Fr. Pat's Pen

Fr. Pat Jakel, Pastor

Written in the Love of Christ

WEARING MASKS AT MASS In an article in "Fr. Pat's Pen" two weekends ago, I wrote about wearing masks. This is a follow-up to that article.

This is a tough place to be in as a pastor and as parishioners and/or parents. We are caught between a rock and a hard place! Our attendance at Mass has declined by 300 people/weekend since the Governor's "mandates." Some are not attending because they don't want to wear masks; others because other people are not wearing masks. Some want to worship in a church, rather than a gym or hall. All a sad reality for a pastor.

In my bulletin article, I didn't mean to be critical, disparaging or judgmental of anyone. It's just that in today's society people are individual, critical thinkers and take stands on particular issues. In no way do I believe that "Father knows best!" Some people are more informed and/or filled with the Holy Spirit than I and sometimes I need to listen to them.

I believe the devil is at work in this pandemic. The word diablo means: evil, two, dichotomy, two camps and divided! The devil wants to separate and cause division! We need to pray - hard! I don't want that division to exist in our parish, so don't be surprised that I have addressed this, as I want what is in the best interest of every parishioner of St. Paul Parish, because I care!

The most solid advice I can give to well-informed, educated and responsible people is to be comfortable and at peace in your heart before God, with your well-informed conscience; making a personal conscious decision and living accordingly. I will not judge you, but rather, respect you and the position you have taken, because no one seems to know what is the right thing to do. We also need to think of others.

Not all people are well informed or educated on the pandemic and simply jump on the bandwagon; either as a result of what they see on the news, a friend's opinion, Facebook, etc. Others want direction because they don't know what to do. As a pastor, I have tried to give the most solid and safe direction I could offer. If it is the wrong direction, I apologize. I'm trying to do my best!

Let us join in prayer together for an end to this pandemic and for an increase in faith, hope and love. God will certainly carry us through this difficult time.

Please know that I love you! Fr. Pat

FR. PAT GONE ON ANNUAL VACATION from Sunday, October 3 to Friday, October 15. Thanks Fr. Kosk for being available for emergencies and special needs. Pray for me during this time as I pray for you.

ANOTHER THANKS to Fr. Pat's Patriots who worked so hard on the playset. Saving $15,000! It's up and going! I love those kids! And now I have a buddy bench to sit on when no one will play with me!

SEMINARIAN STEFAN is tired of walking from Indiana to Highland. LOL! We would like to get a car for his use. At 26 years old he must rely on others to take him to his ministry parish twice a week, or to Walmart if he needs anything, as St. Meinrad Seminary, Indiana is in the middle of nowhere - at least a half hour from anything but farms. He gets an extended weekend once a month and last Sunday Fr. Kosk had to take him back to the seminary; a five-hour round trip.

Stefan came to the United States with nothing. His biological family is not rich by any means. Stefan's father died and his mother works as a custodian. St. Paul Parish is now his family. Due to the hospitality, spirituality and generosity of St. Paul, he made a decision to study for the priesthood for our diocese. He loves us and we love him!

Because Stefan is now a member of our family do you think we can support him with prayer, care packages, cards of support and, God-willing, a car?

Please prayerfully consider offering a monetary gift toward the purchase of a vehicle. Place your gift in an envelope marked "Stefan's Car." The amount received will determine how new of a used car we can get for him, reliable for distance trips. I'm working with local dealers.

MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

On Sun. Oct. 31, at the 10am Mass, we will celebrate our annual Mass of Remembrance to honor our beloved who have died this past year. If you lost a loved one who was not from St. Paul and would like their name included in this special Mass, please call Lorraine in the Parish Office. Family members of parishioners who have died will receive a letter with details about the Mass of Remembrance. Please remember in prayer all the faithful departed and those who are grieving.

Looking ahead, Fr. Kosk and I will offer the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick after all Masses the weekend of Nov. 13-14. Please know that we are happy to offer this sacrament at any time, especially for those who anticipate surgery or are suffering from chronic health concerns of the body, mind or spirit. Jesus cares about all of our needs and when something is heavy on our hearts, we can confidently bring our pain, suffering and concerns to Him in this Sacrament.

PIANO DONATION A parishioner, who wishes to remain anonymous, has given our parish a piano in pristine condition fully tuned and delivered! We have placed it in the Parish Life Center and are currently using it for gym Masses. We thank them for their generosity.

As you all know by now, St. Paul sends $5,000 each month to our sister parish in Haiti – St. Charles Borromeo, for which we have a monthly envelope. Occasionally we have also had other special collections for our sister parish – Dig-a-Well, Hurricane Relief, etc. Recently there have been questions as to how money sent from St. Paul reaches our sister parish and whether a third party (individual or entity) takes possession of funds before they reach St. Charles Borromeo.

Please be assured that all funds that St. Paul sends to St. Charles Borromeo are sent from our account directly to St. Charles Borromeo's parish account via a direct wire transfer; there is no other entity involved. When the funds are deposited on the other end of the transaction, it is in St. Charles Borromeo's account. All money sent from St. Paul to St. Charles Borromeo, whether it be for our monthly donation or funds collected for a special collection, is sent via this direct wire transfer process, using the wire transfer instructions that are on file with our local financial institution (FCB Bank).

We realize that these wire transfers are only possible through your generosity to our Haiti collections. Thank you for your support of our sister Parish in Haiti and for being a living example of your Christian faith! KEEP SHINING!!

Fr. Kosk At Global Brewery

Our own Fr. Kosk shared his love for the Divine Mercy and Saint Sister Faustina on Monday at Global Brewery at an evening of Pub Theology.

The monthly event is hosted by St. Boniface and provides guest speakers, who discuss theology in a fun, casual setting.

Dear Ministers of the Liturgy — this is the last weekend that the MSP schedule (below) will be published in the bulletin. This schedule is on our parish website and volunteers receive an e-mail reminder for their assignments and alerts when there is a sub request. If you are having problems using the MSP app, it is recommended that the app be removed from your device and re-loaded. Please call Molly or Lorraine in the Parish Office if you have any questions about the MSP link or checking your schedule online. Ministers without internet will continue to receive their schedule through the mail. Thank you all!

Gathering: For the Beauty of the Earth

For the beauty of the earth,
For the glory of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies:
Lord of all, to you we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

For the beauty of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flow'r,
Sun and moon, and stars of light:
Lord of all, to you we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth and friends above;
For all gentle thoughts and mild:
Lord of all, to you we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

For your Church, that evermore
Lifts its holy hands above,
Off'ring up on ev'ry shore
A pure sacrifice of love:
Lord of all, to you we raise
This our hymn of grateful praise.

First Reading

Gn 2:18-24

A Reading from the Book of Genesis

The LORD God said: "It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a suitable partner for him." So the LORD God formed out of the ground various wild animals and various birds of the air, and he brought them to the man to see what he would call them; whatever the man called each of them would be its name. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of the air, and all wild animals; but none proved to be the suitable partner for the man. So the LORD God cast a deep sleep on the man, and while he was asleep, he took out one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. The LORD God then built up into a woman the rib that he had taken from the man. When he brought her to the man, the man said: "This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman,' for out of 'her man' this one has been taken." That is why a man leaves his father and mother and clings to his wife, and the two of them become one flesh.

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm 128

May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives

Second Reading

Heb 2:9-11

A Reading from the Book of Hebrews

Brothers and sisters: He "for a little while" was made "lower than the angels, " that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. For it was fitting that he, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the leader to their salvation perfect through suffering. He who consecrates and those who are being consecrated all have one origin. Therefore, he is not ashamed to call them "brothers."

The Word of the Lord Thanks be to God

Gospel

Mk 10:2-16

The Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, "Is it lawful for a husband to divorce his wife?" They were testing him. He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?" They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female. For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh. So they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, no human being must separate." In the house the disciples again questioned Jesus about this. He said to them, "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery against her; and if she divorces her husband and marries another, she commits adultery." And people were bringing children to him that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. When Jesus saw this he became indignant and said to them, "Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." Then he embraced them and blessed them, placing his hands on them.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to You Lord Jesus Christ

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (Bow slightly until "became man") and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth;
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, Our Lord, (Bow slightly until "Virgin Mary") Who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and life everlasting. Amen.

Presentation: God, in the Planning

God, in the planning and purpose of life,
Hallowed the union of husband and wife:
This we embody where love is displayed,
Rings are presented and promises made.

Jesus was found, at a similar feast,
Taking the roles of both waiter and priest,
Turning the worldly towards the divine,
Tears into laughter and water to wine.

Therefore we pray that his spirit preside
Over the wedding of bridegroom and bride,
Helping them share what is tender and true,
Lighting with love all they dream of and do.

Praise then the Maker, the Spirit, the Son,
Source of the love through which two are made one.
God's is the glory, the goodness, and grace,
Seen in this marriage and known in this place.

Communion: Let Us Be Bread

Refrain: Let us be bread, blessed by the Lord, broken and shared, life for the world.
Let us be wine, love freely poured. Let us be one in the Lord.
I am the bread of life, broken for all. Eat now and hunger no more. (Refrain)

You are My friends if you keep My commands, no longer servants but friends. (Refrain)

See how My people have nothing to eat. Give them the bread that is You. (Refrain)

As God has loved Me, so I have loved You. Go and live on in My love. (Refrain)

Closing: I Want to Walk as a Child of the Light

I want to walk as a child of the light. I want to follow Jesus. God set the stars to give light to the world. The star of my life is Jesus. (Refrain)

I want to see the brightness of God. I want to look at Jesus. Clear sun of righteousness shine on my path and show me the way to the Father.
(Refrain)

Refrain: In Him there is no darkness at all. The night and the day are both alike. The Lamb is the light of the city of God.
Shine in my heart, Lord Jesus.

I'm looking for the coming of Christ. I want to be with Jesus. When we have run with patience the race, we shall know the joy of Jesus.

The main task of angels is to worship God, glorifying his glory and power. The angels are in God's presence and in His love. Another task is to do God's will on earth. They are to convey messages from God to man.

Let us not forget that we can join in intercession with the angels of our beloved deceased, that they may take our prayers before God's throne and that the Lord may show them His mercy.

From Pope Francis:

WE CANNOT KEEP THE LORD TO OURSELVES

Once we experience the power of God's love, and recognize His fatherly presence in our personal and community life, we cannot help but proclaim and share what we have seen and heard.... "Go therefore to the highways and byways, and invite everyone you find" (Mt 22:9). No one is excluded, no one need feel distant or removed from this compassionate love.... As Christians, we cannot keep the Lord to ourselves: the Church's evangelizing mission finds outward fulfillment in the transformation of our world and in the care of creation.... The theme of this year's World Mission (Sun)day - "We cannot but speak about what we have seen and heard" (Acts 4:20), is a summons to each of us to "own" and to bring to others what we
