What Does the Catholic Church Teach About....?

Question:

I was asked, “Could you explain the Marks of the Church and the Precepts of the Church?”

My Answer:

They definitely are two different entities.

The Marks of the Church are four in number. At Sunday Liturgy we actually proclaim a belief in them. When we make our Profession of Faith, The Creed, at the end we say that we believe in One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church. These are the four marks of the Church.

The Church is One. There is one and only one Church that Jesus established to bring about the Kingdom of God on earth. We profess that the Catholic Church is that Church. The Catholic Church holds the whole Deposit of Faith. The Truth of what Jesus taught is found entirely in the Catholic Church. There are those who would profess and expound that all Christian Denominations and all religions are equal, but if they do not proclaim what is found in the Scriptures fully, then there is something lacking. Jesus is God. Jesus established His Church. Jesus is present always within the Church wholly, physically.

The Church is Holy. The Church is Holy because it was established by Jesus Himself, who is wholly God and Holy God. The Church, the Body of Christ must be Holy to carry out the Holy mission that Jesus set forth. It is absolutely made up of individuals who can act in an un-Holy manner. The Holy Spirit is the guide. We are called to believe this fact. God directs God's Church.

The Church is catholic. Catholic means universal. The Church is established to preach the Good News everywhere on earth.

The Church is Apostolic. The Church follows closely what the Apostles, the chosen of Jesus, have set forth as God's message. Through Apostolic Succession the Church continues in the mission following what the Apostles have proclaimed in Scripture and the other Apostolic writings. The successors of Peter are the popes throughout the ages.

The Precepts of the Catholic Church are five in number. It is stated that the Minimum requirements necessary for a Christian to assure the possibility of attaining eternal glory are as follows:

1). You shall attend Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation and rest from servile labor on these days.

- 2). You shall confess your sins at least once a year.
- 3). You shall receive the Sacrament of the Eucharist at least during the Easter season.

4). You shall observe the days of fasting and abstinence established by the Church.

5). You shall help provide for the needs of the Church.

Have a question? Let me know at thomassoper@shentel.net. There is never a dumb question. The answer may not be what you think, but do not let that keep you from asking.
