Parish School of Religion (PSR) Notes

Alex Krukonemeyer was in town and spoke to many of the classes about being a first-year seminarian. Kindergarten was busy making books about prayer. First grade learned about being followers of Jesus. Practicing how to receive Eucharist was the focus of Grade 2. St Patrick and Lent were discussed by the 3rd Graders. Grade 4 shared memories of important people in their lives. The 5th Grade read Matthew 5:13–20 and discussed how to be salt and light for Jesus to others. Grade 6 worked on cards for the homeless. The Lenten practices of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving, along with making crosses, made for a busy time in Grade 7. The 8th Grade practiced the Shadow Stations of the Cross.

Question of the Week

Reading: John 4:5-42

Adults: Today Jesus takes the initiative with the woman of Samaria to draw her closer to Himself by accepting her as she is. How will you continue your conversation with Christ in this Lent and be led to a deeper truth so you may more fully encounter Christ?

Children: Jesus wants to give me His “living water”. What do I need to do to be able to “drink” what Jesus wants to give me?
