Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations
please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.

For more information about this opportunity,
please contact the Parish Office at 631-668-2200.

VOCATION

Roman Catholics in the United States spend a good deal of time speaking of “vocation” and the manner in which each of us discerns our vocation for life. In today’s apostolic letter, however, Peter gives us the “cornerstone” of our vocation, the description of what each of us is called to first and foremost by our baptism. He describes our vocation as “a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of [God’s] own, so that you may announce the praises” of Christ, who called us out of darkness into light (1 Peter 2:9). All of us, no matter what path our life’s vocation may take us down, have been chosen by God, made holy, and anointed as priests in the high priesthood of Christ through baptism. All of this, so that we may announce the praises of Christ. Vocation is given for proclamation at home, in the workplace—wherever life takes us—in service, in word, and in sacrament.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — To meet their growing needs, the community chooses seven reputable men to serve the new Greek believers (Acts 6:1-7).

Psalm — Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you (Psalm 33).

May 10, 2020-Fifth Sunday of Easter (Mother's Day)

What's new from the Desk of the Religious Education office...

Dear families,

I certainly hope this note finds you well!

With the abrupt ending to our faith formation classes due to the pandemic, not only did we lose the opportunity to come together as a group and have a fun celebration to mark the end of another year, we were also forced to forgo a performance of the Passion by our 6th grade class to celebrate Easter. Next year for sure! Thank you to all of you who completed the online lessons at home these past few weeks, especially important during this most beautiful celebration of our liturgical calendar.

Regrettably, First Holy Communion has been postponed. As we continue to comply with NYS and CDC guidelines, we remain hopeful that in the coming weeks we will have the ability to move forward and set a date for sometime in the Fall, assuming the children are well prepared. Confirmation will likely be celebrated next Spring. Be assured however that our Confirmation candidates and families will be notified as soon as we receive a date from the bishop's office.

In the meanwhile folks, during this time of virtual learning and participating in the mass from our living rooms rather than from the pews, please consider availing of the numerous resources offered online; resources which not only encourage us as parents to continue practicing our faith but also encourage us to set the example for our children.

A couple of sites are mentioned below:

Formed.org. is an online platform that allows access to our Catholic faith on demand through hundreds of quality movies, audios, e-books and webinars for all ages (particularly nice for young children are the Brother Francis movies. Your child is sure to love them!!). A seven day free trial is available.

Wordonfire.org with Bishop Barron and several evangelists from around the world, also encourages spiritual and intellectual formation through a huge selection of the above, including daily mass. A seven day free trial is also available.

Ascensionpress.org is a wonderful resource for parents and middle school aged children and older, also offering all of the above. No fee at this time.

Pflaumweeklies.com offers a variety of resources for parents and children of all ages, from preschool to high school including gospel readings with related activities, seasonal activities, information on many of the saints, videos, music and much more. For full access, register for free with user id# 1134242.

Finally, a huge 'thank you' goes out to our catechists and hall monitors for whom we are most grateful. Without them, there would be no program. Each and every one of them give their all to this program. Their dedication and their desire to share with the children, their faith and love for God is very much appreciated. Hats off to all of them!

So stay safe and be well all, and please note that any updates will be posted here on the website and emailed also to registered families.

Enjoy and God bless!

Louise Carman, director.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion www.cffor.org

Religious Liberty or Religious Oppression: A Time to Choose (Part 2)

Some faith leaders around the country have persisted in holding in-person services - a matter of religious freedom - despite state and local limits on public gatherings. These gatherings are usually held in the church parking lot as parishioners remain safely in their cars. However, both parishioners and pastors have been arrested and fined. "Instead of using a scalpel to address this, they're using a chainsaw," said Liberty Counsel.<sup>(1)</sup>

In mid-April, Attorney General Barr said the government "may not impose special restrictions on religious activity that do not also apply to non-religious activity."<sup>(2)</sup> Therefore, if the government allows assembly in comparable places (grocery stores) "even in times of emergency, when reasonable and temporary restrictions are placed on rights, the First Amendment and federal statutory law prohibit discrimination against religious institutions and religious believers."<sup>(3)</sup>

"Religious freedom in America is not simply a fundamental right but a foundational one," wrote KrisAnne Hall, JD, Constitutional attorney. "The settlements of the first American colonies were established in the flight from oppressive religious persecution. Christian martyrs and patriots secured our God-given right to Freedom of Religion with their suffering and even with their lives."<sup>(4)</sup>

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights..." (The Declaration of Independence, July 4, 1776)

Cont'd

By what authority does the government declare the church non-essential? "The church is a place where people turn for help and for comfort in a climate of fear and uncertainty." For almost two millennia, "the church has been viewed by Western civilization as an essential part of society, a refuge in time of trouble or need, a place of peace and a sanctuary ...," KrisAnne Hall wrote.<sup>(5)</sup>

May 10, 2020-Fifth Sunday of Easter (Mother's Day)

Letter to St. Therese Parishioners on the Fifth Sunday of Easter 2020

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Our Lord Jesus Christ said, “I am the way the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me” (John 14:6). Jesus is our Lord and Savior, He is the only way to heaven – it is the message for the Fifth Sunday of Easter. This Sunday Jesus calls to trust and to follow Him unreservedly. His message seems to be very relevant amidst so many doubts and uncertainties that many of us experience in the current situation. Yes, brothers and sisters, faith in Jesus brings us comfort and peace of mind and heart. Through faith we know that ultimately our true life—life to the fullness—is possible only in Christ. Although we may have doubts and seek for proofs like the apostle Thomas, who asked Jesus to show us the way, yet when we believe in Jesus our fears and anxieties are cast away. Thanks to doubting Thomas we have Jesus’ response reassuring us of God’s care and presence. So let us pray fervently that our hearts may not be troubled as we put our trust in the Loving Lord and Savior.

As for the parish life, recently I started televising Sunday Holy Mass on YouTube channel. Please check the parish website for the link. Also, with the parish staff we have started St. Therese’s Facebook page so that we may communicate more effectively current status and events pertaining to parish and diocesan life.

The church building has been open for individual prayer all the way through the quarantine and many of you frequently visited Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. It is really great sign of your faith and dedication. We encourage you to make visits to our church. In the church you may see some flowers around the altar and the statutes of the Blessed Mother and St. Therese. Perhaps they are not as lavish as in previous years during Easter time, nonetheless, most of them are donations of private persons, for which we are very thankful.

Please do not forget about supporting your church, since without you we cannot run parish programs as well as to pay the bills. In the next letter I will let you know more about small parish projects we are trying to accomplish while wisely using time and resources.

To all the mothers Happy Mother’s Day and God bless you all.

Fr. Janusz Mocarski, Administrator
