The kingdom of heaven

is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all he has and buys that field.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Solomon prays for an understanding heart (1 Kings 3:5, 7-12).

Psalm — Lord, I love your commands (Psalm 119).

Second Reading — All things work for good for those who love God (Romans 8:28-30).

Gospel — The one who knows of the kingdom of heaven brings new and old from the store-room (Matthew 13:44-52 [44-46]).

A SHARE IN GOD'S KINGDOM

Today concludes a three-week series of Gospel texts in which we have listened to a total of seven parables about the Kingdom. The believer is asked to consider the request that God made of Solomon in today's first reading: "Ask something of me and I will give it to you" (1 Kings 3:5). Today's parables about the treasure buried in the field and the pearl of great price should prompt us to answer, "A share in your kingdom, O God!" Today we discover that the kingdom of God is beyond value, a priceless treasure. Unfortunately, our culture bombards us with things that it believes are priceless treasures—the bigger and better SUVs, anti-aging and anti-balding creams and salves, miracle diets, and so much more. Having a share in God's kingdom and helping to bring about that kingdom are the greatest treasures that we can ever hope to gain.

St. Egbert Staff

As we begin to move toward the beginning of the school year, we would like to introduce the faculty and staff at St. Egbert Catholic School. We are thankful for their commitment to our school and our children.

Mrs. Maria Daress
3rd Grade Teacher

Mrs. Darress has been at St. Egbert for 14 years. She is a graduate of East Carolina University with a major in Elementary Education and Reading. Mrs. Darress has been married to Bob for 23 years, and they have a 22 year old son (Rob) who is a graduate of Appalachian State University. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, boating, walking, and watching football.

Why do you like teaching at St. Egbert?

“It is a faith-filled school. I enjoy the closeness and camaraderie with my coworkers.”

Mrs. Becky Bolduc
Art Teacher

Mrs. Bolduc has been at St. Egbert for three years as our art teacher. She is a graduate of University of Maine with a BS in Elementary Education with a concentration in literature and art. For the past seven years, Mrs. Bolduc has home-schooled her son with Classical Conversations. She has been active in the art world by working at Wine & Design and teaching private art lessons. She is married to Lt. Colonel Jeffrey Bolduc USMC Retired. They have two boys; Matthew and Gregory.

Why do you teach at St. Egbert?

“I love teaching at a Christian private school where there are small classes. There is a sense of family among the staff and community.”

Scholarship Funds Needed

As we prepare for the next school year, there will be a need for scholarship funds. We have several students who qualify for tuition assistance. If you are able to support the tuition scholarship fund, please contact the school office. We want to continue to provide a quality education for those who desire to send their children to St. Egbert.

THANK YOU to all who have already contributed to our tuition assistance fund. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Kathy Crowe
Music Teacher

Mrs. Crowe holds a degree from Meredith College with a Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance and Music Education K-12. She has accrued over 25 years of teaching general and choral music in public and private schools. Presently, she is the music educator at St. Egbert where she has taught for the last 18 years. She was appointed to the North Carolina Board of Directors. Mrs. Crowe is married to Roger Crowe, a local attorney, and they have two children, Tres (Roger III) and Morgan. When Kathy is not making music, she enjoys boating, deep sea fishing and traveling. Ask her about the one that got away!

Why do you like teaching at St. Egbert?

“I love teaching at St. Egbert for many reasons. The support of the staff and administration has been wonderful. I love that St. Egbert teaches to the whole student- mind, body and soul. Most of all, I love the students and their enthusiasm for learning. My deepest wish is that I can instill in them a deep love for music performance.”
