Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

The kingdom of God is like a mustard seed, which springs up and becomes the largest of plants. As we walk by faith and not by sight, may our lives bear fruit in abundance.

NOVENA PRAYER FOR FATHERS - June 13 – 21, 2015

Almighty God, you have taught us that you are the Father of us all, and that all fatherhood takes its origin from you. You protect us from evil and provide our daily bread. You are strength and integrity, blessing and the font of life.

We thank you for our fathers. Though human, they are also a reflection of you, Lord God. They are your gift to us.

We pray for all fathers today. May they realize the greatness of their vocation and have the strength to live it without fear. Forgive their sins, and keep their eyes raised up to you.

To those who still make this earthly journey with us, give us the grace to love them as we should, and to those whom you have called from this life, give a special place of honor in the heavenly kingdom with you, the Father of all.

We pray through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Reflecting on God’s Word

I watch most of the children in my three brothers’ families growing into what is called “emerging adulthood.” It must be very difficult at times for parents, only being able to watch, hope, and pray as their children start to move away from home and begin to make their own way into the world. Will they be safe, make the right choices, be happy?

Making use of images from nature, scripture reminds us that God gives the growth, whether it is to mighty cedars springing from small shoots, ripened grain sprouting from the blade, or a fully grown mustard plant emerging from the tiniest of seeds to offer its large branches as housing for the birds.

Such poetic language calls us to reflect on the mystery of the kingdom of God, whose seeds were found in the various covenants extended to Noah, Abraham, Moses, and David, and then fully enfolded in Jesus so many millennia ago. This kingdom continues to sprout in our day, often where least expected.

Sometimes it breaks through like a mighty cedar, but more often it is a quieter blossoming, suddenly emerging like stalks of grain, or the first signs of life carried in a mother’s body. I am sure God has worried for all the children of every age who have filled the earth. The kingdom of life won by Christ continues to have the power to carry all God’s sons and daughters into the loving arms of the God Jesus taught us to call Father.

Reflexionemos sobre la Palabra de Dios

Veo que la mayoría de los hijos en las familias de mis tres hermanos están llegando a esa etapa que algunos llaman la edad de “adultos emergentes”. Debe ser muy difícil a veces para los padres ver a sus hijos salir del hogar y comenzar su propio camino en el mundo; orar y esperar lo mejor para ellos es lo que hacen los padres en ese momento mientras se preguntan: ¿estarán seguros, harán decisiones correctas, serán felices?

Las Escrituras usan imágenes de la naturaleza para recordarnos que Dios da el crecimiento, ya sea a los magníficos cedros, que salen de pequeños retoños, a los granos maduros que brotan de la espiga o al arbusto que brota de una de las semillas más pequeñas y ofrece sus ramas para que los pájaros aniden en ellas.

Ese lenguaje tan poético nos pide reflexionar en el misterio del reino de Dios, cuyas semillas estaban en los varios pactos que se extendieron a Noé, Abraham, Moisés y David hace muchos milenios, y que después se encarnaron plenamente en Jesús. Este reino continúa brotando en nuestro tiempo, a menudo donde menos lo esperamos.

Algunas veces brota como un magnífico cedro, pero más a menudo florece de una manera más discreta y emerge de súbito como las espigas de los granos o como los primeros signos de vida en el seno de una madre. Estoy segura de que Dios se ha preocupado por todos sus hijos e hijas que han poblado la tierra en cada generación. El reino de la vida que Cristo ganó tiene el poder también hoy en día para llevar a todos los hijos e hijas de Dios hacia los brazos de este Dios que Jesús nos enseñó a llamar Padre.
