FOCUS QUESTION—DECEMBER 23RD

Reading: Micah 5:1-4A; Hebrews 10:5-10; Luke 1: 39-45

1. God chose Bethlehem, "too small to be among the clans of Judah", for the Nativity. Do I choose the small and humble?
2. "Sacrifice and offering you did not desire", "I come to do your will, O God". Do I strive for pageantry or God's will?
3. "Mary set out... in haste" How soon do I respond to another's need?
4. How do I experience the Holy Spirit acting in my life? Do I figuratively "leap for joy"?

CHRISTMAS PRAYER

Lord, bless all who look upon the miracle of the manger; may it remind us of the humble birth of JESUS, and raise our thoughts to Him,

who is God-with-us and Savior of all.

Let us remember the shepherds brought no gifts,
nor did the Magi,

or even the imaginary drummer boy
who performed for the baby Jesus.

They just came to be with the Lord...
That's all they were ever asked to do.

Help us to do the same.

Amen.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Mrs. Barbara Tomusko, Director of Religious Education
December – celebrating the Birth of Jesus

Today's Gospel contains the origins of the ancient prayer celebrating the Annunciation and the Incarnation of Jesus Christ. The words of the Angel Gabriel to Mary, "Fear Not!" and Elizabeth's greeting, "Blessed are you who believed!" encourages us to trust in the goodness of God, whose love for us is everlasting and unfathomable.

In the fullness of time, Christ came with the announcement of the reign of love. With it He brought Joy, Hope, and His Peace. May we truly embrace these precious gifts of Divinity for humanity and share them with our brothers and sisters, so that as Jesus prayed, 'all may be one.' John 17:21

A Joyous Christmas to all and Best Wishes for a New Year full of hope, abundance, health, wisdom, and profound peace in all hearts, with the love of family and friends to surround us on the journey!

For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Isaiah 9:6
