It is so easy to think about our shortcomings and faults. It is much more difficult to think about our plusses. To some degree this is due to a true modesty, true humility. But we need to overcome that reticence so that we can share the richness of our lives and our faith.

One idea I have had is to go to nearby public schools and ask their principals if we can help any of their students by after-school tutoring. It would take some organizing- recruiting, allocation of rooms, child safety norms, etc. But I have no doubt we could do that. If we get overwhelmed by the need I'd have no problem walking across the street and letting the Presbyterians know that they could do this too, or elsewhere in town to talk to the Methodists and Baptists and Episcopalians and all others who share the riches we enjoy and the divinely rooted command to help others who are in need.

Father T

Gospel at the Procession with Palms — Jesus' entry into Jerusalem (Mark 11:1-10 or John 12:12-16).

Psalm — My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? (Psalm 22).

Gospel — The account of Christ's passion according to Mark (Mark 14:1 — 15:47 [15:1-39]).

[Christ Jesus] humbled himself,
becoming obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.
— Philippians 2:8

Did you know that 22% of the BAA monies raised benefits Catholic Charities by funding 25% of their annual operating budget? Catholic Charities then utilizes these critical funds to support their core services. Last year alone, Catholic Charities aided nearly 58,000 individuals. This is just one of the ministries the BAA supports. Thank you for making this, and so much more possible! To date we have received pledges from 111 families totaling $44,090.00. If you have not yet made a pledge please consider doing so. Pledge cards are available in the vestibule or Parish office. You can also visit the website at GivetoBAA.org. Thank you for your continued support.
