EASTER SUNDAY

The women who had come from Galilee with Jesus took the spices they had prepared and went to the tomb. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb; but when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. - Lk 24:1b-3

From the Desk Of....

Fr. Kevin Poecking
Pastor

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Happy Easter! Christ is risen, Alleluia! Easter always brings with it great promise and a promise of something very special this year. First, it is our hope in the resurrection. The resurrection of Christ brings with it our hope for the resurrection of our loved ones to eternal life, not to mention for ourselves. Besides the spiritual dimension, Easter always brings with it festive time with family and also chocolates and candy for the younger members of our community. It always arrives with the hope that Spring brings too, with flower blossoms and warmer weather. While the weather we may see on Easter morning this year might be a little cooler than we'd like for mid-April, it's still better than the winter weather of Western Pennsylvania.

This year, Easter brings with it what many of us have been waiting for, for over two years. We are slowly coming out of the darkness of two years of pandemic restrictions. Two years ago, most of us weren't even allowed in church on Easter. Now, it seems that Church attendance is almost back to normal, bursting on Easter! Besides the restrictions, there seemed to be constant arguments over the causes of the pandemic and how to avoid the illness or protect ourselves best. While many of us still mourn the lives of those lost due to COVID, we are no longer living in the same fear that we were one or two years ago. Nevertheless, the fears that it placed on our lives still seem to linger. This lingering sentiment has had some positive effect too, making some more curious about spiritual matters and eternal life.

Over the past few months, I have had several people contact me with similar inquiries. Some have asked about making faith a more important element in their lives and how to go about that. Some have come to confession after two years with a renewed sense of faith, and wanting more to read or learn about their faith. We have four people who are received into the Catholic Church this Easter Vigil, but Ron Donatelli, our RCIA Director, has informed me that more than double that number have inquired recently about next year's RCIA process. That's awesome. In addition to all of that, more and more parishioners are getting involved in our ministries and community activities. It's very exciting to see our parish come back to a fuller life like we remember from pre-COVID times. It's also nice to see so many people from different former parishes continue to work together in our Holy Family Parish.

If you know someone who is looking to get back to a practice of the faith or wanting to get more involved, the best place to start, both to be inspired in faith, and to meet new people, is the Alpha program that our parish is offering. I am inviting you to join this spring's Alpha program, to bring a friend, especially for those who have joined our parish over the past two years and don't know many of us yet. Alpha will remind everyone who participates how much God loves us and wants for each of us to be part of the Christian life. It's not too late to join the Alpha course beginning this Thursday at St. Januarius Church, but we hope to have another program in the fall.

On behalf of Holy Family Parish, I and our clergy team wish you and your families a most beautiful Easter day of resurrection!

In Christ's love,
Father Kevin

Do you like Doughnuts, Coffee, or Juice after Sunday Morning Mass?

Do you like to chat with your church friends? Do you love Jesus?

If you say "yes" for any of these questions, join us for one of our Ministry Fairs listed below and learn the many ways you can serve Jesus and His Church in our area! If you're not able to do more than you already do, then just come and thank those who are serving for their efforts. Spend some time with your friends or make new ones over refreshments! Jesus thanks you for your time and appreciation! Please stop after the Masses listed below. If you don't go to that Mass, but still want to join us, you are welcome to join us about an hour after the times listed below.

SCRIPTURE READINGS FOR EASTER SUNDAY

READING I

ACTS 10:34A, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: "You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM PS 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever. Let the house of Israel say, "His mercy endures forever."

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

"The right hand of the Lord has struck with power; the right hand of the Lord is exalted. I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord."

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone. By the Lord has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes.

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

READING II

COL 3:1-4

Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

ALLELUIA

CF. 1 COR 5:7B-8A

R. Alleluia, Alleluia

Christ, our paschal lamb, has been sacrificed; let us then feast with joy in the Lord.

R. Alleluia, Alleluia

GOSPEL

CF. 1 COR 5:7B-8A

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him." So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

La Experiencia Pascual (segunda parte)

Estas certezas fundamentales de nuestra fe, nos las transmiten los Evangelios pensando en hermanos y hermanas que vivían un tiempo de martirio y crucifixión, intentando fortalecer la esperanza y la resistencia ante la injusticia. Pero llegan también a nosotros hoy, iluminando nuestra propia realidad de crucifixión, fortaleciendo nuestra esperanza y resistencia, y animándonos a seguir a Jesús.

Si Jesucristo no ha resucitado ¿qué Buena Noticia podríamos comunicar? Toda nuestra fe quedaría vacía de sentido. No tendríamos ninguna esperanza verdaderamente definitiva para aportar a la humanidad. Solo la resurrección de Jesús fundamenta y da sentido a nuestras propias cruces, a nuestra fe, misión y lucha por un mañana plenamente humano, feliz y trascendente. El crucificado que ha resucitado es la razón de nuestra esperanza.

La resurrección no es una realidad reservada únicamente para después de la muerte. Si bien la resurrección de Jesús es la garantía de la vida plena después de la muerte, allá, en ese momento, sólo Dios dirá, él será el protagonista. Mientras tanto, en el aquí y en el ahora, los protagonistas somos nosotros, pues la resurrección es garantía y esperanza, pero viviendo como Jesús. Lo importante es vivir ya desde ahora como Jesús muerto y resucitado (Col 3, 1-4; Rom 6, 4-5).

Dios al resucitar a Jesús triunfó sobre la injusticia que le causó la muerte. La utopía de Jesús sigue vigente. La vida plena es posible. La vida vencerá a la muerte, esa es nuestra convicción y el motor de la misión. Jesús también hoy nos dice "... vayan y hagan discípulos a todas las naciones... estaré con ustedes hasta el fin de los tiempos" (Mt 28, 19-20).

2. Reflexión desde la Palabra de Dios y desde Aparecida

a.- La experiencia del Resucitado: Jesucristo, con su muerte y resurrección, inaugura en medio de nosotros el Reino de vida del Padre, que alcanzará su plenitud allí donde no habrá más "muerte, ni luto, ni llanto, ni dolor, porque todo lo antiguo ha desaparecido (Ap 21, 4). El misterio pascual de Jesús es el acto de obediencia y amor al Padre y de entrega por todos sus hermanos, mediante el cual el Mesías dona plenamente aquella vida que ofrecía en caminos y aldeas de Palestina; es decir, pone su vida ofrecida en manos del Padre (Lc 23, 46), quien lo hace salvación "para nosotros".

HOLY FAMILY UPDATES

Deacon Aspirancy Program

Congratulations to (John) Chris O'Malley, from our Holy Family Parish, who was accepted into the aspirancy phase of the diocesan Deacon Formation Program. At the same time, Pedro Olivera, from Christ the Divine Shepherd Parish (and involved in some ministries at Holy Family Parish), was also accepted to the aspirancy phase of the Deacon Formation Program. Congratulations to Chris and Pedro on the beginning steps to ordained service!

SITUATION IN UKRAINE

Holy Family Parish has collected $21,010.00 so far for humanitarian relief efforts in Ukraine and the surrounding countries taking in refugees. The Parish Social Ministry is adding $10,000 to this amount for a total of $31,010.00.

Thank you for your generosity for our Ukrainian brothers and sisters in their time of need.

New AmazonSmile Beneficiary Name

AmazonSmile is a program of Amazon that helps fund charities. Holy Family Parish Charitable Trust is now established on AmazonSmile as a charity that you can support. To direct all of your Amazon purchases to support Holy Family Parish, simply go to Smile.Amazon.com and search for Holy Family Parish Charitable Trust Pittsburgh. It has the same products as Amazon.com and works with your same Amazon account username and password. There are other Holy Family Parishes in Pittsburgh and other ones (non-Catholic) in Smile, so below are the details to look for when selecting our parish. If you don't currently have an account on AmazonSmile, please consider adding Holy Family as a beneficiary. This program doesn't cost you anything, but it benefits our church and school with .5% of your purchases anytime you make a purchase. The parish shares funds raised with Holy Family School. Thanks to everyone who participates!

Previously, only St. John the Baptist Parish (of our former parishes) had an account on AmazonSmile. Amazon can't change your charity to Holy Family. So if you previously had your charity selected as St. John the Baptist Parish, please change to Holy Family Parish to ensure Amazon Smile funds are directed appropriately.

Name: Holy Family Parish Charitable Trust (Roman Catholic) Location: Pittsburgh, PA Programs: Holy Family School
Mission: Holy Family Parish, established in a time of change, is called by the Father and empowered by the Holy Spirit. We seek to bridge established Catholics together with those who are new and young to the faith by: sharing the Eucharist, teaching God's Word, inspiring service to others, and building a dynamic faith community. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, Pray for us!

LOW GLUTEN HOSTS

We welcome any Catholic at any of the Holy Family churches who is gluten intolerant to receive special hosts at Mass. Anyone wanting to receive a low gluten host (very low gluten) is welcome to learn how to receive in each church by contacting the priest or sacristan. He/she would simply find their hosts in the sacristy before Mass in the mini-refrigerator and place in a pyx and set on the tray or the chalice top so that they are consecrated by the priest during Mass. The priest or another minister who stands where the priest usually stands will then distribute them when coming forward for Holy Communion.

The pyx is labeled "Low Gluten" with a red cover at each church in our grouping. The pyx should be stored in the mini-fridge in each sacristy where the low gluten hosts are stored when not in use at Mass. If you go to the fridge to get the pyx and it is missing, then it is likely already out for someone else who is receiving LG-Hosts.

La resurrección de Jesucristo es el pilar fundamental de nuestra fe. Si no hubiera resucitado, sus amigos lo hubieran llorado y recordado por un poco de tiempo y luego lo hubieran olvidado. El "hermano" de Jesús (Jn 20, 17) participa de la vida del Resucitado, Hijo del Padre celestial, por lo que Jesús y su discípulo comparten la misma vida que viene del Padre, aunque Jesús por naturaleza (Jn 5, 26; 10, 30) y el discípulo por participación (Jn 10, 10) (DA 132).

El Resucitado no se apareció a los fariseos ni al Sanedrín, o en el templo, para demostrar al mundo entero que está vivo y que ha vencido la muerte, sino que se apareció a los suyos; solo ellos y, su testimonio, son la prueba de que Jesús ha resucitado.

Por el misterio pascual, el Padre sella la nueva alianza y genera un nuevo pueblo, que tiene por fundamento su amor gratuito de Padre que salva (DA 143); sin embargo, hay cristianos que aceptan la resurrección pero se olvidan que el camino para llegar a ella es la cruz, el servicio, la donación de la propia vida. Muchos quisiéramos un cristianismo que no nos exija la entrega cotidiana de la vida.
