Dear Ones,

Spoke to our seminarian, Jesus, at Notre Dame Seminary when the first hurricane was headed his way. Happily, it was downgraded and passed to the west of him. He did allow that the climate was nice and he was glad that he was living on the third floor of the seminary. If you'd like to drop him a note, his address is:

Praying all is well with you and yours,

THE CROSS OF JESUS

The perception of a cross changed dramatically after Jesus' crucifixion. Before that event, death on a cross was not only horrible, it was degrading. It was a penalty reserved only for the most wretched of criminals. The word "glory" would not have found its way into the same sentence containing the word "cross." But all that changed with Jesus. Over time, believers began to venerate and honor the cross. They painted, sculpted, and carved images of it. Many lost their own lives for their association with it. Today our reverence for and relationship with the cross recalls little of the contempt originally associated with it. As it has been through the ages, it is our perception of the cross that determines how we follow Jesus.

OUR FIRST WEEK

Our first week of school went extremely well. Students at school adapted to wearing face coverings and social distancing. Our students who are participating in distance learning engaged in class lectures and activities. We have 123 students enrolled in our school this year and 10 of those students are distance learning. These students can tune into their classroom each day while the teacher is teaching. They engage in class discussions, activities, and assessments. It is working very well for our families who have chosen this method of learning for their children. Students at home can be seen wearing their St. Egbert uniform and participating in regular activities. This is a great way for all our students to stay connected, and we appreciate our teachers for their hard work in educating all our students.

Ford and Hope were dressed for morning prayer and pledge at home.

Scholarship Funds Needed

Although we have begun our year, there is still a need for scholarship funds. We have had several students qualify for tuition assistance. If you are able to support the tuition scholarship fund, please contact the school office. We want to continue to provide a quality education for those who desire to send their children to St. Egbert. THANK YOU to all who have already contributed to our tuition assistance fund. Your generosity is greatly appreciated.
