THE GOOD SAMARITAN, AN ICON TO FOLLOW:

The parable of the Good Samaritan is one of the best known of all the parables and has inspired many ministries and charitable outreaches. In the parable of the Good Samaritan, our Lord gives us a practical teaching for living one's Faith with compassion and mercy. Jesus taught that the first commandment is to love God with all one's heart, soul, strength and mind. He also taught that the second commandment is to love one's neighbor as oneself [see Lk. 10:25-27].

The parable of the Good Samaritan is the answer to the scribe's question, "And who is my neighbor?" Recall that the Samaritan went out of his way to assist an innocent man who had fallen in with robbers. He gives us a timeless example of selfless outreach. Jesus noted that the Samaritan traveler was moved by compassion to help the wounded man. He then told the crowd and He tells us through Scripture, "Go and do likewise." [Luke 10:37] Our parish, like many other parishes and agencies, receives many calls for assistance. We strive to attend to the needy with our limited resources. It is of spiritual benefit to reflect on our call to charity. There is always something else we can do, personally and parochially. St. Vincent de Paul once taught, "That extra coat hanging in your closet belongs to the poor." This year, our parishioners have made donations that have benefited various local and international charities. A good portion of the Diocesan Support Appeal is for charitable outreaches through Catholic Charities. Every year, the tithing committee makes recommendations for parish donations to numerous local charities. In this anniversary year, we have supported such good works as Rise against Hunger, Mooresville Christian Mission, Feed NC, MiraVia Maternity Home and the Community Pregnancy Center of Lake Norman. Our parishioners also regularly donate and distribute food for the needy.

Charity is, of course, a Gospel mandate and a fruit of the Holy Eucharist. For the benefit of all of our parishioners and guests, I list below the Corporal Works of Mercy. The Seven Corporal Works of Mercy: 1. Feeding the hungry; 2. Giving drink to the thirsty; 3. Clothing the naked; 4. Visiting prisoners; 5. Giving shelter to the homeless; 6. Visiting the sick; 7. Burying the dead

We believe that Jesus Christ, through His perfect sacrifice on the cross, paid the debt for human sin and reconciled humanity to the Father. Through His resurrection, He opened for us the path to eternal life. We are not earning Heaven through works of mercy, but we are responding positively to the grace of God. Our life of grace began at the time of our baptism. Together, let us strive for holiness and virtue.

In peace,

Fr. Mark

Facilities and Site Plan Update Meeting Tuesday, November 16 (7:00pm in the Family Room)

This will be an open meeting to bring those interested up-to-date on our pastoral plan and on our future goals. We had a similar meeting two years ago. Since then, we had a distraction with the proposed development on Sunfish Dr., which would have affected our property, and, of course, the disruption caused by the pandemic. Attending parishioners will have the opportunity to express their comments on the various topics as we strive to set priorities for the future. All those interested are invited to attend.

EL BUEN SAMARITANO, UN ÍCONO A SEGUIR:

La parábola del buen samaritano es una de las más conocidas de todas las parábolas y ha inspirado a muchos ministerios y organizaciones benéficas. En la parábola del buen samaritano, nuestro Señor nos da una enseñanza práctica para vivir la fe con compasión y misericordia. Jesús enseñó que el primer mandamiento es amar a Dios con todo el corazón, alma, fuerza y mente. También enseñó que el segundo mandamiento es amar al prójimo como a uno mismo [ver Lc. 10: 25-27]. La parábola del buen samaritano es la respuesta a la pregunta: "¿Y quién es mi vecino?" Recuerda que el samaritano hizo todo lo posible para ayudar a un hombre inocente que había caído con ladrones. Él nos da un ejemplo atemporal de caridad. Jesús notó que el viajero samaritano fue movido por la compasión para ayudar al hombre herido. Luego le dijo a la multitud y nos dijo a través de las Escrituras: "Ve y haz lo mismo". [Lucas 10:37]

Nuestra parroquia, como muchas otras parroquias y agencias, recibe muchas llamadas de asistencia. Nos esforzamos por atender a los necesitados con nuestros recursos limitados. Es de beneficio espiritual reflexionar sobre nuestro llamado a la caridad. Siempre hay algo más que podemos hacer, personal y parroquialmente. San Vicente de Paúl enseñó una vez: "Ese abrigo extra que cuelga de su armario pertenece a los pobres". Este año, nuestros feligreses han hecho donaciones que han beneficiado a varias organizaciones benéficas locales e internacionales. Una buena parte de la Colecta de Apoyo Diocesano es para obras de caridad a través de Caridades Católicas. Cada año, el comité de diezmo hace recomendaciones para donaciones de la parroquia a numerosas organizaciones benéficas locales, incluyendo Rise Against Hunger, Misión Cristiana Mooresville, Hogar de maternidad MiraVia y el Centro de Atención al Embarazo. Nuestros feligreses también donan y distribuyen regularmente alimentos para los necesitados.

La caridad es, por supuesto, un mandato del Evangelio y un fruto de la Sagrada Eucaristía. Para el beneficio de todos nuestros feligreses e invitados, a continuación se enumeran las Obras Corporales de la Misericordia. Las siete obras corporales de la misericordia: 1. Alimentar a los hambrientos; 2. Dar de beber al sediento; 3. Vestir a los desnudos; 4. Visitar a los prisioneros; 5. Dar refugio a las personas sin hogar; 6. Visitar a los enfermos; 7. Enterrar a los muertos. Creemos que Jesucristo, a través de su sacrificio perfecto en la cruz, pagó la deuda por el pecado humano y nos reconcilió con el Padre. A través de Su resurrección, Él nos abrió el camino a la vida eterna. No estamos ganando el cielo a través de las obras de misericordia, pero estamos respondiendo positivamente a la gracia de Dios. Nuestra vida de gracia comenzó en el momento de nuestro bautismo. Juntos, luchemos por la santidad y la virtud.

Suyo en paz,

Padre Marcos

Reunión de actualización del plan de instalaciones y emplazamiento Martes, 16 de noviembre (7:00pm en el Salón Familiar)

Esta será una reunión abierta a todas las personas interesadas en recibir una actualización acerca de nuestro plan pastoral y nuestros objetivos futuros. Tuvimos una reunión similar hace dos años. Desde entonces, hemos tenido una distracción con el proyecto de urbanización en Sunfish Dr., que habría afectado a nuestra propiedad, y, por supuesto, el trastorno causado por la pandemia. Los feligreses que asistan tendrán la oportunidad de expresar sus comentarios sobre los diversos temas mientras nos esforzamos por establecer prioridades para el futuro. Todos están invitados a asistir.

Ignatian Corner

Christian Life Community
By Diane Schefers

Last week we wrote about the Christian Life Community movement to organize small groups who companion each other in this life to reach the eternal joy promised by God. This week, one of the members writes about what being part of a CLC means to her.

I found a new home when I moved to Mooresville seven years ago. I am not talking about the home that I reside in but my home in St. Therese Parish.

Here is where I first learned about Ignatian Spirituality. According to Loyola Press, "Finding God in all things is at the core of Ignatian Spirituality and is rooted in our growing awareness that God can be found in every one, in every place and in everything." I also learned that Saint Ignatius wanted us to develop a personal relationship with Christ and to be contemplatives in action, which is to get out in the world and be of service to others. Father Dominic also introduced to me the Christian Life Communities (CLC) program.

Christian Life Community (CLC) is an international association of Christian laity—men and women—who have adopted an Ignatian model of spiritual life. CLC members are encouraged to live a lifestyle which is gospel-based, to serve the poor and to integrate contemplation and action.

Currently, I am a member of one of our Christian Life Community groups and a member of the Ignatian Team. Ignatian Spirituality has helped me to grow so much closer to Christ.

I certainly have developed that personal relationship and I treasure it each day.

Please consider contacting the Ignatian Team for more information.

For more information about CLC contact Nora Paffrath norapaffrath@icloud.com

*"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory."
(Mark 13:26)*

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, "What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?" How will you respond?

The good news – it's never too late to live and grateful and generous lifestyle.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT WORKING ON THE MARGINS

Second Collection next weekend (November 21)

Next weekend, our Second Collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development.

More than thirty-eight million people in the United States live in poverty. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) allocates funds to community projects that promote the mission and vision of CCHD while adhering to the moral and social teachings of the Catholic Church.

With your help, the CCHD is able to support programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face as they work to bring permanent and positive change to their communities.

- LEARN about those living in poverty.
- ACT and spread the word about poverty.
- CONNECT with the work of CCHD by supporting the Second Collection, next weekend.
- PRAY for those who benefit from this collection.

Learn more about the Catholic Campaign for Human Development at: usccb.org/cchd where you can view funding criteria, detailed lists of their most recent grants, as well as their annual report.
