Grab your family and join us for a Catholic movie called PRAY. Sometimes it’s good to be reminded of why we pray together as a family and who best to tell you the reason than the priest who coined the phrase “The Family that Prays Together, Stays Together”, Fr. Patrick Peyton. Do you know that Fr. Peyton got Bing Crosby, James Dean, Lucille Ball, and Frank Sinatra to help him promote family prayer? Come listen to his story and walk away desiring to pray together as a family. There is no charge and all are welcome so bring your family and/or a friend. Popcorn and soda will be provided free of charge at all showings. PRAY: THE STORY OF PATRICK PEYTON will be showing at St. Patrick’s Parish in the Parish Hall Wednesday, July 7 3:00 pm and 6:30 pm and Thursday July 8 9:00 am, 1:30 pm and 6:30 pm

A message from Msgr. Joseph Hirsch, Casa Hogar. A common petition at daily Mass of the children and families is, “We pray for all of the people who help us here at Casa so that we can live the life we have and be safe.” This reality is significant to us during these days of the pandemic. Peru is full of unrest and division as the country decides its future president and hospitals continue to fill. Amid the instability and uncertainty, providing a safe home where the children and staff can grow is more important than ever. Your support helps us offer the anchor of stability and hope for our 72 children, teachers, staff, and families who call Casa their home. Virtual classes occupy most of our daily life here at Casa, where we put to good use every tablet, phone, and computer donated. Mass, Holy Hour, meals, sports, and music fill our days. On the weekends, the children take turns visiting with members of their biological families who visit, all the while maintaining social distance. We are ever grateful for your support. It means so much at any time and even more during these difficult times. Please know that we are praying for you, and May the Lord bless you and your families.
Donations can be sent to: Father Joseph Walijewski Legacy Guild, Attn: Casa Hogar, PO Box 4004, La Crosse, WI 54602-4004

OPENING SONG: Sing Out, Earth and Skies

1. Come, O God of all the earth: come to us, O Righteous One;
Come and bring our love to birth: in the glory of your Son. REFRAIN

REFRAIN: Sing out, earth and skies!
Sing of the God who loves you!
Raise your joyful cries!
Dance to the life around you!

2. Come, O God of wind and flame: fill the earth with righteousness;
Teach us all to sing your name: may our lives your love confess. REFRAIN

PSALM RESPONSE: Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading, pleading for his mercy.
OFFERTORY SONG: Prayer of St. Francis
1. Make me a channel of your peace.
   Where there is hatred, let me bring your love.
   Where there is injury, your pardon Lord.
   And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

2. Make me a channel of your peace.
   Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope.
   Where there is darkness, only light.
   And where there's sadness, ever joy.

O Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled, as to console,
To be understood, as to understand,
To be loved, as to love with all my soul.

3. Make me a channel of your peace.
   It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
   In giving of ourselves that we receive,
   and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

CLOSING SONG: America the Beautiful
1. O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,
   For purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!
   America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
   And crown thy good with brotherhood
   From sea to shining sea.

2. O beautiful for pilgrim feet, whose stern, impassioned stress
   A thoroughfare for freedom beat across the wilderness America! America! God mend thine ev'ry flaw, Confirm thy soul in self control, Thy liberty in law.

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Ezekiel
As the LORD spoke to me, the spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard the one who was speaking say to me: Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, rebels who have rebelled against me; they and their ancestors have revolted against me to this very day. Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you. But you shall say to them: Thus says the LORD GOD! And whether they heed or resist—for they are a rebellious house—they shall know that a prophet has been among them.

A reading from the second Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians Brothers and sisters:
That I, Paul, might not become too elated, because of the abundance of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, an angel of Satan, to beat me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it might leave me, but he said to me, “My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.” I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses, in order that the power of Christ may dwell with me. Therefore, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and constraints, for the sake of Christ; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Jesus departed from there and came to his native place, accompanied by his disciples. When the sabbath came he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astonished. They said, “Where did this man get all this? What kind of wisdom has been given him? What mighty deeds are wrought by his hands! Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? And are not his sisters here with us?” And they took offense at him. Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not without honor except in his native place and among his own kin and in his own house.” So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.
