From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Many years ago, while my grandmother was still alive, I would make periodic visits to her assisted living facility. Our visits were always low-key. When she was able, we would go out for lunch or run a few errands. Other times, I would celebrate Mass for her and her friends, when I was invited to do so. Sometimes we would just sit and visit in her tiny apartment, telling stories about times past. But before I departed, every time I was there, she would give me, "the list." "The list" was usually a verbal order of all the people that I was to pray for. It might include some of her friends who were sick or having some medical procedure or another. It often had family members—in-laws, blood relatives, distant cousins... you name it. Over the years, I can't think of anyone who wasn't on "the list" at some point or another. Reduced to using a walker and later a wheelchair, it was her way of bringing others to Christ in prayer. The more people she could get to take on her "list," the better.

This weekend, we enter back into what is called "Ordinary Time" in our Church's liturgical year. "Ordinary," here it meant in terms of ordinal numbers or counted-time, not something ordinary, plain or mundane. This sense of counted-time underscores the continuing journey through time and place that we all experience on our way home to the Lord. From the earliest moments of our life in the womb to our last breath here on Earth, we are in motion to seek and find our Creator.

Although instinctually hard-wired to search for the Lord, we often find God through the introductions, examples and prayers of others. Like Eli in this weekend's First Reading who, in the simplest way possible, makes the connection for young Samuel to begin his path with God. Like John the Baptist who points to Jesus and fulfills his role in the history of salvation by preparing the way of the Lord. Like Andrew, who introduces his brother to Jesus. Like my grandmother who never stopped presenting those she loved to the Lord and the Lord to those she loved. It is a most human thing to do on our long earthly quest to be with our Creator.

So, in this midwinter chill, who is on your "list," and who will you introduce to the Lord today? Remember, lives are changed when we encounter the Lord along the way.

Blessings and continued prayers for peace in our nation and world.

Fr. Timothy Harrison, Pastor

Winter Weather Mass Cancellations

Due to the hazards of travel and the safety of priests and parishioners alike, this winter daily Mass within the Collaborative will be cancelled if Immaculate Conception School, Pentucket Regional, or Newburyport Public Schools in-person classes are cancelled or delayed because of inclement weather. WBZ Channel 4 will have the updated school cancellation information. It is also available on their website at boston.cbslocal.com and we will make every effort to keep our own website and social media updated as well.

In severe situations, it may also be necessary for safety reasons to cancel weekend Masses. Again, please watch WBZ or consult the websites and/or social media for cancellation information.

Thank you for your patience and understanding. In all things, God gave us the gifts of wisdom, reason, and prudence. Let's use them wisely this winter and exercise sound judgment when considering going out in severe weather.

Online Nativity Display

Making the Best of 2020

Thank you to all those who graciously shared their family manger scenes for our HRIC 2020 online Nativity Display.

Every day during the Christmas season, beginning December 26 and continuing through January 10, we featured on Facebook and Instagram photos of your beautiful Nativities set up in your home. If you were not able to see them you can view the entire collection on our Website: <https://www.hricatholic.org/photos>.

Thanks go out to Mary Schmidt and David Leff for their insight, consultations, and helpful hints on this project. We hope to continue this display in some form in the years to come—possibly online, possibly in person again.

Some in our Collaborative may have challenges getting everyday needs accomplished during the COVID-19 emergency.

Centering Prayer and Lectio Divina

We welcome all members of our Collaborative community to join us each Wednesday 6:00–7:00 p.m. via Zoom for 30 minutes of Centering Prayer, silently resting in God and surrendering and assenting to God’s presence and action in our lives. This ancient prayer practice opens our minds and hearts to hear God’s words as we continue by reading Sacred Scripture in group Lectio Divina.

For the next 30 minutes we listen to God’s words, ponder and share what we hear the Lord saying to us here and now, and contemplate God’s message to us and let it guide our choices and actions. Both practices strengthen our faith and reliance on God and deepen our personal relationship with God.

For more information, please call Elizabeth McCarthy, 978-462-7483.

Mass Scripture Readings

The Scripture passages read each day at Mass will no longer be posted in the bulletin. Instead, they can be found online at bible.usccb.org the site of the United States Council of Catholic Bishops. There you will find the daily readings, be able to listen to them on podcast, and have the opportunity to watch a short reflection piece on the readings offered by a Catholic priest, deacon, religious, or lay person.

Praying with the Scriptures daily is a wonderful way to deepen our relationship with Our Lord and to discern how best to serve God as an intentional disciple of Christ. Please access the HRIC webpage to learn about Lectio Divina as a way of praying the Scriptures. Go to www.HRICatholic.org; click on HRIC Pastoral Plan; and then click on Lectio Divina.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION PARISH

Holy Hour for Life

You're Invited

Immaculate Conception Parish Prays For Life

A Holy Hour for Life will be held on Friday, January 22, 2021 from 6:15–7:00 p.m. in the Immaculate Conception Church. This is part of the Archdiocesan observance of the National Day of Prayer and Penance. We do this to mark the anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court's decision legalizing abortion on demand. A Holy Hour will be held at parishes throughout the Archdiocese to pray for safe travel and a successful pilgrimage to Washington DC for all those attending the annual March for Life. Led by Deacon John Moranski, we will pray together for those who have been wounded by abortion, for respect for the dignity of human life from conception to natural death, and that those who govern us may be guided by justice, truth, and a love for the gift of life. The Holy Hour for Life is organized by Boston Deacons for Life in collaboration with the Pro Life Office of the Archdiocese of Boston. Please join us, all are welcome.

St. Mary's Cemetery

Immaculate Conception Parish owns and operates a private cemetery located on Storey Avenue. St. Mary's Cemetery is a 35-acre cemetery with consecrated grounds that provides tranquility and peacefulness at those difficult times that we all are faced with. Please visit the parish cemetery and you will find the cemetery to be well-managed and maintained. Cemetery plots are available for full-body and cremated remains burials in any denomination. Call Joseph Viel, Superintendent, at 978-208-0266 to schedule an appointment.
