MISSION STATEMENT

St. George Parish in Waimanalo is a Community of many diverse people joined together to proclaim God's Word in Holy Scripture by celebrating the Liturgy and building a Faith Community. Uniquely embraced by the majestic Koolau and rolling seas we strive to be a Welcoming Parish and commit ourselves to serve the people of God through Outreach, Unity and Renewal.

Watch and pray. The Lord will come when we least expect Him. We must watch and pray not only for His summons to judgment. We must watch and pray that we may realize His presence in our lives here on earth. At every moment He is with us. Let us strive to please Him in everything we think and say and do.

TODAY'S READINGS:

Ist Reading: Wisdom 18: 6-9 - The Old Testament book of Wisdom was written during a time when God's people in Alexandria, Egypt, were distracted by the entertainments and pleasures of life. Wisdom reminds the people that God delivered them out of slavery in Egypt and made them a pilgrim people. God's very own.

2nd Reading: Hebrews 11, 1-2, 8-19 - If heaven is our goal, our lives must be filled with faith. We must have conviction about our purpose in life. Even when we do not understand the events of our lives, we must be a people of absolute fidelity to God, with joyful confidence that He will be faithful to us.

Gospel: Luke 12: 32-48 - If the purpose of our life is union with God, we must live each day for God. We must watch and pray that everything in life is done to please God. We must be ready for eternity at every moment. Whatever is done for a worldly purpose will fade and decay; whatever is done for God will become a treasure in eternity.

Today's Reflection:

Every week at Mass we remind ourselves of the mystery of our faith—that by his death and resurrection Jesus set us free, and he will come again in glory. How do we know this? Could we convince someone this is true? If "true" means factual evidence backed up by science, we won't be able to prove this to anyone. But God gives us a different way of knowing. It comes from the revelation of God in creation, Scripture, and Christ. Our faith, a gift from God, is the ability to recognize the truth of the mysteries we proclaim.

In the reading from Hebrews, the author praises Abraham's faith, which led him to obey the God he did not know and the tradition he handed on. Abraham wasn't worried about proving that God spoke to him; he lived it. In the same way, Jesus calls his disciples to be ready and waiting for the Lord's return. We can't convince everyone that the resurrection and baptism affect salvation, that the consecration is real, or that Jesus will come again. We can, however, point to the life and witness of the Church and show the difference our faith makes in our own lives as we encounter others, work for justice, and spread the gospel. Our obedience, virtue, and good works manifest our faith and reveal the truths entrusted to us. Nowhere is this truer than at the eucharistic table, where we celebrate the mysteries in union with and in joyful expectation of the One who was, who is, and who is to come. + Mary Katharine Deeley

A Word from Pope Francis

The Assumption of Mary is a great mystery which regards each one of us, it regards our future. Mary, in fact, precedes us on the path walked upon by those who, through their baptism, have bound their life to Jesus, as Mary bound her own life to him.

Do you have friends, neighbors, or family members who were baptized but never received the other sacraments, are non-Catholic but are interested in the Church?

If you do, encourage them to attend RCIA. We welcome all to participate in this journey of faith. The RCIA team walks with those who are inquiring as we explore our relationship with God and others, and learn more about the Catholic faith.
