

WELCOME

Living as a disciple is a daunting task. Jesus challenges us and the way we live our lives. In today's Gospel,

Jesus explains that keeping the commandments is not enough to inherit eternal life; a disciple must give what they have to the poor and follow him. The man who asked the question walked away sad. Even his disciples couldn't believe how difficult it was to get to heaven. Only then did Jesus comfort them. Though we cannot save ourselves, with God all things are possible. Let us give thanks to God today for enabling us to achieve what we cannot do ourselves.

Pastoral Musings: Being the Best Disciples

A couple of weeks ago I offered a homily on the characteristics of discipleship- "Having the same mind as Christ" as Paul exhorts. To be of the same mind as Christ is to be his close and best disciples. Jesus demands four things to be a best disciple.

1. Being a friend of everyone and not excluding anyone.
2. Being Compassionate as the heavenly Father is compassionate.
3. Being joyful in the Lord and rejoice in his presence.
4. Being positive and free; detached from negativities and possessions

There is a difference between moral rules and moral ideals. Continued.....

There is a difference between moral rules and moral ideals. The big 10 Commandments are the moral rules of being a decent disciple, however, Jesus's expectations of his disciples are very high and that is why he asked the young man in the Gospel who inquired about obtaining eternal life to sell everything and give it to the poor and follow him; for Jesus knew that the young man had a lot of possessions and still he was not happy but miserable inside. Although he was good, it is not good enough to be a disciple. Jesus wants us, disciples, to be the best.

As Jesus' beloved disciples, do you have more than what you need? Then get rid of them and give it to the poor. You will never regret it, rather will be a happy disciple who trusts in the Lord and is ready to lay down the life for the master.

Recently, after the provocation of the Poison Ivy attack and resultant suffering and sleeplessness due to allergy; I was drawn to the Lord intensely and that helped me to have a genuine encounter with the crucified Lord. It led me to a holy detachment to the worldly stuff, and I got rid of my attachment to security and safety relying only on the Lord and that made me extremely free inside and purely joyful depending on his presence. I began to do 1-hour holy hour daily before the blessed sacrament after a quick cold shower in the morning and I cannot tell you how much freedom and joy that brings into my heart; being free from preoccupations, greedy desires, loneliness some times feeling the empty rectory and filled with his love and wisdom and joy beyond measure. I am enjoying every minute of it keeping my focus on the Lord as a faithful disciple.

"In sorrow and suffering, go straight to the Lord and you will be strengthened, enlightened, and instructed" ( John of the Cross). And you will be a happy, holy, and healthy disciple of the Lord. I believe that is what the call of the hour and Jesus is inviting each one of us to be; the best disciples of the Lord. Please reflect on a scale of 1-10 what is the level of your discipleship; 1 least and 10 best... and continue to grow in word and deed. We are all indeed a work in progress.

Please pray for all the priests as we are in retreat and workshop and all our parish family members to be best disciples and follow his faithfully and radically. It was a delight to be part of the outdoor Mass and picnic at Hamburg last Saturday in the park and looking forward to the one in Shen next Saturday at Sportsmen's. Thanks for all your help and support. Let us pray to the Lord to give us grace, wisdom, and strength to be his best disciples, and keeping close to the heart of Mary through the prayer of Rosary will give us the motivation to love Jesus with the heart of Mary.

Peace and blessings
Fr.Tom
