Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations
please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.
For more information about this opportunity,
please contact the Parish Office at 631-668-2200.

DOUBT

The desire to be able to prove the existence of a divinity has troubled humanity since human consciousness first became aware of the divine. To this very day we are fond of saying that any number of things—from sunsets to hot fudge sundaes—are “proof that there is a God.” We get so caught up in the story of “doubting Thomas” that we fail to notice that today’s Gospel gives us John’s account of Pentecost, the bestowing of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples following the Resurrection. Thomas, evidently, missed out not only on seeing the Risen Christ, but receiving the Holy Spirit as well. This is not to be taken lightly and, perhaps, makes Thomas’ disbelief a bit easier to comprehend. It also makes his professing that Jesus is his Lord and God—the only time the New Testament explicitly refers to Jesus Christ as “God”—more remarkable.

April 11, 2021-Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy)

Dear Sisters and Brothers of Saint Therese Parish,

I trust that you each had a prayerful and peaceful Easter. While I wish we had been able to gather together for the Easter sunrise up at the lighthouse, the joy at the Easter Vigil and Sunday morning Masses was present in abundance. So too the sense of gratitude on Holy Thursday evening as our community blessed the feet of twelve essential workers. The silence of a rustic wooden cross carried down the center aisle on Good Friday bound us solemnly as people of faith who know both suffering in life and times of holding on to hope.

I came upon this reflection while “chilling out” on Easter Monday. John O’Donohue was a priest in the west of Ireland, a well known poet, author and speaker, certainly a favorite of mine. This is what he wrote: “On this Easter morning, let us look again at the lives we have been so generously given and let us let fall away the useless baggage that we carry - old pains, old habits, old ways of seeing and feeling - and let us have the courage to begin again. Life is very short, and we are no sooner here than it is time to depart again, and we should use to the full the time that we still have. We don’t realize all the good we can do. A kind, encouraging word or helping hand can bring many a person through dark valleys in their lives. We weren’t put here to make money or to acquire status or reputation. We were sent here to search for the light of Easter in our hearts, and when we find it we are meant to give it away generously. The dawn that is rising this Easter morning is a gift to our hearts and we are meant to celebrate it and to carry away from this holy, ancient place the gifts of healing and light and the courage of a new beginning.”

Easter blessings and peace,
Father Bob, C.P.

The Word of God This Week

Jesus Has Risen and Is Here

The disciples were afraid they might be killed like Jesus had been, so they locked themselves in a room. Suddenly, Jesus was there with them, talking to them. Thomas, however, was not there and did not believe Jesus had come. Thomas said, "I'll believe it when I see and touch Jesus' scars myself."

Later, Jesus came when Thomas was there. He told Thomas to touch his scars and to have faith. Thomas said, "You are my Lord and my God!"

Canceling Christianity Continues in America

"Cancel culture is the modern social attitude that controversial speech or behavior must be punished through public shaming, silencing, boycotting, firing, bankrupting, de-platforming, etc. The result is that the so-called offender's influence, presence, and/or reputation is 'canceled out.'" <sup>(1)</sup>

In America today, Christian figures and symbols have increasingly become the subject of debate and vandalism as protestors pull down statues of saints, such as St. Junipero Serra in CA, calling him a colonizer when he actually combated the cruelties of the Spanish colonizers. One prominent activist said that taking down statues of Jesus is acceptable so long as they depict Jesus as white, saying, "They are a form of white supremacy." <sup>(2)</sup>

Opposition to core Christian beliefs on life, marriage, and gender, have affected many institutions and resulted in numerous lawsuits. An example is the Little Sisters of the Poor, forced by the government to provide objectionable healthcare insurance, have taken their case to the Supreme Court three times. Last summer, Msgr. Charles Pope, a popular D.C. priest, became a victim of the cancel movement after he led a religious procession to the Emancipation Memorial and read Abraham Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation. He received so many online attacks, he had to shut down his accounts.

Happening Now: Satanic Temple suing Boston City over Opening Prayer

The Satanic Temple has sued Boston after the city council declined to allow Satanists to deliver an invocation at the start of its meetings. The group, which has lodged freedom of religion challenges nationwide, said that the council's policy for its opening prayer is discriminatory and unconstitutional because it does not permit prayer from every religious organization that wishes to deliver one.

"Evil triumphs when good men do nothing." - Thomas Jefferson

However, our laws do not require that Satanism be protected as a religion because it is, in fact, not a religion. It is irreligion or anti-religion, meant to deny devotion to God. "Its goal is to produce a society where religion is no longer viewed as a duty or inalienable right. Thus, granting Satanism religious-freedom protections undermines rather than strengthens religious-freedom rights by directly attacking their foundation: the existence of a Creator who is the source of unalienable rights." <sup>(3)</sup>

- Drive cancer patients, in your own car, from their home to the doctor and back again.
- Usually a 20-mile round trip; gas reimbursed.
- Most drivers volunteer once or twice a month.
- We guarantee an incredibly rewarding experience.
