pidamos al Padre en su nombre). Un intercambio bastante bueno por permanecer . . . en su amor.
