Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE PRESENCE OF GOD

After the miracle of Jesus walking on water, the disciples exclaimed, "Truly, you are the Son of God" (Matthew 14:33). Most Christians will probably never experience such a dramatic miracle. Like Elijah, we await the manifestation of God in other moments. Perhaps the biggest challenge for the believer is to be constantly attuned to the possible presence of God in the everyday events of life. This is a stance that takes some people years to develop. Others seem to find the Lord easily in the simple things. As the week unfolds, let us look for the presence of God in the little things around us. Perhaps, like Elijah, we will be surprised at what we find. And, like the disciples, we can add our voice to the confession, "Truly you are the Son of God."

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The LORD said to Elijah: "Stand on the mountain; the LORD will be passing by" (1 Kings 19:9a, 11-13a).

Psalm — Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation (Psalm 85).

Second Reading — To the Israelites belong the covenants, the law, and the patriarchs; and from them comes the Christ (Romans 9:1-5).

Gospel — As Jesus walked on the sea, the disciples were terrified (Matthew 14:22-33).

From administrator's desk on the 18th Sunday of Ordinary Time, year A

There are so many needs that must be met so that we may find life's satisfaction, from the most basic necessities like food, clothing, and shelter, to more sophisticated like companionship, education, and culture. Of these the greatest is the need for love and friendship. There are some studies that show that even if our bodily needs are fulfilled, but we do not receive enough human warmth and closeness we are still going to be miserable. In extreme cases people even die because of depravation of human contact. In fact, the greatest punishment for a prisoner is a solitary confinement. This is on biological and psychological level, but what about our spiritual needs? Very often people take care of their material and physical needs but tend to overlook the realm of the spirit.

As human beings we are created in the image and likeness of God. So we must remember that we have souls that need proper care too. That is why there is even a deeper need of human heart that goes beyond mere biological level. Most people experience inexplicable mental pain and suffering, for they forget to nourish their souls. It is a need to be with God that is deeply ingrained in each human life. It is poetically expressed in Psalm 63: "O God, you are my God—/ it is you I seek!/ For you my body yearns;/ for you my soul thirsts..."

Unfortunately, most people cannot identify this spiritual source of their longings. We usually stay on the surface of things thinking that if we have this thing or that we will be better off. Or if we travel and see more places, or have better standard of life and social status we will be happier. Very quickly we get disappointed, for the deepest longing of the heart remains unmet. That is why prophet Isaiah exhorts his people: "All you who are thirsty, come to the water!" (Isaiah 55:1). The water is God who reveals Himself to us through Jesus Christ.

In this Sunday's gospel reading we hear how our Lord Jesus responds to the basic human necessities as well as He nourishes their souls. Jesus heals human bodies and feeds the hungry crowd. While meditating the evangelical scene we must remember, however, that the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves of bread serves the purpose of pointing the way to much deeper reality of God, who alone is able to "satisfy the hungry hearts."

If you have achieved everything in this life—or at least have most of the things most humans want—and you are still feel uneasy and dissatisfied, it is a good sign. It is a signal that you need more God in your life. Like the crowds that followed Jesus, each and every one of us needs to listen to the Word of God and be nourished with the Body of Christ. Hence, let us try to find more time for individual prayer and better preparation for the Eucharist, in which Jesus performs the miracle of changing bread into His Precious Body. So when we come to Holy Mass we may recognize God's presence among us and experience His fulfilling Love in our lives too.

Have a blessed week! Fr. Janusz Mocarski, Administrator

VIRTUS TRAINING FOR ALL VOLUNTEERS

As part of our ongoing commitment to protect our children, Virtus training is offered twice a year here at St. Therese, or as needed, for all volunteers who have not yet previously attended.

The Diocese of Rockville Centre requires this one-time training for all parish volunteers whether you work directly with children or not. Non-volunteers also welcome. Our next training session will be on:

Monday, August 11th, 10:00am - 11:30am

Registration is suggested at www.virtusonline.org

If you have any questions regarding this particular training session or the registration process itself, please feel free to call Louise at 631 668-2200. St. Therese appreciates all you do for this parish!

Christian Persecution - Renounce Your Faith or No Food!

China: The Chinese Communist Party is forcing Christians to renounce their beliefs and replace religious symbols and imagery of Jesus with portraits of Chairman Mao and President Xi Jinping or be cut off from welfare payments, according to a recent U.S. State Department publication. "The government is trying to eliminate our belief and wants to become God instead of Jesus." (1)

"All impoverished religious households can't receive money from the state for nothing - they must obey the Communist Party for the money they receive," said a communist official. (2)

Kenya: A pastor in northeastern Kenya reports Christians are being denied food relief during the COVID-19 crisis. "The sad state of Christians in Kenya is being unpublished ... Many Christians are suffering at the hands of the local chiefs who oversee the fair distribution of the government's relief food..." (3)

Pakistan: Christian leaders are reporting Christians were denied government food aid amid the coronavirus crisis. "There was an announcement made through a mosque's loudspeaker ... inviting citizens to collect government's announced foodstuffs," a local pastor reported. "When Christians reached the distribution point and presented their national identity cards, they were asked to get out of line claiming the foodstuff was only for Muslim citizens." (4)

The U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom condemned the rejection of Christians and Hindus for food aid. "These actions are simply reprehensible," said the Commissioner. "As COVID-19 continues to spread, vulnerable communities within Pakistan are fighting hunger..." (5)

"The inconvenient truth," reported British foreign secretary Jeremy Hunt in 2019, is "that the overwhelming majority (80%) of persecuted believers are Christians. In the Middle East the population of Christians used to be about 20%; now it's 5%... We've all been asleep on the watch when it comes to the persecution of Christians." (6)
