From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

This past week, I was able to enjoy a week of prayer and reflection with more than 50 of my brother priests from the Boston area and beyond down at the Bethany Retreat Center, run by the Diocese of St. Petersburg, Florida. Sponsored by Bishop Robert Hennessey from our local Merrimack region, the retreat this year featured Sr. Briega McKenna, O.S.C., sometimes known worldwide as "The Healing Nun." An author of multiple books on the power of the Sacraments and God's Healing Presence in our lives, she was a feisty and charming speaker, delivering story after story with her characteristic brogue and enduring wit. That she may have had an encounter with the Blarney Stone along the way was a given!

Among the many topics that she touched on over the course of the week, one of her talks included an exploration of the importance of the connection and unity between one's inner-self and the outer expression of our faith and devotion to God. In other words, the inside ought to match to the outside. It is no good to have an inner love of God if that never gets expressed in how we live our lives, and it is similarly useless to run around with external pious devotions if we never open our hearts to the transforming power of God's love. In all that we do, this connectedness is always implied, but can easily get off-track by the distractions of the world and the habits of sin that get embedded in our lives. True holiness lies in a unity between our inner relationship with God that flows joyfully into our worship and acts of charity.

This coming week we enter into, once again, our holy season of Lent in the Church's year with our celebration of Ash Wednesday. As a reminder that our sins lead only to death, we confront our own mortality and our constant need for repentance and God's forgiveness. As we seek renewal and look to jump-start our own call to holiness of life, paying close attention to Sr. Briega's insight on our need for inner and outer harmony is a great place to start our Lenten journey. It is a sound basis for evaluating what we must do to prepare ourselves for renewing our Baptismal Promises at Easter.

In the days ahead, as we "bury the Alleluia" and embrace our Lenten acts of penance, may we experience the wholeness of minds and hearts renewed in the cleansing power of God's grace.

Prayerfully,
 Fr. Timothy Harrison,
 Pastor

Lenten Guidelines

Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence. Fridays of Lent are also days of abstinence.

Fasting is to be observed by all 18 years of age and older, who have not yet celebrated their 59th birthday. On a fast day, one full meal is allowed. Two other meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including milk and juices, are allowed.

Abstinence is observed by all 14 years of age and older. On days of abstinence, no meat is allowed. Note that when health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige. When in doubt concerning fast and abstinence, the parish priest should be consulted. Fasting, almsgiving, and prayer are the three traditional disciplines of Lent. The faithful and catechumens should undertake these practices seriously in a spirit of penance and of preparation for baptism or of renewal of baptism at Easter.

Mass Scripture Readings

February 23–March 1, 2020

Praying with the Scriptures is an intentional way of deepening our relationship with the Lord. Set aside fifteen minutes each day, in the same place, and at the same time. What do each day's Scripture passages reveal to me about our loving Father, our Lord Jesus, and the Holy Spirit? What do the passages reveal about me? What am I being called upon to do, to be? Please access the HRIC webpage to learn about Lectio Divina as a way of praying the Scriptures www.HRICcatholic.org and click on HRIC Pastoral Plan and then click on Lectio Divina.

- Sunday, Feb 23: Leviticus 19:1-2, 17-18; Psalm 103; 1 Corinthians 3:16-23; Matthew 5:38-48
- Monday, Feb 24: James 3:13-18; Psalm 19; Mark 9:14-29
- Tuesday, Feb 25: James 4:1-10; Psalm 55; Mark 9:30-37
- Wednesday, Feb 26: Joel 2:12-18; Psalm 51; 2 Corinthians 5:20-6:2; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18
- Thursday, Feb 27: Deuteronomy 30:15-20; Psalm 1; Luke 9:22-25
- Friday, Feb 28: Isaiah 58:1-9a; Psalm 51; Matthew 9:14-15
- Saturday, Feb 29: Isaiah 58:9b-14; Psalm 86; Luke 5:27-32
- Sunday, March 1: Genesis 2:7-9; 3:1-7; Psalm 51; Romans 5:12-19; Matthew 4:1-11

Questions of the Week

Adult: Home is where we learn about caring for others not just ourselves. Has there been a time when you learned a lesson about caring for others because of something that happened at home?

Child: What are some things you say or do to show your friends that you care about them? What about the children who are not your friends or that you don't really like?

Women at the Well Catholic Women's Group

Do you ever feel like there must be something more than your day-to-day routine? Looking for a way to connect to other faith-centered women in the midst of a busy work, social or parenting life? Or maybe you're just searching for a new way to regularly meet and connect with Jesus.

Winter Weather Mass Cancellations

Due to the hazards of travel and the safety of priests and parishioners alike, this winter daily Mass within the Collaborative will be cancelled if Immaculate Conception School, Pentucket Regional, or Newburyport Public Schools, are cancelled or delayed because of inclement weather. WBZ Channel 4 will have the updated school cancellation information. It is also available on their website at boston.cbslocal.com and we will make every effort to keep our own website and social media updated as well.

In severe situations, it may also be necessary for safety reasons to cancel weekend Masses. Again, please watch WBZ or consult the websites and/or social media for cancellation information.

Thank you for your patience and understanding. In all things, God gave us the gifts of wisdom, reason, and prudence. Let's use them wisely this winter and exercise sound judgment when considering going out in severe weather.

Cursillo and Ultreya

The Cursillo weekend is an invitation for you to experience the love of Jesus Christ on a personal level and to bring this love into your daily life. Each month, we gather for an "Ultreya" (onward!) evening of Liturgy, sharing, food, and fellowship at 7:00 p.m. in IC St. James Chapel and Charity Dining Room to continue the Cursillo spirit. All are welcome. For more information, contact Dave & Kelly Colby at davecolby724@gmail.com.

Centering Prayer

If you are searching for the peace the world cannot give please consider joining us at Centering Prayer. Silently resting in God we assent to the Holy Spirit's presence and action in our lives. In Centering Prayer we pray as Jesus prayed. He tells us: "When you pray, go into your private room, shut yourself in, and pray to your Father who is in that secret place, and your Father who sees all that is done in secret will reward you" (Matt 6:6).

Please consider leaving the noise of world and the busyness of your day behind for an hour on Wednesday evenings from 6:00-7:00 p.m. in Conference Room 209 of the IC Parish Center. Following Centering Prayer, Lectio Divina enriches and instructs us as we listen to and reflect on the words of scripture.

Contact Elizabeth McCarthy, 978-462-7483 if you are interested in learning more or joining us. All are welcome.

Service Hours Opportunity

Lent is almost here...Looking for service hours?

The Activities Committee is looking for help. We will be setting up Nativity Hall on Saturday, February 29 at 10:30 a.m. Please come help us move tables and chairs, clean the kitchen, set the tables, and get ready for our dinner and BINGO night. We are also looking for help during our parish event serving our ham dinner and, of course, clean up help is needed too!

Contact Cindy Quinn if you are able to volunteer.

HR St. Vincent de Paul

During Lent, there is an emphasis on fasting, prayer, and almsgiving. Please support our SVdP work by taking a mite box and filling it with donations throughout the Lenten season. No donation is too small and all of the money goes directly to support our Merrimac and West Newbury neighbors in need. Boxes are at the rear of both churches.

Saturday Mass at Nativity

Please remember that our Saturday 4:00pm Mass will move to Nativity, Merrimac on February 29.
