From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend's Gospel passage is often referred to as the "The Parable of the Talents." Now a "talent" was a measure of money, worth somewhere around 10,000 days' wages. So, looking at the minimum wage and before any taxes would be taken out, let's call it a cool million dollars in today's money. That's quite a stack of cash, no matter what century you are living in! As we listen to this story, we see the industrious servants being praised as they were able to double their allotted portions and the third, uncreative servant chastised and cast-out for failing to at least return the money with interest. This reading of the Gospel gels with our own modern values of entrepreneurship and free trade. Good for them, we cheer, as the first two servants make fistfuls of money! Maybe we feel bad for the third servant who was not as creative or adventurous, but there is a little voice deep down inside that nags at us saying, "He at least could have tried to do something, couldn't have he?" That the third servant is thrown outside where there will be wailing and gnashing of teeth seems a fitting punishment. After all, a million bucks buried in the dirt wasn't earning any interest. What a shameful, lost opportunity, we might think....

So, was Jesus really praising free market capitalism? Did he really want His disciples to be investors and stock brokers? What is going on here?

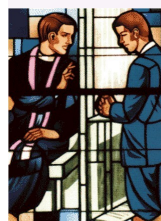

We think nothing today of promoting the idea of creating wealth and growing our investments. This is the way it is done. The more creative we are, the greater the reward is. Through careful, shrewd investing over time, we compound interest, we build wealth, we grow rich. All of this is seen as good and normal. It is solid financial planning for the future.

Not so in Jesus' time! For the hearers of Matthew's Gospel, money and wealth were fixed commodities. In other words, there was only a certain amount of it in the world, and it has already been distributed. If you were to gain more of it somehow, it meant that someone else had lost it, perhaps through dishonest means. Thus, gaining wealth was seen as suspicious and shameful. One ought to be satisfied with what they have, not seeking to gain more at someone else’s expense. There was honor in being content with what one had, with one’s position and station in life. To reach for more was repulsive...and even sinful. So looking at this story from this perspective, which of the three servants acted honorably? The one who buried the money and returned it to the ruthless master without “mis-using” it. Remember, even putting the money out for a loan and getting it back with interest risked being seen as usury. The honorable path here was not to do anything with the money but to return it to its proper owner and have nothing to do with the other’s questionable methods.

In the Scriptures, Jesus is always portrayed as acting honorably. And here is where the twist comes in! While on the surface, Jesus seems to be championing the dishonorable actions of making money off of others (much to the initial horror of his followers) Jesus’ true honor comes not from his handling of earthly things according to earthly customs, but rather the real honor comes from God His Father. Jesus always acts honorably by being about His Father’s business. True honor lies in doing God’s Will. True honor and lasting wealth is found in seeking the things of God, even if those things are not understood or valued by others.

Thus, in this story, although the master is portrayed as a demanding person, harvesting where he did not plant and gathering where he did not scatter, the lesson that Jesus is offering for us is that real wealth (honor) comes doing the master’s will. Particularly when we don’t understand it, and even if we find it distasteful. God will not be contained by our mere human understanding of what God “ought” to be doing or where God “should” be acting. God will be demanding from time to time, at least from our perspective. What is being praised in the first two servants was their loyalty to totally orienting their lives and actions to be in accord with that of their master.

And although the third servant appeared to act honorably according to earthly virtue, he failed miserably in making his heart one with his master and ultimately found himself in disdain of everything his master stood for. Our heroes are not necessarily God’s heroes. The only real, true, lasting virtue is to make our hearts completely docile to God’s Will and conform our hearts’ desire to His. There and only there will we find life, happiness, and peace.

In the words of the familiar song,

*Seek ye first the Kingdom of God
And His righteousness
And all these things shall be added unto you
Allelu Alleluia*

May these autumnal days yield rich blessings for us all from the Lord.

Fr. Timothy Harrison, Pastor

Mass Scripture Readings

November 15–22, 2020

Praying with the Scriptures can help us to develop a more intimate relationship with the Holy Spirit dwelling within us. What do they reveal about our vocation as Christians and as a Church community to become ever more intentional disciples of Christ? Please access the HRIC webpage to learn about Lectio Divina as a way of praying the Scriptures. Go to www.HRICcatholic.org and click on HRIC Pastoral Plan and then click on Lectio Divina.

- Sunday, Nov. 15: Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31; 1 Thessalonians 5:1-6; Matthew 25:14-30

(The free App “Laudate” allows you to access the daily Scripture readings on your cell phone.)

Centering Prayer and Lectio Divina

We welcome all members of our Collaborative community to join us each Wednesday 6:00–7:00 p.m. via Zoom for 30 minutes of Centering Prayer, silently resting in God and surrendering and assenting to God’s presence and action in our lives. This ancient prayer practice opens our minds and hearts to hear God’s words as we continue by reading Sacred Scripture in group Lectio Divina.

For the next 30 minutes we listen to God’s words, ponder and share what we hear the Lord saying to us here and now, and contemplate God’s message to us and let it guide our choices and actions. Both practices strengthen our faith and reliance on God and deepen our personal relationship with God.

For more information, please call Elizabeth McCarthy, 978-462-7483.

Word On Fire Engage

Our Collaborative parishes have access to the premium digital video content from Word on Fire, a service known as ENGAGE. Everyone in our Collaborative will benefit from this year-long subscription through the generosity of an anonymous donor.

The films and video presentations that make up ENGAGE feature Bishop Robert Barron, “one of the Church’s greatest messengers” and the second most-followed Catholic in the world on social media (behind only Pope Francis.) For many of our older parishioners, a comparison to Bishop Fulton Sheen helps to underscore the giftedness of Bishop Barron as an effective communicator of the Gospel and our Catholic faith.

You and everyone in our Collaborative now have free access to the entire Word on Fire digital video library. You can watch any of Bishop Barron’s films or study programs whenever you want, on any device!

To access the resources of Word on Fire’s ENGAGE, please register at flocknote.com/hriccollaborative or by texting HRIC to 84576. Once you register, you will have access to ENGAGE.

We are excited to bring ENGAGE to your attention. Along with FORMED (formed.org), we now have a treasure chest of online faith formation resources available free to all in the HRIC community. We encourage you to take full advantage of these resources.

HR Prayer Shawl

Thank you for taking the time to pass on the names of our parish family members who could use some comfort from a prayer shawl. We delivered 10 shawls and/or lap blankets in the month of October! Keep the requests coming! It can be for anyone, anywhere—there is no cost, it is free.

We would like to drop off prayer shawls or lap blankets to anyone you know who needs comfort in our Holy Redeemer Parish family. So, if you know of anyone, please give their name to Helen hvktax@aol.com or 978-771-4673. If you know the address that we can deliver to, maybe a favorite color, that would be helpful but not necessary. We will not intrude at this difficult time but simply leave it at their door.

IC Online Giving

Immaculate Conception Parish provides Online Giving—a convenient and safe way to make a one-time or a recurring (weekly) donation.

Getting started is easy—you need to be a registered member of Immaculate Conception Parish community. (At this time, Online Giving is available for only IC members.) Parish registration forms are available in the foyer of the church or at the parish office.

Once you register with the parish, or if you are already a registered parishioner, visit our website, hricatholic.org and click the "Links" tab or the Online Giving link on our homepage, then click on "Online Giving" to get to the site. There are four different funds you can choose to contribute to.

If you manage your other bills online, why not give to your Church online? It is safe and secure and you get to decide exactly when and to where your gift will be made.

Any questions? Contact Linda Temple, IC Administrative Assistant 978-462-2724 x7404.

IC St. Vincent de Paul

Ask and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. (Matthew 7)

The Immaculate Conception, Society of St. Vincent DePaul needs your help:

First and foremost, we hope and pray that you and your family are healthy and safe during these challenging times.

Unfortunately, The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Immaculate Conception Conference, has had to cancel two of its major fundraising events (the Walk for the Poor and the New England Tenors Holiday Concert) due to the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic. In lieu of these two events we are reaching out to our parish family and benefactors asking that you consider donating to SVdP. Any amount you can contribute will help us to continue helping the needy in our area.

We have recently launched our new website: www.svdpnewburyport.org where you can make your donation online and we are also sending letters to all previous donors asking for your help at this time.

We continue to serve our weekly meal on Tuesday evenings. It is a hot, nourishing, 3-course dinner which is currently take out only and is distributed at 4:30 p. m. at the entrance to the parish center. All are welcome!

If you know someone living in Newbury/Newburyport who needs assistance, please suggest that they call our help line 978-518-0728. We are still ready to assist.

If you choose to mail in your donation, please make your check payable to "SVdP of Newburyport." You may drop it into the collection box at Mass, or mail it to the parish office at 42 Green Street, Newburyport, MA 01950 or use our Newly established website and donate online at www.svdpnewburyport.org.

Thank you for your generosity and may God bless each of you!
