Dear Ones,

There's an old saying: "If you want to hear God laugh, tell him your plans." Warned by that, but taking advantage of opportunity... They are scheduled to sand the Parish House floors and then, three coats of polyurethane. Since I won't be able to live in the Parish House from July 29 through August 2, I thought, what a wonderful time to get away. When I communicated my care for my schoolmate Father Paul Counce in Baton Rouge, he said, if I had a couple of days off, I should come and visit. Now I don't expect anything to go wrong (at least until I buy a non-refundable air ticket.) And so... I'll let you know more when I do. In the meantime life goes on and batteries are being recharged all around us. Have a great week.

A MINDSET OF SERVICE

There's a lot of traveling, delivering, and visiting going on in our readings today. In Genesis Abraham cares for the needs of three mysterious travelers. The psalm responds, celebrating the kind of righteousness that Abraham practices. Then, in his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul describes his own ministry as almost like a delivery service: he, God's steward, brings the word of God to their community. Finally, Luke's Gospel shares the well-known story of Mary and Martha, and the different ways they welcome Jesus into their home. Amid all this coming and going, we are invited to pay attention to the ways we tend to the needs of others. Each of us can ask,

How am I present to God and others in my life?

Pre-Kindergarten Class

We are still accepting applications for our Pre-kindergarten class for the 2019-2020 school year. It has been decided to extend our program to a half-day option. Please recommend St. Egbert to friends, family and others. We'd love to have more children in this class.

The Summer "TO DO" List

- Pre-k Graduation
- Kindergarten Graduation
- 5* Grade Graduation: Sent 5* graders on to Middle School
- Kindergarten Teacher: Hired
- Scholarship Funds Needed: There are Catholic families in our parish who would like to provide a Catholic education for their children, but they need assistance with the cost of tuition. If you are able to be an "Angel Donor" and donate to the scholars fund, it would be greatly appreciated. Please contact the school office.
- New School Roof: Work has begun.
- Recruit New Students: Our Pre-K class needs more students! Please see info below.
- Prepare the School: Updating floors, cleaning classrooms, organizing playgrounds.
- Ordered New Textbooks: We will be updated our math and social studies text books.
- Ordered Science Materials: Funds raised this past year were used to purchase new science materials which will enhance our science program.
THANKS HASA!
- Continue to get ready for our students!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There's a different pace to a summer Sunday, especially on those days when we dream of air conditioning and wave any available paper to stir the air. Yet we persist in gathering, even with so many breaks from the usual routines. We distance ourselves not only from routines, but from schedules and familiar well-worn paths. These are playful days and contemplative days. We see long-lost friends and visit almost-forgotten places. We have more leisure than any people before in the history of the world, and we need it because our lives are so care-worn and tiring. More of us walk barefoot and look up at the stars or dip our toes in the lake or sea, sing around campfires, read novels on the beach, and eat comfort food with our fingers. We see how beautiful life can be, and are more aware than usual of how God is always breaking in with signs of love.

In Genesis today, Abraham and Sarah practice hospitality to their visitors, who turn out to be God dropping in. During the summer months, God practices hospitality in return, inviting us into a season of celebration. Keeping Sunday holy is a good habit to cultivate in these days when our spirits are especially receptive to God's deep desire for us to know divine love.
