Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations
please contact our office. 668-2200 Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.
For more information about this opportunity,
please contact the Parish Office at 631-668-

RESPONDING TO THE CALL

Do we truly know the voice of Christ? Do we truly respond to the voice of our shepherd with our own distinctive voice? How often we attempt to imitate those around us, appropriating the response of another member of the flock to Christ. Perhaps we need to balance the image of being sheep of one flock with the image from the second reading, which tells us that we are all children of God. What child has precisely the same interaction with parents as his or her siblings? Instead, they frequently do and say things to distinguish themselves in the eyes of their parents.

Whether we use the image of children or of sheep to understand our relationship with Christ, we believe that we are all known and called by name. With this great gift comes a responsibility: to respond to the call with our own distinctive voice, to take time to discern exactly what our call is, to determine precisely what the will of the Father is for each of us.

April 25, 2021-Fourth Sunday of Easter

Dear Sisters and Brothers of Saint Therese Parish,

Well, it sure does look like Spring is here. How about those daffodils?! Someone told me that there really isn't a Spring in Montauk but I'm still holding on to hope!

And I'm holding on to hope about getting on the other side of this pandemic. It seems more and more of us are getting vaccinated and we will certainly be rigorous in our observance of all the safety protocols here at Saint Therese. We will continually explore options for weekend Masses to accommodate safely those who are returning and those who are visiting. Still on the table is looking at the possibility of having our 10:30 Sunday Family Mass outdoors during the summer months.

Speaking of hope, I was recently reading a Pastoral Letter by our Bishop John Barres about the call to each of us to be "missionary disciples". Belonging to a missionary community myself, the Passionists, I was particularly energized by his words. The title of his letter was "Ya Gotta Believe", written on the 50th Anniversary of the NY Mets' improbable World Series championship on October 16, 1969 and how it can inspire the Catholic Church to a new era of evangelization. I was a freshman in college at the time and remember that series well. None of us dared to believe that our hometown team could win it...but they did!

Bishop Barres, a star basketball player himself in college, said he believes "that the spirit of the 1969 Miracle Mets can help inspire Catholics on Long Island to believe in the dramatic missionary growth and the evangelizing mission of the Catholic Church on Long Island... We gotta believe!" In other words, if we are an outgoing and welcoming faith community then those searching for a spiritual home will either "come home" or give us a try. If Covid times have taught us anything it is that we need one another...and miss being together.

So, "we gotta believe". The words of our Bishop, our good shepherd, are words of gathering and words of welcoming.

I hope we all have a great Spring!

Blessings and peace,
Father Bob, C.P.

Lord, thank you for protecting us like a shepherd protects his sheep. You are truly the Good Shepherd. Amen.

The Word of God This Week

Jesus Takes Care of Us

Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd, and the good shepherd gives up his life for his sheep. Hired workers don't own the sheep, so when a wolf comes, they run away. They don't protect the sheep.

"I know my sheep, and they know me. I have other sheep that are not in this sheep pen. I must bring them together too. Then there will be one flock of sheep and one shepherd."

"The Secret of Freedom - Courage" - Thucydides (Greek historian - 5th century BC)

Some With Courage Are Defending Religious Freedom

"Get out! Get out! ... Don't come back without a warrant!," ⁽¹⁾ yelled Pastor Artur Pawlowski to police and a public health officer as they "entered the church building uninvited on its holiest, most anticipated day for parishioners," during their church's Passover service in Alberta, Canada. "If they want to inspect the building, they can call me and we can arrange that... I asked them to get out and they would not move," said the Polish Pastor. ⁽²⁾

"I grew up under communist dictatorship behind the Iron Curtain, under the brute of the Soviets... It was like a ...flashback when those police showed up at my church.... And the only thing I could do is to fend off the wolves as a shepherd, and I used my voice to get rid of them." ⁽³⁾

In a "Huge Win!" ⁽⁴⁾ California lifts capacity limits on churches and in home religious gatherings following five rebukes from the U.S. Supreme Court in five separate cases citing the First Amendment's right to religious freedom. "This is the fifth time the Court has summarily rejected the Ninth Circuit's analysis of California's COVID restrictions on religious exercise," the opinion said. ⁽⁵⁾

"For over a year, the state of CA has targeted the faith community for discriminatory treatment depriving them of their fundamental right to worship. It shouldn't take a decision from the Supreme Court, much less five decisions, for Gov. Newsom to realize that what he has been doing is unconstitutional," said Center for American Liberty founder and CEO Harmeet Dhillon. ⁽⁶⁾

"Truth draws strength from itself and not from the number of votes in its favor."

Pope Benedict XVI

"Evil preaches tolerance until it is in power and then it seeks to silence good." -Archbishop Chaput

Colorado cake artist Jack Phillips is again defending his freedom to practice his Christian faith in his refusal to create a cake celebrating a gender transition. "Jack Phillips serves all people, no matter how they identify, but he cannot violate his conscience and create custom cakes celebrating all messages," said Alliance Defending Freedom. ⁽⁷⁾

"And, he is not alone. There are cases like these across the nation where an artist's livelihood - and in some instances, their homes and personal assets - are on the line simply for not wanting to speak a message that violates their core convictions. ... our system of justice is being weaponized as nothing more than an arm of cancel culture to ruin people with whom one disagrees." ⁽⁸⁾
