Our Mission

Our mission is to provide pregnant women in need with access to a caring and self-sustaining home environment along with training, employable & entrepreneurial skills.

Our Objectives

- Expand care services to homeless, pregnant women and their children in the Rochester region.
- Connect moms to educational opportunities to enhance their career potential, marketable skills including soft-skills necessary for job or business environments.
- Utilize a program model that conducts experiential job training in partnership with employers to increase skill levels, job readiness and career pathways.
- Provide access to entrepreneurial skills and experiences for moms to know how to thrive and work in small business environments; making them marketable to local small businesses.

Organization Goal

To prepare women to create a stable home environment, pursue a successful career and obtain financial sustainability in a growth industry in the Rochester, NY region

Program Goal

Our program goal is to provide expecting moms with access to a caring home environment along with training, employable & entrepreneurial skills, links to employers and income to sustain their households.
