Pelican Intervention Fund Plant Sale

My name is Carol Robertson and I am a parishioner at Immaculate Conception. I own and operate a landscaping company, Garden Imprint, in Newburyport.

In 2014, I hired a young college student named Joe as a summer laborer for my business. Many of our first-time laborers have no skills with physical labor; many have never pushed a wheelbarrow or planted a tree or pulled weeds.

Joe was not one of those. He was smart, handsome, and capable. And, clearly, Joe wanted more. He had a terrible disposition; he was too smart for the job, and I used to tease him that I could never get him to smile; he always seemed angry. I thought about myself at his age and thought it must be a phase; what my mother used to call "growing pains."

I remember driving Joe home after work one day. Joe was clearly proud of the beautiful and inviting home his family had created together. As we pulled in, a youngster came running out and excitedly exclaimed "Joe is home!" I thought he would be alright; I was sure he would be alright.

Joe worked for us for two summers while completing his studies at UMass. He graduated in May 2016 and died of a drug overdose in October. At Joe's wake, I learned that he had been through rehab for drug addiction. I could feel the family's painful resignation that he was, at last, at peace. I can't begin to imagine the struggles that beautiful family lived through and continues to feel. Clearly many of our youth are in crisis; nothing in our past experience has provided us with the tools we need to deal with this issue. The Pelican Intervention Fund provides funding and support to local men and women struggling with addiction.

In memory of Joe, and all those affected by this terrible scourge, Garden Imprint will offer summer flowering plants for sale at all the Masses of the HRIC Collaborative the weekend of May 18. Proceeds will go to the Pelican Intervention Fund to continue their efforts with this ongoing crisis.

We look forward to your generosity and your prayerful support. Thank you.

Centering Prayer

Welcome All Members of Our Collaborative Family

Centering Prayer, resting silently in God, facilitates the process of inner transformation. Our prayer without words is one of intention to surrender to God's presence and action in our lives and desire for a closer relationship with God. As God moves us closer to him, through our daily discipline of silent prayer, we find our focus turns from self to God and we are blessed with the fruits of Centering Prayer.

Join us on Wednesdays, 6:00pm–7:00pm, in the IC Conference Room 209. Join us as we pray in this ancient Christian tradition and together deepen our understanding of this prayer in our own spiritual journey. For information please contact Elizabeth McCarthy, 978-462-7483 or visit our website at www.hricatholic.org/Get-Involved.

IC Haiti Collection

On this Mother's Day weekend we would like to wish all mothers and all those who have nurtured a child with a mother's love a blessed day.

The second collection on the weekend of May 25-26 will be a wonderful opportunity for us all to share our love of children by supporting IC Haiti.

It was through our parish's past generous donations that we were able to build our school named in honor, love, and respect of Fr. Marc Piché.

The 215 children who attend our school not only receive a quality education, they also receive a nourishing meal each school day. In Haiti food is scarce and many go to bed hungry. The daily meal enabled by your donation not only feeds the children's bellies it also nourishes their parents' souls.

May God Bless you with continued riches of Faith, Hope, and Love.

Consolers Circle Meal

Immaculate Conception School

Eighth grade students Callie Batchelder and Bridget Underwood, pictured below with Principal Sullivan and 8th grade teacher Judy Doucette, received the Newburyport Human Rights Commission Peace Prize Award on April 24 at City Hall. Callie and Bridget were chosen by the Immaculate Conception School faculty to receive this honor because of the positive way they interact with and impact others within our school family. Congratulations girls, and thank you for all that you have given to our school!

IC St. Vincent de Paul

On Holy Thursday a special collection during Mass was devoted to the needs of the St. Vincent de Paul Society. We are a Catholic society that provides our clients, regardless of faith, with uplifting hope that the Lord is always with them through their difficult times. We then offer assistance in paying outstanding financial challenges. Basic needs of food, shelter, utilities, clothing, and medical are difficult for many of our area residents to manage on meager incomes.

We humbly thank each of you for your support and donation during the blessed season of Easter. Blessings to you. ~The Society of St. Vincent de Paul, Immaculate Conception
