THE COMMUNION RITE THE LORD'S PRAYER (continued)

"...thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven."

The Preface for the Solemnity of Christ the King describes well what we're requesting when we pray that the Kingdom of God come:
[our Lord Jesus Christ] by offering himself on the altar of the Cross as a spotless sacrifice to bring us peace, ... might accomplish the mysteries of human redemption and, making all created things subject to his rule, he might present to the immensity of your majesty an eternal and universal kingdom, a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace.

The Father wants us to all enter into his Kingdom. Our Lord offered himself on the altar of the Cross to bring us peace, and now we offer him once again, sacramentally, so that we might receive peace and so the Kingdom may extend to our hearts and captivate and conquer them with God's love. The Father already reigns in Heaven; we pray he reigns on earth as well.

"Give us this day our daily bread..."

Many of the early Church Fathers saw this petition as the central reason for including the Lord's Prayer in the celebration of the Eucharist. At each celebration of the Eucharist it has special significance, because the Bread of Life is the sustenance we truly need. We need to ask for our daily sustenance but it is the Bread of Life that will permanently satisfy us from here to eternity.

"...forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us..."

After hallowing the Father's name and asking for our daily bread and preparing for the Bread of Life, we also ask forgiveness for those times when we haven't respected Him or others, and express our willingness to imitate his mercy. This petition evokes the parable of the unforgiving servant (Matthew 18:21-35), a parable given in response to Peter's question about how often we should forgive.

We can imagine that unforgiving servant as being Adam after the Fall: he owed so much (10,000 talents in the original Greek, the equivalent wages of 160,000 years of labor) that not only was his freedom and property forfeit, but that of his entire family as well. With no freedom and no "capital" he'd never be able to repay his debt. Adam and Eve cost all of humanity their communion with God due to their sin; the rest of us didn't commit it, but we suffered its consequences, and still do. The Lord, like the king in the parable, forgave the whole debt. Everything the servant deserved to lose, he retained, due to the king's mercy.

How does the servant respond? He decides to turn a new leaf in life by becoming a loan shark collecting on his old debts. The amount his fellow servant owed him was infinitesimal compared to what he'd just been forgiven. His repentance was shown to be short lived.

We've received a priceless gift of mercy through faith and Baptism. We can never repay that debt. When someone wrongs us, we have to remember that no matter how much they've wronged us, it's nothing compared to how much the Lord has forgiven us and continues to forgive us.

Loving Lord, Creator God
Open our eyes to see
The good that lives in each of us
That called the world to be
And when we fail to see the good
When friendships falter and crumble
Give us the courage to forgive
That we may live in peace

Living Word, O Son of God
Your love shows us the way
That we may live in harmony
And from you never stray
Wipe all oppression from our midst
Give us a love for all people
Your song of justice sing in us

The King of Love

My Shepherd Is

The King of love my shepherd is Whose goodness fails me never I nothing lack if I am his
And he is mine forever

Where streams of living water flow
My ransomed soul he's leading
And, where the verdant pastures grow
With food celestial feeding

Confused and foolish oft I strayed
But yet in love he sought me
And on his shoulder gently laid
And home, rejoicing, brought me

Psalm 23

R/ I shall live in the house of the Lord
all the days of my life.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
In verdant pastures he gives me repose;
beside restful waters he leads me;
he refreshes my soul R/

He guides me in right paths for his name's sake.
Even though I walk in the dark valley
I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage R/

You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes;
you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows R/

Psalm 23 (continued)

Only goodness and kindness follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come R/

Gospel Acclamation (Alleluia)

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our hearts, so that we may know what is the hope that belongs to our call.

Here at This Table

R/ Come and be filled
Here at this table
Food for all who hunger
And drink for all who thirst
Drink of his love
Wine of salvation
You shall live forever
In Jesus Christ the Lord

You who labor for justice
You who labor for peace
You who steady the plow
In the field of the Lord! R/

You with lives full of pain
You who sorrow and weep
You, beloved of Christ
Come to him, come to him! R/

Children of ev'ry color
In ev'ry land
You are his own
He gathers you gently
Don't you grow weary
For when you run,
You run with the Lord! R/

You, the aged among us
Holy, faithful and wise
May the wisdom you share
Form our lives and our world! R/

Let each woman and man
Learn from the stranger
We're not so different
And so much unites us
For we are one

Come Thou Fount Of Every Blessing

Come Thou fount of eve'ry blessing
Tune my heart to sing Thy grace
Streams of mercy never ceasing
Call for songs of loudest praise
Teach me some melodious sonnet sung
By flaming tongues above
Praise the mount I'm fixed upon it
Mount of Thy redeeming love

Here I raise my heart to heaven
For I look to You alone
And I hope by Thy good pleasure
Safely to arrive at home
Jesus sought me when a stranger
Wand'ring from the fold of God
He to rescue me from danger
Interposed His precious blood

O to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be Let Thy goodness like a fetter
Bind my wand'ring heart to Thee
Prone to wander, Lord I feel it
Prone to leave the God I love
Here's my heart O take and seal it
Seal it for Thy courts above

We come to the table
With hearts opened wide
