(6:00 PM) Contact: Ken Jones (252) 723-3150

Dear Ones,

While, if you call the rectory/parish house, the machine will answer, it will also inform you that the mailbox is full. I just heard about this last week. There has not been a telephone hooked up in the Parish House since the hurricane nor will there be for the foreseeable future. If you want to leave a message, you must leave it at our Office number (252) 726-3559. When the Parish House walls and floors are done, we will relocate or reinstall the phone wire and get back a little bit closer to normalcy.

One thing I would like to change at our Eucharistic worship is to ask the Ministers of Communion to come forward immediately at the Sign of Peace. “Officially” the Priest is not supposed to go down to the people during the Sign of Peace which makes it kind of lonely for your clergy. As soon as the Ministers arrive in the Sanctuary, they should exchange the Sign of Peace with the Priest, the Altar Servers and each other. The Sign of Peace ends when we begin the Lamb of God. I ask all to be attentive and wait until I hold the large Host up and begin breaking it to start the Lamb of God. I will try to do so in such a way that all have the opportunity to share Christ’s peace, without it overshadowing our sharing Holy Communion. It will, of course, be a little odd at first but should work better in the long term.

Joyeux Fetes de la Tombe de la Bastille!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

On a summer day, with the windows open, we may hear the sound of church bells. Bells seem to have come into church life in Irish monasteries around the seventh century, and spread around the Christian world by Irish monks on missionary journeys. By the eighth century, bells were standard equipment in even small parish churches. An ancient ceremony, once called the "baptism of the bells," recognizes that the church bell has a voice to call people to awareness and summon them to worship, and even bestows a name on the bell.

In a world without clocks or watches, the bell had an indispensable role. For calling monks in from the fields for prayer, or alerting far-flung visitors, the bell's voice was enhanced by hoisting it high into a tower. Soon it was learned that the sound of several bells clanging together in harmony imparted a sense of joy to great celebrations, and bell towers prospered, some chock full of bells. Different combinations of rings could indicate a death, a Mass, a wedding, a fast day, the curfew at the end of day, and the Angelus. Before electricity, bell-ringing was hard work indeed: the biggest bell in the Catholic world, in Cologne, Germany, weighs twenty-seven tons! There's no substitute for the resonant roar of a mighty bell; electric chimes are not eligible for blessing!

GOD WANTS TO BE KNOWN

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God's law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God's passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke's Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God's intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

Pre-Kindergarten Class

We are still accepting applications for our Pre-kindergarten class for the 2019-2020 school year. It has been decided to extend our program to a half-day option. Please recommend St. Egbert to friends, family and others. We'd love to have more children in this class.

The Summer "TO DO" List

- Pre-k Graduation
- Kindergarten Graduation
- 5th Grade Graduation: Sent 5th graders on to Middle School
- Kindergarten Teacher: Hired
- Scholarship Funds Needed: There are Catholic families in our parish who would like to provide a Catholic education for their children, but they need assistance with the cost of tuition. If you are able to be an "Angel Donor" and donate to the scholars fund, it would be greatly appreciated. Please contact the school office.
- New School Roof: Work begins in July.
- Recruit New Students: Our Pre-K class needs more students! Please see info below.
- Prepare the School: Updating floors, cleaning classrooms, organizing playgrounds.
- Ordered New Textbooks: We will be updated our math and social studies text books.
- Ordered Science Materials: Funds raised this past year were used to purchase new science materials which will enhance our science program.
THANKS HASA!
- Continue to get ready for our students!
