JANUARY 24, 2021

3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

Gospel Connection

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Te absolvo . . .

In his book How the Light Gets In, the late poet and essayist Brian Doyle reflects on "the one sweet thing about being Catholic": Confession, asking for and receiving forgiveness. But, Doyle learned, the "crucial part" of the sacrament comes "after you leave the church." Doyle writes:

" . . . You walk to the river and while you are pretending to watch for herons you envision each person against whose holiness you did sin, and to each you apologize, and ask for forgiveness. Some of them are long gone from this world but not from the Infinite Mercy who remembers all levels and forgetteth not a sparrow. You are absolved not when a man says so but when you have asked, with every fiber of your being, to be forgiven, to walk home clean, to start again, to be possible. What we really ask for in the sacrament of reconciliation is to be a question mark again, to be verb, to be not what we did but what we might Yet be able to do; a map of the unknown, an unfinished song."

When Jesus calls us to "repent," he's not calling us to cease and desist; he's not calling us out for our sins and failures. "Repentance" is a call to change, to look at our lives and our world in a new light, to become the person of hope and faith we seek to be. The Eastern Orthodox theologian Kallistos Ware writes that, correctly understood, repentance "means, not self-pity or remorse, but conversion, the re-centering of our whole life upon the Trinity. It is to look, not backward with regret, but forward with hope — not downwards at our own shortcomings, but upwards at God's love. It is to see, not what we have failed to be, but what by divine grace we can now become; and it is to act upon what we see. To repent is to open our eyes to the light. In this sense, repentance is not just a single act, an initial step, but a continuing state, an attitude of heart and will that needs to be ceaselessly renewed up to the end of life." [From The Orthodox Way by Kallistos Ware.]

Stewardship as a Way of Life: Stewardship as a Way of Life:

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." — Mark 1:17. Jesus' call to "Follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule and that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

FAITH FORMATION

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSES

Next month students will be studying some of the great black Catholics who have made a difference in our faith: Venerable Fr. Augustus Tolton, Venerable Mother Henriette Delille, Servant of God Sr. Thea Bowman, just to name a few. You might check the web and read up on their incredible lives. We will be studying the sin of Racism and how it can affect us all. The U.S. Catholic Bishops state: "Racism is a sin: a sin that divides the human family, blots out the image of God among specific members of that family, and violates the fundamental human dignity of those called to be children of the same Father." More to come!!

Also, a reminder that our second First Reconciliation service will take place on January 30th at 9:00 a.m. at St. Nicholas. Social distancing will be enforced.

Have a blessed week and remember, WWJD (What would Jesus do!!!)

Peace

Mrs. Barbara Loughrey

CATHOLIC SCHOOL NEWS

HOLY CROSS

It is wonderful to have all of our students back with us in person. We have missed having our school community together!

We invite you to come see how small class sizes, Christian values, and strong academics can help your child build a strong foundation. If you, or someone you know, is interested in sending your child to Holy Cross, please give us a call at 320-398-7885, or email info@holycrossmn.org, with questions or to set up an in-person tour.

Our students are selling $5 tickets for the Catholic United Raffle. Best of all, every penny of every ticket sold stays at Holy Cross School thanks to Catholic United Financial. Please reach out to a school family, see Julene after mass, or stop by school to pick up your raffle tickets.

Peace & Grace,
Tracy

CATHOLIC SCHOOL NEWS

ST. MARY HELP OF CHRISTIANS SCHOOL

Greetings! This week we welcomed back our full student body, faculty and staff. We are so thankful to be back in our building learning in-person. Please continue to help us spread the word... we are unable to have our typical Open House event for new and prospective families for the 2021-2022 school year. Instead, we are offering personal tours! This is a great opportunity to see our amazing school and ask any questions. If you are interested or know someone who might be, please contact me, (kkirks@smhocs.org) to set up a tour! Our Catholic school supports children each day as they grow in mind, body and faith. Students have the opportunity to celebrate the Eucharist weekly at school Masses. Children are taught the values of Catholic social teaching, which guide them in moral decision making.

Raffle tickets for the Catholic Schools Raffle are now on sale. The tickets are $5 each. All proceeds from the raffle go directly to St. Mary Help of Christians School. Please consider purchasing tickets from one of our students.

As always, we welcome your prayers and appreciate your support!

Sincerely,

Kelly Kirks, Principal

ST. WENDELIN

It is GREAT to have our students back at school for in-person learning. I know we aren't supposed to hug right now, but I accepted them with a big smile on my face.

The Catholic United Financial raffle is underway. The tickets are $5.00/ea and all money raised stays right here in our building. It's our first fundraiser for the year, so I'm hoping for great success. Luck is in the air in Luxemburg, so get your tickets. Maybe YOU will be the top winner this year. There are some great prizes to give away. The top prize is a 2021 Ford EcoSport SUV or $20,000. Other prizes include: $5,000 Home Depot card, East Silent Lake Resort family package, 65in. smart TV, an Ultimate Outdoor package, an Oculus gaming headset, $250 Cabela gift certificates, $150 Amazon, and $100 Visa cards. These are all great prizes donated by Catholic United Financial. Tickets can be sold until Feb. 28th and the drawing will take place March 11th. Our goal is to raise $7,000, but I'm secretly (okay not so secretly) hoping to raise $10,000. Stop by school, or hunt down one of our students, for your tickets. Lynn has them in the office as well. The raffle goes until Feb. 28th with the drawing held on March 11th.
