Dear Ones,

A frustrating thing about writing this is that I must do it on Monday so we can email it to the publisher on Tuesday who FedEx our bulletins to us so that we receive them on Friday. It is particularly frustrating this week as we wait for the Governor's announcement Wednesday and Bishop Zarama's announcement after that. So, at this point, I can neither rejoice that we are beginning public weekend Masses, nor can I moan that we will continue live-streaming. I share your frustration. But by the time you read this...

In the meantime...

I want to thank (again?) all those who helped us achieve our Bishop's Annual Appeal goal. I really didn't think we'd make it, but you humbled me with your generosity. Back here at the ranch, we are moving ahead with unpacking storage units and reoccupying the Morton Center. Also, at our School, our playground is being completely modified with money that our Home School Association has been raising. Hopefully finished by the beginning of school in August.

Be Well, Do Good!

CHRISTIAN HOSPITALITY

Day in and day out, we are required to make judgment calls informed by tough, durable, serviceable Christian love. We do what we can do, and God takes notice. God is in charge of rewards, and a glass of water will do when that is what we have to offer with a glad and open heart.

Paul gives us a clear theology for the missionary work we do whenever anybody is close at hand. He reminds us that our work, our ministry, is carried on in concert with Christ. We have been baptized into his death and life. In any given moment both life and death are there, a kind of play of shadow and light. Sometimes it's difficult to tell where shadow leaves off and light begins. God will take care of that, too.

Prayer for St. Egbert Catholic School

Dear Heavenly Father,

May we continue to follow our mission at St. Egbert School by educating our children in mind, body, and spirit, so that they live lives of service and prayer. We pray that each child work to their potential, use the gifts given to them by God, and feel His love in their lives.

We pray for continuous peace in our world, for the homeless, the hungry, the sick and the dying.

And as a faith community, may we always remember Jesus' words:

"Amen, I say to you, unless you turn and become like children, you will not enter the kingdom of heaven. Whoever humbles himself like this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoever receives one child such as this in my name receives me."

Amen

Thank you, God for all of our blessings,

2020-2021 School Year and Volunteers

This school year may be a little different than it has in the past. With the uncertainty of the current pandemic, we are planning for three different scenarios on how to educate our students: 1) Return as usual, 2) Hybrid approach and 3) Distance learning.

As we plan for this, we don't want to forget that we will still need our volunteers. Perhaps they won't be able to come into the building and read to our children, but there are things which the volunteers can do at home, through video chat, or around the outside of our school.

So please don't hesitate to call the office to see how you can still be a volunteer for our school. We'd love to have you!

St. Egbert Catholic School Educating the whole child: Mind, Body, and Spirit

We are still accepting applications for most of our classes for the 2020-2021 school year. Some grade levels are at capacity, but others have space for more students. Right now, our enrollment is where it was last year, but we would certainly love to grow our school. Please recommend St. Egbert to friends, family and others. We'd love to have more children in our school. Please continue to pray for our school.

Scholarship Funds Needed

As we prepare for the next school year, there will be a need for scholarship funds. We have several students who qualify for tuition assistance. If you are able to support the tuition scholarship fund, please contact the school office. We want to continue to provide a quality education for those who desire to send their children to St. Egbert.

We know that Christ,
raised from the dead, dies no more;
death no longer has power over him.

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JUNE 28, 2020

GRACE AND HOPE

Which should we do? Turn our backs on our loved ones, or offer hospitality to all who come to us as Christ? Today we are told to do both, and yet there is no inherent contradiction here. Following Christ might mean that we need to be aware both that Christ comes first in our lives, and that losing our life for Christ's sake means to find it. We also are reminded that when we were baptized, we died with Christ, to sin and to the pull of the world, and live with him in a new life. No contradiction, no necessary confusion. Just grace and hope.

DYING AND RISING

The words of Saint Paul hit us smack in the face: "Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?" (Romans 6:3). This epistle is one of the choices to be read at Catholic funerals. It generally comes as something of a shock to the listeners. But the reading goes on to offer great comfort to us as Christians. "[w]e have died with Christ . . . we shall also live with him . . . raised from the dead, [Christ] dies no more . . . [Christ] lives for God . . . you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus."

HOSPITALITY

One of the ways we live in God is to extend God's hospitality to all. As an old Irish rune says, "Often goes the Christ in the stranger's guise."

The woman of Shunem offered hospitality to the prophet Elisha in the form of dinner and a place to stay. He rewarded her hospitality with the promise of a son. Christ explains to us just what hospitality means: "Whoever receives you receives me" and shall not lack for a reward. As theologian Paul Wadell teaches, when we offer hospitality, we not only offer food and drink, or a place to stay, or other kindness, we offer ourselves; we offer our attention to a stranger's story, wherein we learn another person's perspective, and in doing so we listen to God's story.

In warning us that "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me . . ." and also, "Whoever finds [their] life will lose it, and whoever loses [their] life for my sake will find it" Jesus proposes that we cultivate detachment from things that we now consider primary in our lives. Christ loves us and wants us to put him first before other commitments or desires. Our hospitality to strangers puts Christ before ourselves in just this way.
