CATHOLIC ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS COLLECTION 2021

The annual collection for Catholic elementary schools is May 1/2. This is an opportunity for parishioners to support the important work of their parish and regional schools as well as the mission of Tomorrow's Hope Foundation to ensure the excellence as well as the continuance of Catholic Schools on Long Island by increasing awareness and by providing scholarship and program funding for the needs of students and schools.

Support from non-school parishes, as well as half of the support from parish and regional school supporting parishes is provided to Tomorrow's Hope Foundation to support scholarships. The remaining half of the money collected in parishes with schools, and parishes that support regional schools, stays with the school.

Thank you.

Just a Reminder!

Daily Mass will be at 8:30 AM Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. There will be no morning Mass on Mondays.

Mother's Day Plant Sale!

Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations
please contact our office. 668-2200 Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.
For more information about this opportunity,
please contact the Parish Office at 631-668-

BEARING FRUIT

Few of us, even when we meditate on the image of the vine and branches, stop to really think about how God “prunes” us. For some there is the danger of thinking that we are already producing fruit for the kingdom, in deed and truth as John says, perhaps raising a family, being active in our parish, and so on. But even those branches which are bearing fruit, the Gospel tells us, can be pruned to produce still more. Today Saul, freshly “pruned” by his conversion, arrives in Jerusalem and meets resistance. Since he had been persecuting Christians, this was only natural. But even after he is accepted and begins to bear fruit, he meets further adversity, and his letters are filled with many accounts of how his trials “pruned” him to produce greater fruit for the kingdom. Like him, as long as we remain in Christ we will continue to bear fruit and, when the will of the Father determines it is time to prune us, the strength of the true vine must enable us to endure it. May 2, 2021-Fifth Sunday of Easter

Dear Sisters and Brothers of Saint Therese Parish,

Well here it is May and the very beginnings of the summer season. I have never lived through a summer season in Montauk but I would imagine it is quite something. The beauty of the waters and the influx of people are certainly signs of life. Everything is budding and beginning to bloom; parishioners are returning; businesses are opening; workers here say they are very busy with building, renovation, landscaping. And folks are slowly coming back to church, both regulars and visitors. After a year such as we have had, it is good to feel some sense of “normal” while keeping each other safe; a chance for renewal as we re-gather.

There are certainly signs of life here at Saint Therese as we enter this beautiful month of May. On the very first day of the month we have First Communions! We’ll post the pictures. Do you remember how excited you were on the day of your First Communion? And your proud parents and grandparents? These children are well prepared and I hope will always know how very much they are loved by the Jesus they are receiving. It is always so heartening to see families come to Mass and Communion together. At one time or another in most of our lives we do find that faith, family and friendship are what will most sustain us.

And the month of May brings us weddings and wedding anniversaries, a Baptism, ordination anniversary, and those special devotions to the Blessed Mother as this month is dedicated to her throughout the Church. And the beginning of the “blessing of boards” which I believe Father Tom Murray initiated for those surfers and others who will be enjoying the ocean waves this summer. Beginning this weekend we will be blessings surf and other boards outside the church right after the two Sunday Masses.

I’m coming up on being forty-four years a priest and in my ministry I’ve seen it over and over - that God gives us seasons of grace in our lives because He wants to do something special in us. And sometimes all we really need to do is show up, let go of the control, and let God do in us what God desires to do in us. Who knows? Maybe this is that season for you, and me. Sometimes a parishioner, or visitor, or someone who has been away for a long time, will just feel drawn to come into the church for a visit...and feel deep within the movement of God. They didn’t expect it when they came out here and Montauk winds up being a place of profound grace for them. So let’s be open, both to how God might work in us this summer or in someone whom we welcome to our beautiful parish.

I’ll leave you with words from Pope Francis that I read early this morning: “The parish is not an outdated institution . Precisely because it possesses great flexibility it can assume quite different contours, depending on the openness and missionary creativity of the pastor and the community.”

Blessings and peace,
Father Bob, C.P.

What's new from the desk of the Religious Education office...

Today, as we celebrate one of the biggest celebrations for a Catholic family, the first time a child will become one with Jesus as they receive Holy Communion, is perhaps an occasion we can all reflect on...

What a very special and unique celebration it truly is! When we come together in communion to celebrate the Eucharist, we receive the Living Jesus - His body, blood, soul and divinity. As the source and summit of our lives, this real and living presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is at the very heart of who we are as Catholic Christians, and so, although as human beings it can certainly be very difficult at times for all of us, we are encouraged to strive to keep God at the center of everything we do in our day-to-day lives.

We pray that over time these children today (and all of us) will develop a deep and meaningful relationship with Jesus - a relationship that please God, will continue to grow deeper in love throughout their lifetime. After all it is our faith that will always carry us through no matter what is happening in our lives. As we all know however, any loving relationship does not happen overnight. Time and perseverance, along with a lot of patience and effort are all necessary in order to really get to know someone, Jesus included! And so, learning about Jesus, although wonderful and very important in itself, is not enough! We need to also spend time with Him. This we do through prayer, our encounters with others as we live our daily lives, and through the celebration of the Sacraments.

Congratulations kids!! Have a wonderful celebration today with your families and many blessings to you all on this very special occasion. See you next time at Mass!

Some With Courage Are Defending Religious Freedom...Continued

The U.S. Supreme Court ruled in favor of former Georgia college student, Chile Uzuegbunam, who was prevented from expressing religious views in a free-speech zone on campus. In an 8-1 decision, Justice Clarence Thomas wrote that the student "experienced a complete violation of his constitutional rights when respondents enforced their speech policies against him."(1) The student wanted to speak with interested students about his faith but was silenced by a security officer until he obtained a special permit for a "designated speech area." "When Uzuegbunam reserved a zone and again tried to share his faith, officials ordered him to stop because someone complained," said his Alliance Defending Freedom(ADF) attorney.(2)

"Groups representing diverse ideological viewpoints (atheist, Jewish, Catholic & Muslim) supported our client because the threat to our constitutionally protected freedoms doesn't stop with free speech rights or a college campus," said Kristen Waggoner, ADF attorney.(3)

Hundreds of Canadian Christians gathered at the GraceLife Church in Edmonton, Alberta on Sunday, April 11, to protest and tear down a chain link fence that government officials erected to prevent worshipping. Alberta Health Services(AHS) had closed the building and access roads were closed by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. AHS said the church would remain closed until they "can demonstrate the ability to comply with Alberta's chief medical officer of health restrictions."(4) In February, Pastor James Coates was charged with breaching COVID health guidelines that limited services to 15% of capacity and not enforcing masks and distancing regulations. He spent 35 days in custody and paid a fine.

The worshippers peacefully gathered to sing hymns and listen to Bible readings outside, but the crowd grew, and some started to remove the fence. Riot police dispersed the crowd. "I'm very disappointed to see this kind of draconian and aggressive enforcement of health orders ... It shows a very aggressive government that is not answering questions about its policies, but wants to push its weight around and try to make an example of GraceLife Church," said a JCCF attorney.(5)

The Indiana legislature sent a bill to Gov. Eric Holcomb that would classify religious services as essential during declared disaster emergencies and would prevent the government imposing any restrictions on religious services. "Religious organizations provide essential services that are necessary for the health and welfare of the public during a disaster emergency," the bill reads.(6)

"I hope its another 500 years before we ever have another disaster ... like what our state and nation have experienced this last year," said State Sen. Eric Koch. "But should that arise, this (bill) should protect that very enshrined right in our Constitution."(7)
