PRAYER & WORSHIP

NOTE FROM THE PASTOR

My brothers and sisters,

With so much darkness in the world, at times it can become overwhelming. Not counting our own personal darkness that we experience in our sinfulness, sickness or the brokenness we have in our families; but beyond that, it seems at times that the news continues to share darker and darker stories of human depravity: The chords of political division and international conflict, the impact of technological development on our culture's virtues and morals, super computers that can take over our daily lives as we know it and an emerging poisonous cultural expression attacking the very fabric of human freedom, charity, virtue and the essence of worship due to our Creator.

We have moved from a focused innate search for meaning and worship of the Creator to scrambling to take control of what He has created and ultimately "kill God", or the more widely quoted statement executed by Friedrich Nietzsche resulting in "the death of God". In this hopeless outlook, no wonder the popular religion of the day is atheism or agnosticism, and it is being spread within academic institutions of "higher learning". Internet and social media marketing has spread these hopeless messages; and the very philosophical/theological landscape we once enjoyed is being consumed by this wild fire of destruction; and this is called the enlightenment?

This week we delve into the Scriptural reflections of Jonah 3, Psalm 25 and Mark 1 all revolving around one central message, "Repent, and believe in the Gospel. (Mk 1)" Yes, we may be sitting in darkness at this given time in history, but do not be hopeless in this darkness; for the greater coming of the light is upon us and the dawn of a new day is here. Let us fulfill our vocation to be light in the world and listen to the alarming words of Jesus this weekend who began to preach and say, "This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of heaven is at hand."

- Fr. Pagano

Stewardship Prayer Lead Me, Lord

My Lord, Jesus
When the rich man asked
What it was you wanted of him,
You asked him to sell all he had and come follow you.
Help me not to walk away as he did
But to not let anything
Keep me from you.
Out of love for me, you have Given me what I need.
Out of love for me, you have Trusted me with all good gifts.
Help me to realize what I have and
To always be aware and grateful.
Lord Jesus, you are the Source of all and I am your steward.
You have called me, I will answer.
Lead me Lord, I will go.

PRAYER & WORSHIP

READING 1: JON 3:1-5, 10

The word of the LORD came to Jonah, saying:
"Set out for the great city of Nineveh, and announce to it the message that I will tell you."
So Jonah made ready and went to Nineveh, according to the LORD'S bidding.
Now Nineveh was an enormously large city;
it took three days to go through it.
Jonah began his journey through the city, and had gone but a single day's walk announcing,
"Forty days more and Nineveh shall be destroyed, "
when the people of Nineveh believed God; they proclaimed a fast and all of them, great and small, put on sackcloth.
When God saw by their actions how they turned from their evil way, he repented of the evil that he had threatened to do to them; he did not carry it out.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PS 25:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. (4a) Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Your ways, O LORD, make known to me;
teach me your paths,
Guide me in your truth and teach me,
for you are God my savior.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Remember that your compassion, O LORD, and your love are from of old.
In your kindness remember me,
because of your goodness, O LORD.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

Good and upright is the LORD;
thus he shows sinners the way.
He guides the humble to justice and teaches the humble his way.

R. Teach me your ways, O Lord.

READING 2: 1 COR 7:29-31

I tell you, brothers and sisters, the time is running out.
From now on, let those having wives act as not having them,
those weeping as not weeping,
those rejoicing as not rejoicing, those buying as not owning,

those using the world as not using it fully.
For the world in its present form is passing away.

Time is running out...

GOSPEL: MK 1:14-20

After John had been arrested, Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God:
"This is the time of fulfillment.
The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent, and believe in the gospel."
As he passed by the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting their nets into the sea; they were fishermen.
Jesus said to them,
"Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."
Then they abandoned their nets and followed him.
He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John.
They too were in a boat mending their nets.
Then he called them.
So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

WEDNESDAYS
9AM TO 4PM

FOLLOWED BY BENEDICTION & EVENING PRAYER

Spend time with the Lord in Eucharistic Adoration

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consub-stantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,

he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son,

who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Give Until It Hurts

One of the characteristics of Everyday Stewardship is to be committed — to persevere daily in a way of life acknowledging that everything belongs to God.

I know, I know. Easier said than done.

Just ask Zebedee. It's quite an image we get from the Gospel, after all. "So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him."

There was Zebedee, about his business, mending nets with his two sons, who were undoubtedly his best workers — they had to have been more dedicated than the hired men, who worked for wages rather than for family. And in an instant off they go, following this strange man.

I don't know about you, but if my kids left me on a hot summer day to finish the lawn by myself, I wouldn't be too happy.

But Zebedee must have been someone quite special. Perhaps he realized that his sons didn't belong to him — not really. They belonged to God, and from the beginning of time, it had been appointed that they would be among the first disciples of Christ. He passed, he called, they followed, and Zebedee obliged. He simply went back to mending his nets, I imagine.

Zebedee already understood what St. Teresa of Calcutta would say millennia later: "Give until it hurts."

"You're wasting my time." "I've done so much for her; she owes me this." How often do we think things, and even people and relationships, belong to us? The truth is none of them do. We must be ready, as Zebedee was, to surrender them to God when He comes walking past.
