A note from our Pastor

My dear People,

Monday is Columbus Day. I don't give two and a half hoots what liberal idiots think of that, or of the Great Navigator himself. Christopher Columbus did indeed discover America. He also sought to convert pagan savages to the Faith of Jesus Christ. I am in awe of his Royal Patroness, the sainted Queen Isabella. In normal times, she would be canonized. Not today, of course. These days we honor politicians who denounce the teachings of Our Blessed Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ and who offer worship to little wooden dolls made by pagans in the rain forest.

I recall with amusement the fact that radicals threatened the statue of Christopher Columbus in Columbus Circle in New York City some months ago. Men of Italian descendance stood around the image for days with rifles. That somehow seemed to deter them (all bullies are cowards). I love that. Stand your ground, my friends. Support your holy Religion and don't follow false shepherds.

Happy Columbus Day to you all.

God Bless America.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Ronald A. Antinarelli
