STAY WITH US, LORD
Walk with us, Lord,
along the road of resurrection!
Explain for us, so slow to believe,
the things that Scripture says of you.
Break the bread of the Eucharist with us
whenever we share our lives
with our brothers and sisters.
Stay with us
each time night approaches
and the daylight fades in our hearts!

Dear Ones,

What have you learned in the last week or two? As we get ready for the end of the school year we have to ask ourselves, “Have our students learned enough to be promoted to the next grade?” With three quarters of seriously graded learning, I think we will be pursuing a pass/fail for the final quarter of the year. It isn’t too much of a surprise that our distance learning has succeeded so well that one teacher remarked that, judging from an essay submitted, one child’s vocabulary began the year as Charles Schulz and is now at the level of Charles Dickens. (of course, parents would never edit their child’s work.)

But distance learning isn’t happening only for all of our students. It is happening for all of us. We are all learning the truth expressed by Emily Dickenson: “The supper of the soul is after the guest has departed.” In a “distanced” world, we miss the company we have always taken for granted. By this experience I pray that we have a new birth of the understanding of how important others are to our lives and our growth. As a Christian community, we are called to lives of continuing growth; of widening the circle of our concern; of being delivered from selfishness to developing lives of care for others. Be well. Do good.

-Fr. T

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — God has raised the crucified Jesus, who now pours forth the Holy Spirit upon us (Acts 2:14, 22-33).

Psalm — Lord, you will show us the path of life (Psalm 16).

Second Reading — Our faith and hope are in God, who raised Jesus from the dead (1 Peter 1:17-21).

Gospel — Through his words and in the breaking of the bread, the risen Christ made himself known to two disciples on their way to Emmaus (Luke 24:13-35).

Third Sunday of Easter

April 26, 2020

You have made known to me the paths of life;
you will fill me with joy in your presence.
— Acts 2:28

Financial Investment in Our Parish

Contributions $ 4,582.00

Online contributions $ 1,497.00

Saint Egbert Fund

Saint Egbert Fund Total: $67,373.00

Envelopes now available in the pews.

Did you know that the Bishop's Annual Appeal funds nearly the entire amount needed to educate our future Priests. There are currently 24 Seminarians in Priestly formation for the Diocese. The Bishop's Annual Appeal also funds six college Campus Ministry Centers. College campuses have an average Catholic population of 28%, but receive no funding from non-Catholic institutions. Without the Bishop's Annual Appeal, there would be no opportunity for our college age youth to practice their religion or learn about the Catholic faith for the first time. This support is incredibly important because participation at these Catholic Campus Ministries is at an all-time high. Overall, the Bishop's Annual Appeal will provide over $7 million in the upcoming year to help those in physical and spiritual need. I am pleased to report that our Parish is getting close to achieving our goal thanks to the generosity of 219 families who have donated $70300.00 (96% of goal). Please join with these families and help us reach 100% by making a donation either by sending it to our Parish office or going online at www.givetobaa.org. Thanks for your generosity and continued support.

GOD'S PLAN

Saint Peter speaks to us twice today. In the first reading, we hear an excerpt from his sermon on Pentecost; in the second, part of his first letter. Once a frightened, uneducated fisherman who often said just the wrong thing, now Peter is speaking what he knows to be true. Everything Jesus had said now makes sense. His death and rising were all part of God's plan, and our faith and hope can be centered on God.

Today's Gospel tells the story of Jesus' walk to Emmaus with two of the disciples. Frightened, sad, and confused, the two of them don't recognize Jesus, who tells them what we heard Peter say above: All this had to happen as part of God's plan. In the end, these disciples recognize Jesus as we are to recognize him—in the breaking of the bread.

Spirit Week Continued

As you saw in last week's bulletin, we celebrated with our students by promoting a "spirit week." Our children loved it and seemed extremely happy to be sending in their photos to Mrs. Felix to post on ClassDojo. Here are more pictures of our students celebrating "Spirit Week" while continuing to learn from home.

To Who It May Concern,

We would like to have only 100 copies of our Bulletin printed this week. We are throwing away 95% of our Bulletins and would like to conserve the paper usage.

Thank you for all your hard work. We appreciate everyone at J. S. Paluch.

Sincerely,

Cherie Amedy
