Remembering a Loved One

Memorials

As we bring our gifts to the altar at Mass we also bring our joy, pain, sorrow and love. We believe that God accepts all of this from us and gives us salvation through His Son in return.

If you would like to remember a loved one in our Eucharistic celebrations
please contact our office. 668-2200

Another thoughtful way to remember a loved one is by donating a Memorial in the form of a liturgical item to be used in worship at St. Therese. The ongoing needs of our parish enable us to offer a variety of such items for memorialization.
For more information about this opportunity,
please contact the Parish Office at 631-668-2200.

Pentecost Sunday

LORD, SEND OUT YOUR SPIRIT

In today's responsorial psalm the Church sings out: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." All three readings describe how God has answered that prayer already.

In the first reading from the Acts of the Apostles and in the Gospel passage from John, we read of astonishing events that called cowering disciples to step out of hiding and proclaim news that would condemn them and change the world forever! In the second reading Paul's words reach out into the future to us: "we were all given to drink of one Spirit" (1 Corinthians 12:13).

It is our task to truly pray today's psalm response. Let us together beg the Holy Spirit to renew the earth by renewing the Church, sending many more men and women to serve in its various ministries.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in different tongues (Acts 2:1-11).

Psalm — Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth (Psalm 104).

Second Reading — There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit (1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13) or Galatians 5:16-25.

Gospel — As the Father has sent me, so I send you: Receive the Holy Spirit (John 20:19-23) or John 15:26-27; 16:12-15.

May 23, 2021-Pentecost Sunday

Dear Sisters and Brothers of Saint Therese Parish,

Today we celebrate the tender yet powerful Feast of Pentecost. This day is often called the “birth-day of the Church”. The Spirit descends on an as yet small community, still raw and fearful following the Crucifixion of Jesus, still in mourning, still carrying the shame of abandoning Jesus, incredulous at His ascension, hoping He will be coming back in their lifetimes, wondering what the future will hold. The Spirit hovers and “breathes” over them, the very same word used in the Scriptures when the Spirit “breathed” new life over the waters at the time of Creation. New life, a new breath, re-creation. And it will all take place in community, when we gather, even when we are raw and afraid - maybe especially so. It is a time when we are most open to healing and newness.

I have conversed with friends, co-workers and brother priests about what the post pandemic “re-gathering” of the Church will be like. Will it be a “new Pentecost”, a re-birthing of sorts? No one really knows anymore than the first disciples huddled in the Upper Room knew so many years ago. All we really have is what those first disciples had - the promise that the Spirit would come and show us the way forward. The original Greek of the Gospel translates more that the Spirit will “nudge”, probably presuming that the first followers will resist any movement to newness over which they are not in control. I imagine it will be the same for us.

The Pentecost Spirit is often symbolized by fire and wind. The Holy Spirit of Love both warms and blows away, often in gentle whispers to our hearts. Will this pandemic somehow bring us to renewal as we re-gather? We may wonder who will come back. In my own heart as a pastor, I don’t worry about this. We need instead to listen and discern the movement of the Spirit in the community who does re-gather. My hope is that our faith commitment has somehow been strengthened by absence, by the fears and uncertainty we shared together in this world wide pandemic of shared suffering. Some of us will undoubtedly want to return only to what we knew. My guess is that there will also be a Spirit-infused “nudge” within our faith community here toward a deeper spirituality and missionary outreach to those searching for a “home” and a God to trust in. Let’s be open to it.

Happy Pentecost!
Father Bob, C. P.

Catholics for Freedom of Religion

www.cffor.org

What is Religious Freedom and What's at Stake if We Lose It

Religious liberty is increasingly under attack by those who believe it cannot and should not coexist with our other freedoms. However, religious freedom is a God given, fundamental human right and American value enshrined in our Constitution and protected by the Bill of Rights.

Freedom of religion protects the conscience of all people since it allows us to think, express and act upon what we deeply believe. This freedom of conscience is critical to the health of a diverse society by allowing different faiths and beliefs to flourish. "We claim the privilege of worshipping Almighty God according to the dictates of our own conscience, and allow all men the same privilege; let them worship (or not) how, where, or what they may," said Church of Latter-day Saints leaders.<sup>(1)</sup>

The American Founders understood the importance of religion for human, social, and political flourishing. That's why they styled religious freedom as the First Freedom and the foundation upon which all other freedoms are guaranteed and protected and without which the new Republic would fail.

"The propitious smiles of Heaven can never be expected on a nation that disregards the eternal rules of order and right which Heaven itself has ordained."
- George Washington, 1789

Americans supported the Founders' understanding of religious liberty when they overwhelmingly endorsed the Religious Freedom Restoration Act and the International Religious Freedom Act that were signed by President Bill Clinton in the 1990s.

However, a direct denial of conscience rights occurred on Sept. 8, 2016, when the chairman of the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights issued this statement: "(t)he phrases 'religious liberty' and 'religious freedom' (are) code words for discrimination, intolerance, racism, sexism, homophobia, Islamophobia (and) Christian supremacy ..."<sup>(2)</sup>

"If we lose freedom here, there is no place to escape to.
This is the last stand on earth." - President Ronald Reagan

Happening Now: Citing Concerns for Children:

The Tennessee legislature passed a bill to ban public and charter schools from teaching Critical Race Theory (CRT). "CRT teaches that American democracy is a lie," said State Sen. Kelsey. "It teaches that the rule of law does not exist and is instead a series of power struggles among racial groups. It is harmful to our students and is antithetical to everything we stand for as Americans and as Tennesseans." <sup>(3)</sup>
