

St. Therese of Lisieux Parish

Where all are welcome to help us build the City of God!

Our Mission:

We are a spiritual home for all who come here to worship.

We are united in supporting one another in prayer and caring for the corporal needs of our brothers and sisters.

We strive to imitate Therese, our patroness, by loving one another even in the simplest ways.

Nuestra Misión:

Somos un hogar espiritual para todos los que viene a aquí venerar.

Somos unidos a apoyar el uno al otro en oración y en cuidar de las necesidades corporales de nuestros hermanos y hermanas.

Nos esforzamos a imitar Therese, nuestra patrona por amando el uno al otro aún en las maneras más sencillas.

Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations
please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.
For more information about this opportunity,
please contact the Parish Office at 631-668-2200.

The Ascension of the Lord

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE ASCENSION

The theological unity, or perhaps even the temporal experience of the early community, made it seem that Jesus' resurrection and his ascension were inseparable aspects of a single mystery. Only in the later writings of Luke and John has further theological reflection helped the Christian community to distinguish different dimensions of the mystery. Liturgical tradition has followed the forty-day chronology formulated by Luke. We would miss the point, however, if we were to demand a precise historical chronology of events such as the Resurrection-Ascension that are primarily spiritual in nature and that clearly surpass the bounds of time and space as we know them.

What is important for us to grasp is the significance of the Ascension. For Luke, it is the decisive turning point that marks the end of Jesus' earthly ministry and the beginning of the disciples' Spirit-led ministry and thus the ministry of the whole church down to our own day. May 16, 2021-The Ascension of the Lord (Seventh Sunday of Easter)

Dear Sisters and Brothers of Saint Therese Parish,

As many of you might already know, we had a delightful pastoral visit last Saturday evening with our Bishop John Barres. He travelled from Rockville Centre to Montauk, the furthest region of the Diocese, to say both the 5PM English Mass and the 8PM Spanish Mass and to greet the people both before and after. He was accompanied by Father Lachlan Cameron who is the Director of Campus Ministry and Religious Formation for the Diocese. Before arriving at Saint Therese they stopped for an ice cream cone here in Montauk and at the lighthouse where they were welcomed by Cindy and Tom Dess. The Bishop wanted his visit to be unannounced, low key, no fanfare - just a pastoral visit. By all accounts he was very well received, and I personally appreciated his words of support. Thankfully our parishioners at Gurney's found us a table for dinner at such short notice. As you might imagine, everything in Montauk was booked solid and I would not ask the Bishop and Father Lachlan to endure my cooking!

This pastoral visit reminded me that we are part of a larger local Church. The Diocese of Rockville Centre is vast and the needs are many. Sometimes being so far from the center of things might make us feel disconnected. I'm sure that's why Bishop Barres came - to let us know that we are very much connected.

And we are connected to the world wide Church with Pope Francis as our Shepherd. I think he has set the tone that the Church must be "manifestly filled with mercy". In our welcoming, in our decision making, in our pastoral outreach, in our sacramental life, in our teaching, mercy must be the ground-note. And who of us doesn't need that?

This morning I read a newly released document from the Vatican, issued "modo proprio" (on the Pope's own initiative), in which Pope Francis is formally creating a new official ministry of CATECHIST in the Catholic Church for those who teach the fundamentals of the faith to children and others, opening the position to "men and women of deep faith and human maturity". There will even be an official ceremony of institution for each of the catechists either at the Cathedral or in the local parish church. Stay tuned.

Finally, how do you like our new banner on the lawn by the Parish Center welcoming and inviting summer folks? Jerry McKeon did all the work in getting the banner printed and delivered and then he, Tom Genovese and Alfred Bennet (our parish's facilities custodian) put it up - with just a little bit of unsolicited advice from a few of us passers-by! So a big thank you. The summer season is beginning. May it be safe and peaceful and fruitful.

Blessings and peace,
Father Bob

Liturgy of the Word with Children

We Pray

May we follow you to Heaven, O Lord.
While on earth, help us to teach others about you. Amen.

The Word of God This Week

Jesus Ascends to Heaven

Jesus told his disciples, "Go and preach the Good News to everyone in the world. Whoever believes in me and is baptized will be saved." Then the Lord Jesus was taken back up to Heaven where he sat down at the right side of God.

Jesus Prays for His Followers

Jesus prayed to his Father, "Holy Father, I am coming to you, but my followers are still in the world. Keep them safe by the power of my name. Then they will be one with each other, just as you and I are one."

Critical Race Theory continued: "By a landslide vote, they don't want racially divisive 'critical race theory'(CRT) taught to their children or forced on their teachers," said newly elected Texas school board member Hannah Smith after parents overwhelmingly rejected candidates in favor of CRT. "(This vote) is a referendum on those who put personal politics and divisive philosophies ahead of ...students and families and their common American heritage and Texas values." ⁽¹⁾ More school districts around the country are also supporting school board candidates who oppose critical race theory as harmful to their children.

"There's no room in our classrooms for things like critical race theory," said FL Gov. DeSantis. "Teaching kids to hate their country and to hate each other is not worth one red cent of taxpayer money." ⁽²⁾

Legislation hoping to ban the Marxist ideology of CRT has been introduced in many states (NH, FL, IA, OK, AK, etc) in an effort to push-back against the government proposals to overturn an executive order of Sept., 2020, that banned instilling "divisive concepts" that claim "an individual, by virtue of his/her race or sex, is inherently racist, sexist, or oppressive ..." ⁽³⁾.

Critical race theory has gradually proliferated in recent decades through academia, government structures, school systems and the corporate world. It views individuals through the lens of Marxist principles of the "oppressors" (bourgeois - white people) and the "oppressed" (proletariat - everybody else).

In April, the administration proposed offering grants for K-12 history classes that use curriculum in support of critical race theory and other ideologies that teach the United States is inherently racist. In a letter to the Secretary of Education who is endorsing and promoting CRT, House members from Colorado & South Carolina wrote, "CRT commits to an unremitting attack on Western institutions and norms in order to dismantle all aspects of society... CRT is antithetical to the fundamental values and beliefs of America and the American dream." ⁽⁴⁾

"I have a dream that my 4 little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character." - Martin Luther King Jr.

Happening Now: Shifting Focus Away from International Religious Freedom:

Sec. of State Blinken reversed a 2020 executive order that directed federal agencies to "prioritize international religious freedom in the planning & implementation of U.S. foreign policy." Blinken vowed to "repudiate" the focus on religious freedom in foreign policy, which he said came at the cost of other human rights issues such as gay rights & abortion. ⁽⁵⁾

OUR PRAYER LIFE CONTINUES THROUGHOUT THE WEEK!

Come and spend time with Jesus in front of the Blessed Sacrament. The church is open for private prayer any time between 7AM-5PM.

SECOND TUESDAY OF THE MONTH

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and Benediction will be held on the second Tuesday of the month from 2-8 with Benediction at 7:45.

FRIDAY: 8PM-10PM Spanish Prayer Group (Church)

Other parish prayer groups will resume as needed.

- Drive cancer patients, in your own car, from their home to the doctor and back again.
- Usually a 20-mile round trip; gas reimbursed.
- Most drivers volunteer once or twice a month.
- We guarantee an incredibly rewarding experience.
