From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

This was a tragedy! The vineyard trampled and given over to pasture?! It will be overgrown with thorns and briars and become an arid wasteland?! This was unthinkable, a death-blow to the community!

In ancient times, there were few worse things for a village-community to endure than the loss of a cherished vineyard. This was not simply an epicurean tragedy for the few foodies in their midst, but a genuine loss for everyone—man, woman, and child. You see, the vineyard was so much more than a place to get the occasional grape to munch on or turn-to for the source of an infrequent glass of wine. Rather, the vineyard was the very symbol of life itself and of God's blessing upon their families. Aside from providing the raw material to make the prized "fruit of the vine," the vineyard also employed most of the village at one point or another. While workers would toil year-round, pruning, fertilizing, watering, digging—all to position the vines in the best possible light to receive the rain from Heaven and the essential sunlight—when it came to harvest time, everyone was called into the field to help reap the grapes, as they all ripened at once.

The collective community effort unified the people around a single task that was always seen to be in cooperation with God's blessings upon their land. Hence, the wine that was produced was a powerful symbol of God's favor upon their community and a promise of His enduring love. Handed down over centuries, incorporated into Jewish rituals, embraced by the Lord Jesus and sacramentalized at the Last Supper, the Cup of Blessing was a potent sign of God's saving presence.

Thus the tragedy—no vineyard, no work, no grapes, no wine...no blessing from the Lord! How awful! And all because those who were tasked with the vineyard's upkeep—those who would prune and hoe and water and fertilize—all because they failed in their duties and became lax in their responsibilities. God did God's part: God provided rain and sunshine and good soil. God provided for the changing of seasons, a time for planting and a time for harvesting. But the vineyard did not produce good fruit, only wild grapes. Something was rotten, indeed!

Isaiah names it well: bloodshed and an outcry for missing justice. Matthew picks up the theme as Jesus tells this weekend's parable of greed, injustice, murder, and wretchedness. It is the sad story of human sin and failure all woven into a simple story of a landowner—a friend!, wanting nothing more than His proper share of grapes at harvest time. He didn't even want all the grapes, only His share. In an abundant harvest, there would be plenty to go around for everyone. The landowner only wanted His proper share, something that we observers across the centuries can see as eminently fair. Even an absentee landlord would be due His just share; after all, He paid for the land the vineyard was planted on, paid for the improvements, paid for the workers to make the

Word On Fire Engage

Our Collaborative parishes have access to the premium digital video content from Word on Fire, a service known as ENGAGE. Everyone in our Collaborative will benefit from this year-long subscription through the generosity of an anonymous donor.

The films and video presentations that make up ENGAGE feature Bishop Robert Barron, “one of the Church’s greatest messengers” and the second most-followed Catholic in the world on social media (behind only Pope Francis.) For many of our older parishioners, a comparison to Bishop Fulton Sheen helps to underscore the giftedness of Bishop Barron as an effective communicator of the Gospel and our Catholic faith.

You and everyone in our Collaborative now have free access to the entire Word on Fire digital video library. You can watch any of Bishop Barron’s films or study programs whenever you want, on any device!

To access the resources of Word on Fire’s ENGAGE, please register at flocknote.com/hriccollaborative or by texting HRIC to 84576. Once you register, you will have access to ENGAGE.

We are excited to bring ENGAGE to your attention. Along with FORMED (formed.org), we now have a treasure chest of online faith formation resources available free to all in the HRIC community. We encourage you to take full advantage of these resources.

improvements. If people weren’t faithful to their obligations and commitments because of their pay and share of the harvest, surely they would do so because this is the vineyard of a friend. But alas, that is the price of sin—and alienation from all that is good, a destruction of the very fabric of friendship and love.

Like last week’s Parable of the Two Sons, this Parable of the Vineyard points to God’s earnest and passionate desire for good fruit. God really, really, really wants a good harvest! He doesn’t want us to simply talk about it, conjecture about what it might look like or ponder the merits of potentially bringing forth the occasional grape. No, God wants the rich, abundant harvest that ought to always be there due to the good soil and good sunlight and good rain. The only thing more that is needed is the faithful toil and labor to bring it about.

Faithfulness. There it is again—a call from the Lord through the sacred stories passed down over centuries that invites us to turn from sin and follow a path of holiness. What human sin and failure have ruined, God renews and redeems through Jesus Christ.

Just as differing varieties of grapes are carefully grown in particular soils to make unique wines that are a lasting expression of their local climates and cultures, so God calls forth from each of us and from our collective communities of faith a vintage that ought to be a lasting blessing not only for ourselves but, indeed, for all who long to share in what is an overabundance of God’s Grace.

St. Francis of Assisi sought to follow a path of conversion that made him a better and more faithful worker in the vineyard of his Friend. May we open our hearts this weekend on his Feast Day to do the same.

Fall Blessings,

Fr. Timothy Harrison,
Pastor

America Truly Does Need Fatima Now

Centering Prayer and Lectio Divina

We welcome all members of our Collaborative community to join us each Wednesday 6:00–7:00 p.m. via Zoom for 30 minutes of Centering Prayer, silently resting in God and surrendering and assenting to God's presence and action in our lives. This ancient prayer practice opens our minds and hearts to hear God's words as we continue by reading Sacred Scripture in group Lectio Divina.

For the next 30 minutes we listen to God's words, ponder and share what we hear the Lord saying to us here and now, and contemplate God's message to us and let it guide our choices and actions. Both practices strengthen our faith and reliance on God and deepen our personal relationship with God.

For more information, please call Elizabeth McCarthy, 978-462-7483.

FORMED: The Search

Why are we here? What's life all about?

Sometimes we get so caught up in the depth of our faith that we forget what it was like to first wrestle with the big questions—Who am I? What am I searching for? What's our shared story? Who is Jesus? Why do we need a Church? Is there a God? We all need to get back to the basics to make sure the foundation is strong.

We are excited to introduce The Search, a new seven-part Augustine Institute original series with the goal of lighting that first fire in those who don't yet know the faith or reigniting the fire in those who need a primer on the foundational questions. The Search is now on our Collaborative FORMED subscription at no charge.

It's free and easy to register at FORMED:

- Visit formed.org
- Click “Sign up”
- Type in “Holy Redeemer Immaculate Conception Collaborative” and follow the prompts from there.

Confessions

We are now offering face-to-face, individual Confessions by appointment. These will take place by an appointment with one of our priests and will be held outside in the fresh air. The weather must be amenable for the appointment, both priest and penitent must wear a face mask and practice proper social-distancing during the Confession.

For more information or to schedule a time for Confession, please contact our Collaborative Office at (978) 346-8604 or (978) 462-2724.

Mass Scripture Readings

October 4–11, 2020

Praying with the Scriptures can help us to develop a more intimate relationship with the Holy Spirit dwelling within us. What do they reveal about our vocation as Christians and as a Church community to become ever more intentional disciples of Christ? Please access the HRIC webpage to learn about Lectio Divina as a way of praying the Scriptures. Go to www.HRICcatholic.org and click on HRIC Pastoral Plan and then click on Lectio Divina.

PLEASE SUPPORT OUR PRIESTS IN SEPTEMBER

Our priests are often at the center of efforts that build strong support systems for all of us. In addition to their daily pastoral responsibilities, they help establish social service organizations, offer spiritual support for first responders, operate parish food pantries, and recently, in response to the pandemic, put their lives at risk to provide comfort and peace to those suffering with COVID-19. Healthier priests build stronger communities. And the Clergy Health and Retirement Trust (CHRT) is dedicated to keeping our priests healthy.

This September, you can support the CHRT's mission by giving to the special collection at Masses on September 19/20. Every gift makes a difference and is a symbol of gratitude for all our priests who don't just observe need in our communities; they seek it out so they can respond.

Act of Spiritual Communion

Those who cannot receive Communion right now are all encouraged to make an act of Spiritual Communion.

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

HR St. Vincent de Paul

During these difficult times, we have seen increased requests for food cards, as well as help with rent and utilities. Unfortunately, our major fundraiser, the Walk for the Poor, has been canceled. Please consider donating to assist those in need. Donations can also be put in the poor boxes at both churches. Thank you for remembering those who need our support during COVID.

Please write the check to "HR Saint Vincent de Paul" to help expedite our banking. If mailing your donations, please send them to

HR St. Vincent de Paul
4 Green St.
Merrimac, MA 01860

We assure you that the mail is checked regularly and your funds will be promptly put to use.

HR Prayer Shawl

In the past, we have waited for requests for a prayer shawl or lap blanket and given it to the person requesting it. It can be for anyone, anywhere—there is no cost, it is free.

We will continue to do this! We want to do more. We would like to drop off prayer shawls or a lap blanket to anyone you know who needs comfort in our Holy Redeemer Parish family. So, if you know of anyone, please email their name to Helen 978-771-4673 or hvktax@aol.com.

If you know the address that we can deliver to, maybe a favorite color, that would be helpful but not necessary.

We will not intrude at this difficult time but simply leave it at their door.

Yours Truly, Holy Redeemer Prayer Shawl Ladies

HR Sandwich Program

We received a call from Good Shepherd and they are not allowed to take things made off site at this time per order of the CDC. We will not be delivering until further notice.

Please consider making a financial donation at <https://lazarushouse.org/ways-to-give/#donate-financially>.
