Third Sunday of Easter

FULFILLMENT

It is interesting that during the Easter season, when we do not hear a reading from the Old Testament, it becomes so important. This is particularly true today. Peter's speech begins with a prayer formula familiar to Jews: "The God of Abraham . . ." (Acts 3:13). It likewise contains the potent phrases "Holy and Righteous One" and "mouth of all the prophets" (3:14, 18). Peter was stating in no uncertain terms that the law, psalms, and prophets had been fulfilled in Christ. This is reinforced by Jesus himself in the Gospel passage, when he states that everything in the scriptures (to the early Christians "the scriptures" were what we call the Old Testament) had to be fulfilled. Above all, Jesus and Peter both emphasize that we are witnesses to all of this, and are sent forth to bear witness to it in the world. The Latin Missa, from which our word "Mass" comes, means "sent" (as in "mission"). As we leave Mass today, let us remember to be witnesses to all that has been fulfilled in the risen Christ.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The author of life you put to death, but God raised him from the dead (Acts 3:13-15, 17-19).

Psalm — Lord, let your face shine on us (Psalm 4).

Second Reading — We have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one (1 John 2:1-5a).

Gospel — Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day (Luke 24:35-48).

April 18, 2021-Third Sunday of Easter

Dear Sisters and Brothers of Saint Therese Parish,

In recent weeks I have had the wonderful opportunity of visiting some of our “long time” parishioners in their homes. All of them are somewhere in their 90’s, home bound either because of the danger of Covid or just because getting around isn’t so easy anymore. Now that both they and I have been fully vaccinated it felt safe to offer them the sacramental “works” - confession, Communion and the Anointing of the Sick. “You’re good to go” drew some laughs at the moment; the truth is that the fidelity of their lives through many a hardship was testimony to how a solid faith can see us through many a trying time.

I loved listening to their stories. Every visit lasted at least an hour and for once, I wasn’t the one doing the talking. I heard about kids and grandkids, how they arrived in Montauk, when they met their spouses, the deaths they still mourned, the occupations they had, how some things have changed and others haven’t, and just a little bit of juicy gossip. And of course about the parish, and the building of the church, and some of the priests who have been stationed here. I also received some of the same good advice from more than a few about how to be a pastor in Montauk: “Just don’t try too hard. It takes a long time for people here to warm up to a new priest.” Message delivered. When I was a newly elected and too young Provincial of the Passionists, I drove up to Boston to visit with a then very old former Provincial. He poured us both a scotch at 10:30 in the morning while I asked his advice. I thought it would be something spiritual. He said: “Don’t try to make the guys happier than they really want to be.” Same message.

It seems to be the message of Easter too. The post-Resurrection Gospel passages are full of the disciples being afraid, locked up, doubtful, guilt-ridden, despondent. They had denied, run away, misunderstood. But they will be the ones to found the church. And Jesus assures them that He will be with them...that the community of believers, weak as we are in any generation, will be known by their love for one another. Don’t try too hard...otherwise it’s all about you. The Spirit will tell you all you need to know. I guess we could say that of any family, any relationship, any parish.

I’m sure there are many more stories to hear in this place we call Montauk. And much wisdom.

Blessings and peace,
Father Bob, C.P.

Children Celebrate!

Liturgy of the Word with Children

Today's Readings

Acts 3:13–15, 17–19
Psalm 4:1ab & 1ef, 3, 6cd–7a
Luke 24:35–48

We Pray

Lord, thank you for your gift of peace. May we always remember that you are with us. Amen.

The Word of God This Week

The Risen Jesus Appears to the Disciples

Even though Jesus greeted his disciples by wishing them peace, they were terrified. They thought they were seeing a ghost! Jesus said, "Go ahead and touch my hands and feet. Ghosts don't have flesh and bones." Then he ate a piece of baked fish to show he was alive. He explained how he had fulfilled everything written about him in the Law of Moses, by the prophets, and in the psalms. Then he said, "Go tell all people what I have taught you."

Visit pflaum.com/spring2021YearB for this week's Gospel Reflection, Saint Spotlight, and more.

Activity

Jesus told us that sometimes we get separated from him. In the space below, draw some ways you can connect to Jesus. Color in the vine when you are done.

Family Corner

Faith Focus

Jesus speaks about being connected to the vine and bearing fruit. He also refers to problems encountered when a branch is separated from the vine. Our actions can disconnect us from him and from one another. Vines and flowers need to be tended to thrive. So do families. Sometimes we let the weeds of hurt take root and grow. In some cases this even causes a family member to separate from the rest of the family.

Family Activity

Plan a family reconciliation service:

- Give slips of paper to each family member. Everyone should note what might be happening in the family that causes anger or hurt.
- Gather around a lit candle, and pray an Our Father together.
- As each note is read, share ideas about how to help this situation. Make sure the discussion stays positive and is not an attack.
- Pray an Act of Contrition together.

Canceling Worship Persists in Europe & Canada

(A Harbinger for Further

Restrictions in America?)

As the world continues to confront coronavirus, many leaders have paused the reopening of their countries, announcing new constraints on travel, gatherings, churches, synagogues, and mosques.

Ireland: "This Cabinet will go down in history as the most anti-Christian Government of all time ... to think people will be persecuted for going to Mass or having public worship," said a minister of the Irish Parliament. "140 people or more were in this room today voting on legislation. There's churches in this country bigger than this and yet you allow only 10 people in!," said another minister.<sup>(1)</sup>

Scotland: A group of 27 church leaders argued the Scottish government acted beyond their emergency powers. Judge Lord Braid said the Scottish regulations disproportionately interfered with the freedom of religion. "I have not decided that all churches must immediately open... All I have decided is that the regulations ... went further than they were lawfully able to do."<sup>(2)</sup> Rev. Dr. William Philip said that the Scottish Ministers, "approach to banning and criminalizing gathered church worship was clearly an over-reach..."<sup>(3)</sup>

France was still under curfew in March and entered its third national lockdown on April 3, the day before Easter.

Germany is also still on lockdown with some relaxation promised at 7-day intervals for shops and service providers but no word yet of relaxation for churches.

Vatican Congregation for Divine Worship issued guidelines for Holy Week, calling for return to "normal experience of Christian life through the physical presence of the faithful at Mass."<sup>(4)</sup>

Cont'd

Canada: GraceLife Church was "physically closed" by Alberta Health Services when authorities surrounded it with a chain link fence and blocked the entrance to the parking lot with police vehicles. The pastor, James Coates, resumed preaching on March 28, after being jailed for 35 days in February and fined $1500, charged with violating health orders when he exercised his civil liberties by holding in-person services with the appropriate caution. "Now they've chained the doors of the church, enclosing it in chain link fence," said the pastor's wife. "This is all under the guise of a health order ... I pray for all the pastors and Christians that still think this is about a virus and health order. Clearly our Charter and criminal code mean nothing as long as the government can come up with a good enough story to disregard it. God have mercy on our nation."<sup>(5)</sup>
