From Father Mike

If you are a true Catholic who wants to experience the fullness of your faith, then I have a suggestion of something you could do this coming week, which I find is one of the hardest weeks of the year to be Catholic? I say this because we still have one more week left of the Christmas Season. It can be difficult to maintain the spirit of this season when it seems everyone else has moved on, and everyone's life gets back to its normal routine. My suggestion is to spend some time each day this week with reading and praying the First Letter of Saint John. It is the first reading of the weekday Masses this week, so not only is it a way to connect to the liturgy for most who are unable to come to Mass during the week, but it offers some of the core themes of Christmas. You will notice references to light (especially in contrast to darkness), spirit, truth, and love. The first days of the new year is often a time for resolutions, almost a secular version of Lent when people are trying to develop new disciplines and positive habits. But the continuation of the Christmas Season for Catholics can be a time for a deeper immersion into the mystery of God becoming human and what he is doing or wants to do in the specific details of our lives. As we celebrate the Epiphany today and recall the star leading the Magi to Jesus, let us pay attention to the Holy Spirit, especially as he speaks to us in the scriptures, and how he wants to lead us so that the direction of our lives is moving towards Jesus.

Del Padre Miguel

Si usted es un verdadero católico que quiere experimentar la plenitud de su fe, entonces tengo un consejo de algo que podría hacer la próxima semana, que creo que es una de las semanas más difíciles del año para ser católico. Digo esto porque todavía nos queda una semana más de la temporada navideña. Puede ser difícil mantener el espíritu de esta temporada cuando parece que todos los demás han avanzado y la vida de todos vuelve a su rutina normal. Mi consejo es pasar un tiempo cada día esta semana leyendo y orando la Primera Carta de San Juan. Es la primera lectura de las Misas entre semana de esta semana, por lo que no solo es una forma de conectarse con la liturgia para la mayoría de los que no pueden asistir a Misa durante la semana, sino que ofrece algunos de los temas centrales de la Navidad. Notarás referencias a la luz (especialmente en contraste con la oscuridad), el espíritu, la verdad y el amor. Los primeros días del año nuevo son a muchas veces un momento para las resoluciones, casi una versión secular de la Cuaresma cuando las personas intentan desarrollar nuevas disciplinas y hábitos positivos. Pero la continuación de la temporada navideña para los católicos puede ser un momento para una inmersión más profunda en el misterio de Dios convirtiéndose en humano y lo que está haciendo o quiere hacer en los detalles específicos de nuestras vidas. Mientras celebramos la Epifanía hoy y recordamos la estrella que conduce a los Magos a Jesús, prestemos atención al Espíritu Santo, especialmente cuando nos habla en las Escrituras, y cómo quiere guiarnos para que la dirección de nuestras vidas sea avanzando hacia Jesús.

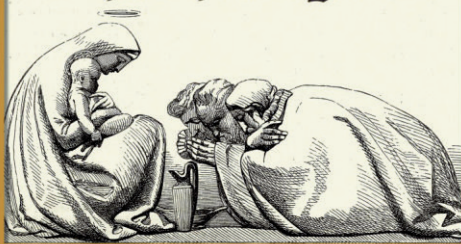

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS

Thousands of senior sisters, brothers, and religious order priests spent years working in Catholic schools, hospitals, and agencies—often for little pay. Their sacrifices leave their religious communities without adequate savings for retirement and eldercare. Your gift to the Retirement Fund for Religious collection helps provide prescription medications, nursing care, and more.

FONDO PARA LA JUBILACIÓN DE RELIGIOSOS

Hermanas, hermanos, y sacerdotes católicos de órdenes religiosas mayores pasaron su vida en escuelas católicas, hospitales y agencias de servicio social, muchas veces con bajos sueldos. Como consecuencia de aquellos sacrificios, sus comunidades religiosas se hallan ahora sin ahorros suficientes para costear la jubilación y cuidados geriátricos de los miembros. Su donativo al Fondo para la Jubilación de Religiosos ayuda con las recetas médicas, cuidados de enfermería y más. Done a aquellos que dieron toda una vida.

NATIONAL MIGRATION WEEK

As the Magi traveled through foreign lands, today's celebration of the Epiphany marks this week, Jan. 5-11 as National Migration week. We pray and advocate for migrants and refugees so as to be welcoming to all our brothers and sisters, standing in solidarity with and caring for those who are marginalized. Pope Francis has referred to as "a globalization of indifference," which has led to many to ignore the cries of the poor and remain indifferent to those struggling to find a better life. He calls us to be an active Church in support of all God's children. (Evangelii Gaudium, 24).

SEMANA NACIONAL DE MIGRACIÓN

Mientras los Magos viajaban por tierras extranjeras, la celebración de la Epifanía de hoy marca esta semana, del 5 al 11 de enero, como la Semana Nacional de la Migración. Oramos y abogamos por los migrantes y refugiados para dar la bienvenida a todos nuestros hermanos y hermanas, solidarizándonos y cuidando a los marginados. El Papa Francisco se ha referido como "una globalización de la indiferencia", lo que ha llevado a muchos a ignorar los gritos de los pobres y permanecer indiferentes a aquellos que luchan por encontrar una vida mejor. Nos llama a ser una Iglesia activa en apoyo de todos los hijos de Dios. (Evangelii Gaudium, 24).

UNITING IN HEART UPDATE

As you may have seen in the Dec. 15 edition of The Catholic Moment a mention that the next phase of implementing the Uniting in Heart 2030 Pastoral Plan is to form Parish Transition Teams. These are individuals with experience and charisms that can help gather data to get a more complete overview of each parish. Leaders from the diocesan level will also be active team members. Data to be collected include information related to facilities, stewardship, vocation, finances, administration, technology, human resources, inventories of sacred goods, and evangelization efforts. A pilot exercise is currently underway with the three parishes in Muncie that will be part of a pastorate in that community. More info at www.dol-in.org/uniting-in-heart.

UNITING IN HEART ACTUALIZACIÓN

Como puede haber visto en la edición del 15 de diciembre de The Catholic Moment, una mención de que la próxima fase de implementación del Plan Pastoral Uniting in Heart 2030 es formar equipos parroquiales de transición. Estas son personas con experiencia y carismas que pueden ayudar a juntar datos para obtener una visión más completa de cada parroquia. Los líderes del nivel diocesano también serán miembros activos del equipo. Los datos que se juntaron incluyen información relacionada con instalaciones, administración, vocación, financiación, administración, tecnología, recursos humanos, inventarios de bienes sagrados y esfuerzos de evangelización. Actualmente se está realizando un ejercicio piloto con las tres parroquias en Muncie que formarán parte de un pastorado en esa comunidad. Más información en www.dol-in.org/uniting-in-heart.
